UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS

SENATE

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 1st, 1925.

The Senate met at 11:00 o'clock A. M.

The PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE (Mr. John C. Homsher) in the Chair.

PRAYER.

The Chaplain, Rev. Edward S. Ninde, offered the following prayer:

O Lord: May Thy blessing rest upon the Senators as they gather here this morning. We thank Thee for the fine spirit of good-fellowship that prevails among them. They do not all belong to the same political party; they may not always see eye to eye with reference to public questions; and yet the law of mutual courtesy holds good in their midst. Bless the homes represented in this body. Be Thou the honored guest in every family circle. Watch over all the loved ones; grant health and joy and prosperity and keep sorrow and trouble far away. Both in public and in private life may the Senators be under Thy protecting care. May Thy special blessing at this time rest upon the member of this body who is suffering. As Thou art the great Physician, lay Thy healing hand upon him and speedily restore him to perfect health and strength. For Jesus' sake. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED.

The PRESIDENT—A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. BUCKMAN, the further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 434, (House Bill No. 591), as follows:

A Joint Resolution proposing an amendment to article nine of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania by adding thereto section sixteen

Section 1 Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met That the following amendment to the Constitution of Pennsylvania be and the same is hereby proposed in accordance with the eighteenth article thereof

That article nine be amended by adding thereto the following section

Section 16 In addition to the purpose stated in article nine section four of this Constitution the State may be authorized by law to issue bonds to the amount of twenty-five millions of dollars for the purpose of acquiring land in the State for forest purposes

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. STEELE. Mr. President, I desire to make a few remarks respecting the proposal to issue Bonds for the purchase of forest lands and to state that my conclusions are based upon an experience secured during forty years of association with all departments of the lumber business and first hand information as to the growth of timber and a knowledge of the timber supply secured by travel and observation in our State and throughout the United States.

Mr. President, the subject before us, the Joint Resolution proposing an amendment to the Constitution of Pennsylvania to authorize an issue of bonds to the amount of twenty five millions of dollars for the purpose of acquiring lands in the State for forest purposes, is worthy of our most earnest consideration.

The first question we may ask in approaching a practical solution of the matter is, does the present condition of the timber supply in our State and the requirements of our industries and consumers of timber products justify the proposed bond issue? It is not easy to determine exact figures but the best authorities agree that the supply of original growth timber in this State is practically exhausted and that counting the production from second growth and all kinds of timber we are to-day obliged to import about 75% of our lumber and timber products to supply the requirements of our industries and the erection and maintenance of building operations.

The second observation I have to make under the head of a practical solution of this problem is that the time is rapidly approaching when it will not be possible to secure timber from other sources to supply the needs of our State. The most conservative estimates agree that the present supply of standing timber in the United States will be exhausted in less than forty years. It requires fifty years and upwards to grow merchantable timber and unless we immediately engage in reforestration on a large scale a severe timber famine fifty years hence is inevitable.

Mr. President, in view of these facts it is our duty to put into effect a program that will insure to our State a supply of forest products sufficient to meet the necessities of our people.

The first requisite in such a program is to secure the money with which to purchase lands upon which to grow the forests. In-as-much as it requires a long period of years to grow timber and that the greater benefits to be derived from such forest will be shared in largest measure by future generations it is appropriate and just that the necessary money be provided by an issue of bonds.

Mr. President, it is not that a pay as you go policy is not desirable, but it is a fact proven by experience that an adequate forest program cannot be made effective if attempted to be financed by current appropriations.

The experience in our State, which from 1898 to 1925 expended $2,559,237.73 in the purchase of about 1,131,000 acres of land, (or at an average rate of $87,451.21 yearly expenditures), proves how difficult it has been to secure regular appropriations. The State of New York had much the same experience and the realization of the failure of such a plan and of the fact that the necessity was urgent caused them to adopt the Bond Issue method as the most effective for advancing its forestry program. New York accordingly in 1916 approved a bond issue of $10,000,000.00 and in 1924 an additional bond issue of $15,000,000.00 for the same purpose.

The experience of the Federal Government which began fourteen year ago a program for the purchase of forest lands under which $2,000,000.00 was to be appropriated annually has been equally unsatisfactory and after a lapse of fourteen years there has been appropriated but $14,000,000.00 and the Federal program is less than 40% completed. I quote from a letter from "Col. W. B. Greeley, Chief of the United States Forest Service, in which he says, "The common experience of all the states shows plainly that this work may not be conducted adequately if it depends upon current appropriations."

There is another factor which emphasizes the urgency for the immediate adoption of a forest land purchase program. It is the loss of $4,000,000.00 per year in wages formerly paid by the lumber industries, which have left the State. The cost of freight on lumber brought into the State is another large item estimated at $25,000,000,00 per year. If we immediately use our most diligent efforts to restore our forests, Pennsylvania must necessarily for some years carry the heavy burden of the loss of its lumber industries and the expensive freight bill, and remain dependent upon outside sources of wood supplies to maintain its homes and industries.

I quote from a letter received from a capable business man in my District engaged in a business using large amounts of lumber in which he says—"In connection with the Bond Issue legislation, it seems to me that it is of vital importance that this Bond Issue should go through. Just now we are using 25,000 to 30,000 ft. daily of White Pine lumber on which we are paying $20.00 to $23.00 per M ft. freight. This would be Pennsylvania business had the forests been properly conserved and taken care of years ago."

The number of tanneries in our State have been greatly reduced because of the exhaustion of timber for bark, with a corresponding loss in wages paid and benefits conferred on communities in which they were located. The great paper mills in this State have an increasingly difficult problem to secure a supply of pulpwood to maintain their operations.

Mr. President, I respectfully submit that the necessity for prompt action is great and that experience of the past, both State and National, unmistakably prove that the proposed plan to issue bonds is the plan which assures a definite commitment to a program for effective forestry.

If the method of financing the bond issue is a factor in arriving at a decision as to the merit of the Joint Resolution, Mr. President, I would suggest that the proposed bond issue can, if, and when approved, be sold in amounts, ("to be covered by the "Enabling Ace"), adequate to carry forward the program, and provisions for retiring the bonds can begin to be operative in the year 1931 and based on an interest rate of 4% the entire issue can be paid off by the year 1955 at a total cost for both principal and interest of $37,500,000.00. If a longer time plan is considered more desirable the interest cost will be greater, however, in any event the investment in forest lands will eventually repay to the State both principal and interest and in addition yield a large profit. In addition to this such an acreage of forest lands will be of estimable value in the protection of the water sheds of streams thereby assuring a better rainfall and contributing to the fertilty of millions of acres of farm lands, besides furnishing the forest cover and stream protection for game and fish and a place for recreation for millions of the people of our Commonwealth.

Mr. President, the proposal to submit to the voters of the State the amendment authorizing the $25,000,000.00 bond issue has already been carefully considered by a large number of our citizens and the opinion is freely expressed that the time has arrived when the State should purchase available lands without delay, and the people of our sections of the State in person and by letter in large numbers request that this resolution be submitted for their ratification.

The Joint Resolution for the amendment has been passed by the last General Assembly and it has been passed unanimously by the House of Representatives of this Assembly, and in view of all these considerations, I respectfully submit that it is our duty to pass this Joint Resolution and thereby give the voters of this State the opportunity to register their opinion on this proposition which means so much for the future welfare of Pennsylvania.

Mr. BALDWIN. Mr. President, if I had the ability and the imagination and the vision of our good friend the poet laureate of this Senate, I refer, of course to Senator George Woodward—I would present this forestry proposition to you in a poem. I think that is really the way it ought to be treated, and I would touched you up as effortless, "as woodland nooks send violets up and paint the marble." But I am not a poet, and I have got to confine myself to the cool facts as I see them; and I want to say to you, Members of the Senate, that in order not to impose upon you I have written down some of the things that I want to say, and am going to confine myself to the written page, very greatly, in order to save imposition upon you.

Mr. President and members of the Senate: I want to say as to my position relative to the Resolution before us that what I shall have to present is as a friend of the Forestry Department and of conservation.

It was my good fortune to have known quite intimately Dr. Rothrock, the Father of Forestry in Pennsylvania and a most wonderful character. I have kept in close touch with the Forestry Department from the beginning and am in full sympathy with its efforts. Some of the first lands that were purchased by the State were from my own county and vicinity. Not more than one or two counties in the State, if any, have as much forest land located within their bounds as has the County of Potter.

We have been interested at different times in the sale of tracts to the State and have done more or less planting of seedlings on a small scale, covering a considerable period of time.

My sympathies are entirely with this Department. My friends generally are in favor of the Bond Issue so when I take a position not in exact accord with their views and the views held generally over the State, you may know that I am thoroughly convinced that there is a better plan of meeting the situation than the one proposed.

If a better plan can be worked out where the object which we have in view can be accomplished with very much less expense to the State and with advantage to the Forestry Department without a Bond Issue, I am impressed that it is our duty to work it out in this manner. I imagine that the Members of the Senate perhaps feel as I do, that we do not want to bond the State if the same thing can be accomplished more advantageously without a Bond Issue. Personally I freely confess that I am not in favor of bonding the State if it can be avoided and the same thing accomplished without a hardship to the State, and with millions of dollars of saving.

I feel that we in Pennsylvania can well afford to follow the example set by our illustrious President and his eminent Secretary of the Treasury in matters of economy and efficiency and that, instead of pursuing a policy that is sure to increase our taxes and the obligations against our State, that we avoid these increases wherever possible.

The question before the General Assembly with regard to the proposed $25,000,000 Bond Issue for the purchase of forest lands, is not whether a policy of re-forestation shall be adopted, for the policy has already been established, but rather the plan by which the cost of the acquisition of waste lands for re-forestration purposes shall be financed.

Prior to 1921 the policy of the Commonwealth was to acquire lands from time to time as they were offered at a reasonable price and as moneys were available from appropriations. From 1903 to 1921 the law provided that not more than $300,000 should be expended in any one year. In this manner Pennsylvania acquired since 1898, 1,131,611 acres of land at the average cost of $2.26 per acre, and a total cost of $2,599,237.

It is said the purpose of the proposed bond issue is to increase the acreage of State Forest lands to five million acres. This means the purchase of about 3,500,000 additional acres. Allowing an increase in the cost of waste lands to $2.50 per acre, this would mean an expenditure of $8,750,000 for the purchase of 3,500,000 acres. If we paid $3.00 per care it would take $10,500,000. It would appear, therefore, that $25,000,000 is greatly in excess of the amount required to carry out the proposed program.

Possibly the request for so large a sum is due to the realization that the instant this money is available there will be a rapid increase in the price of waste lands, necessitating the expenditure of so large a sum of money. As an instance of what will happen if this money is borrowed, we may consider that while several hundred thousand acres were usually in offer before the Department of Forests and Waters, there are now in offer before the Department upwards of one million acres, awaiting the raising of this $25,000,000. When the Department has but a limited sum of money for expenditure any year, it will always have more lands in offer than it can purchase, with the result that only the cheapest land is acquired by the Commonwealth. There is than no opportunity for owners to raise the price of waste lands because the Commonwealth is not in a position to purchase, and there is no one else who will purchase. There is no justification of a Bond Issue of $25,000,000 when $8,760,000 or $10,500,000 judiciously expended in accordance with the prior policy of the Commonwealth would seem sufficient to complete the program outlined.

An expenditure of $500,000 a year for 19 years would purchase the waste lands available without imposing upon the State a penny of debt. The 4% interest on $25,000,000 would amount to $1,000,000 a year, more than could possibly be expended after the first year or so. This would purchase all land available in ten or twelve years and avoid the Bond Issue.

The State of Pennsylvania has already authorized the issue of $100,000,000 worth of bonds for the improvement of highways, and a new bond issue for an additional $50,000,000 for this purpose has been introduced at this session. Other bond issues which have been proposed are as follows: $35,000,000 for Soldiers' Bonus; $25,000,000 for the acquisition of forest lands; $8,000,000 for State College; $5,000,000 for Armories; and $50,000,000 for Penal Institutions and $100,000,000 for Memorial Bridge of New Buildings—Runs over one-half billion dollars.

To the above it is said $100,000,000 must be added to complete the present State Highway System to which the State is pledged. The State of Pennsylvania cannot bear the interest and sinking fund charges of such a debt without a very large increase in its taxes. Whether these new revenues required shall be raised by taxes on net profits, gasoline, invested capital, or the capital stock of manufacturing corporations or by a direct tax on land, or by some other means, will likely become the future question. Some check upon such an enormous debt is certainly required.

Under the provisions of House Bill No. 592, it is proposed to issue this $25,000,000 worth of bonds at the rate of $2,000,000 a year beginning in 1926 and ending in 1938, retirement of bonds to begin in 1946 at the rate of $500,000 a year. This issue of $25,000,000 at 4% would ultimately cost the State $63,740,000 by the year 1995.

A thirty year 4% bond issue of $25,000,000 with serial retirement would cost the State of Pennsylvania $40,504,000; and a fifty year bond issue, such as it is now proposed shall be made, will cost the Commonwealth approximately $50,000,000.

The lands can be purchased much more advantageously if so large an amount of money is not available and being flourished before the eyes of those who have lands for sale. As any of us know, that those who want to sell their lands will feel safe in asking a larger price if they know the Department is bound to buy them and has an over-abundance of money in hand to make the purchase.

As illustrative of this I might cite you one case of a friend of mine who has large tracts of land to sell and who is very much interested in the passage of the Bond Issue, remarking to me that he wanted everything done possible for the passage of the bond issue, as, while the lands belonging to his company were worth $10 or $12 an acre, that they had decided to sell them when the bond issue was passed for $7.50.

As a matter of fact, there is no other purchaser for these lands than the state and this owner as well as others, if they realize that they cannot get any more for them, will be more than pleased to sell their holdings to the State for $2.00 or $2,50 an acre, the most that the State should pay for them, in my judgment.

There was passed on April 15, 1903 an Act of Assembly which limited the expenditure of more than $300,000 in any fiscal year for the purchase of lands, which act has been referred to. This provision was not repealed until 1921. In my judgment, the Members of the Legislature and the Executive had the right point of view when this measure was passed, and this act should never have been repealed but should have continued as the policy of the Department to the end. If it has been carried out we would not have this problem before us. I, however, imagine that the repeal was made preparatory to the proposed Bond Issue.

When we take into consideration what the large cost is going to be upon any Bond Issue, and will stop to realize what it is going to mean for the State to take care of the sinking fund and interest upon a $25,000,000 Bond Issue each biennium, and remember that besides we must add to this the cost of taxes that will have to be paid by the State upon the lands under the present law, which would amount to 5 cents an acre on 3,500,000 acres, or a tax item of $175,000 a year, and then add to this the additional costs of administration—which will be a large amount, especially if we protect these lands from fire and do the amount of replanting that should be done, it will necessitate the raising of new revenues in the future to carry on this program. The cost of conducting the Forestry Department now is nearly $1,000,000 a year, and it will doubtless take four or five times as much if 5,000,000 acres are acquired, or at the rate of at least $4,000,000 a year.

My suggestion as to meeting this situation would be to appropriate at the rate of at least $300,000 each year as proposed under the act of 1903, which would only represent 3% interest on $10,000,000. In further justification of an appropriation of $600,000 each two years, I would say that in my opinion this will furnish all the money that can be used advantageously in purchasing lands in any two years. It takes time to negotiate your agreements for purchase, to examine titles, etc; and this will be especially true when the larger tracts of land have been acquired and you will be buying in smaller pieces and many more titles will have to be examined and more time taken in making negotiations. All of this work is done by one obstracting company, This would be carrying out the act of 1903, limiting the amount expended for the purchase to $300,000 annually. I am thoroughly convinced that the reasons for this restriction are just as strong today as they were when the act was passed by the Legislature in 1903. Or the amount appropriated could be increased to $500,000 or $1,000,000 annually for the first one or two bienniums.

My second proposition would be to increase the Resident Hunter's license Fee $1.00. This would raise at least $500,000 each year to be used for the purchase of lands. There has been such a Bill introduced in the Legislature. It would give the entire supervision and use of the lands to the sportsmen and they would have all benefits derived from the same. They could do such planting as they thought wise. The land would thus be acquired and administered without any additional costs to the State. The sportsmen have advocat- a proposition of this kind for several years back and I have every reason to believe that this measure in its present form would be very generally acceptable to them.

I am sure you would be greatly surprised to learn how completely the situation would be taken care of if $500,000 could be had each year. When we were appropriating at the rate of $600,000 a biennium, all of the appropriations were used, and you would find this to be the case if an established appropriation of this kind could be adopted in the future.

As far as the sportsmen of the State are concerned they will be just as well taken care of if some of the land is not owned by the State, as it is very seldom that there is any interference as far as hunting and fishing are concerned by owners of land, other than the State; and the watersheds are surely as well protected by the growth upon the land whether owned by individuals, corporations or the State.

In fact, for several years past the seedlings raised by the State have been planted by individuals and corporations and the State has not carried on a planting program. If we have not been able to carry on a proper planting program with the amount of land which we have, will we be able to do it when we have acquired nearly five times as much? I think not.

It should be purchased in such a manner as to be properly assimilated and taken care of as the title is acquired by the State.

I am impressed from another angle also, which I think is not of advantage to the State in the purchase of this land; and that is, that I would not allow the Game Commission and the Department of Forests and Waters both to do the purchasing, which should be vested in one Department; and I would not have one Department of the State competing with another in the purchase of lands. I am sure that such a practice will make the land more expensive for the State.

But I realize that I am occupying considerable of your time and this has not been my desire, but I do wish to impress upon you the importance of looking at this matter in the light that I consider for the best interest of all parties concerned: the tax-payers, Forestry Department and the State.

I am not forgetting, at the same time, that our obligation is to protect the State, to avoid waste and unnecessary expenditure of funds, and, perhaps, the disgrace that will come by authorizing a Bond Issue of $25,000,000 for a purpose that all of you will agree $10,000,000 should take care of. If I did not have strong convictions that this is the case, I would not take this amount of interest in it. Some of you will be inclined to answer that this is a matter for the people to pass upon by their vote. I cannot agree with you, as the voters are not liable to be informed upon both sides of the question nor make the necessary investigation to inform themselves. If they would do this there would be no question in my opinion as to the result.

Publicity and propaganda will be used altogether for the passage of the Bond and the damage will then be done.

We should not go to the expense of a referendum to the people, especially when the amount is so unreasonable as $25,000,000; but the matter of appropriating a sufficient amount should be looked after by the Legislature and we should begin by making an adequate appropriation at the present session or by passing the bill increasing the Resident Hunter's License Fee by $1.00. The Quigley Bill, which has passed the Senate, would provide an appropriation for $2,000,000 for the biennium.

Under my plan a $300,000 appropriation annually will purchase 100,000 acres at $3.00 per acre or 120,000 acres at $2.50 per acre; in thirty years 3,000,000 acres at $3.00 or 3,600,000 acres at $2.50 per acre. The cost of examining titles should be added. This would cover the life of only an ordinary Bond Issue. In my judgment no such acreage will be found available.

With a Bond Issue it will cost the State, in the end, instead of $2.50 or even $3.00 per acre, three or four times this amount. When the proposed Bond Issue is spoken of as reforestration it is a misnomer, as no part can be used for anything except the acquiring of waste land.

It will be found necessary for the State to assume a larger burden of taxes in sections where they procure large holdings, as roads and schools cannot be kept up at the rate of taxes the State is now paying. In Elk County they are losing over $3,900 a year in taxes for school purposes alone, receiving this much less from the State than from the former owners. The State will be obliged to pay, in my opinion, at least twice as much taxes as they are now paying, or 10 cents an acre.

Now, Members of the Senate, you know that it has never been my desire to impose upon you in any way, nor to occupy much of your time, and I have tried to avoid that; but I have some letters here from people who I consider eminent sportsmen and as eminent authority as there is in the State. I want to read a letter from a former Chairman of the Game Commission, John M. Phillips, and let you know his views. And if these facts are not sufficient, it is not because he has not given a lifetime of study and enthusiasm in the cause, because he has. His letter is under date of March 23rd.

PHILLIPS MINE AND MILL SUPPLY CO.

Pittsburgh, Pa., March 23rd, 1925.

Hon. Frank E. Baldwin, Penna. State Senate, Harrisburg, Pa.

Dear Senator:—I am sorry that I cannot attend the meeting before your Committee considering the proposed $25,000,000.00 bond issue for reforestation. Since I first met my late friends, Dr. Rothrock and Mr. Elliott, about forty years ago, who were the pioneers in our present system of reforestration, I have been interested in the conservation of forests and wild life.

The parties back of the proposed Bond Issue are to be commended for their interest in reforestation and for their endeavors to find the proper method of financing the same. However, as a taxpayer and a sportsman, I feel that the passage of the proposed bond issue would be a grave mistake. My objections to this bill are:

1st. There is no necessity for a Bond Issue, and especially for one of the size proposed as the interest alone on $25,000,000 for a few years would be ample to purchase all the land available.

2nd. We, as taxpayers, are already overburdened with bond issues and consequent taxes.

When it is assured that this large sum of money is or will be available for the purchase of a limited acreage of land, now estimated at 3,500,000 acres, the price will immediately go up. Much of this is burned over and cut over land. The entire area should be purchased for not more than an average price of $2.50 per acre, or at a total cost of $8,750,000. Why issue bonds for $25,000,000.00?

The sportsmen have been led to believe that they would be greatly benefited by this bond issue through game refugees established on state land. About 20 years ago, before the Game Commission had sufficient funds to purchase any land, it established game refugees, with the consent of the Forestry Department, on Forest lands. These lands are rightly under the control of the Forestry Department the sportsmen are merely tenants at will and can be dispossessed of these refuges at any time without warning.

The sportsmen, by increasing wild life, enchance the value of the lands around the refugee wire and the Forestry Department reaps the benefit of this by leaving sights to hunters, nature lovers and others, for cottages and camp sights. This interferes with the purpose of the refuges to such an extent that in one instance, in Westmoreland County, the Game Commission seriously considered the abandonment of the refuge. When this matter was called to the attention of the Forestry Department, the Department promised not to lease any more sights nearer than half a mile from the refuge wire. On account of high power rifles, with a range of over two miles these public shooting grounds around the refuges are too small, and are dangerous to those living in the vicinity.

It was for these reasons that after the passage of the Resident Hunters License Law in 1913, which gave the Game Commission the necessary funds for the protection and propagation of game, that the Commission used all its surplus funds for the purchase of game refuges and public shooting grounds. The first eight refuges comprise about 55,000 acres. Some of these lands are located near large centers of population which increase their cost, but the average cost was only $2.63 per acre, and some land cost as low as $2.00 per acre, all in fee simple. A few since have been purchased some recently. Some of these were on lands previously leased for the purpose. Owing to the fact that the fire lines have been cut, forest fires eliminated, and the refuge stocked with game, they cost slightly more than the others on unimproved wild lands. Lands so purchased are held as perpetual game refuges and hunting grounds for Pennsylvania sportsmen, and are under the control of the Game Commission. The Game Commission can clear and cultivate land for feeding wild life on the refuges. A plentiful supply of food will keep the game on the sportsmens lands and off the lands of the farmer.

I recently made a tour throughout the West and found wild life almost exterminated on Government and State lands through the grazing of sheep and cattle. There is nothing in our forestry laws to prevent grazing on public lands in this State, and when 100% of our people own 5,000,000 acres of land for which they are heavily taxed they will naturally, for revenue purposes, follow the lead of the National Government and other States, and lease the lands for grazing and other purposes. The wishes of 5% of the people, the sportsmen, will naturally be ignored for the interest of the great majority.

It is therefore wise and expedient that Game Refuges, beneficial and of use to sportsmen only, constituting about 5% of our people, should be purchased and maintained from funds derived from hunters licenses.

The best resolution of the reforestation problem is to increase the Residents Hunters License fee $1.00, the additional amount to be used exclusively for the purchase of game refugees and public shooting grounds and have the State appropriate one million dollars annually for the same purpose. The aggregate of these two funds would be ample to purchase lands as it comes into the market and that without inflating its cost, and the two departments should work togther to this end.

Some years ago, the Game Commission conceived the idea of increasing the Resident Hunters License for this purpose, The writer, with this end in view, travelled throughout the State, meeting with and talking to sportsmens organizations. These gentlemen were unanimously in favor of increasing the license when it was explained to them that the 500,000 resident hunters licenses would each donate 5 cents the price of a shot gun shell, it would purchase a 10,000 acre game refuge and public shooting grounds, while 10 cents, the price of a high power rifle cartridge, would purchase two refuges.

In view of the fact that for every dollar invested by the sportsmen of our State the individual return in meat killed in our fields and forests amounts to $10.00 to say nothing of the outdoor recreation, which cannot be valued in dollars and cents, it seems strange that the advocates of the bond issue are trying to convince the sportsmen that they should not purchase their own refuges and hunting ground, while the land is available, rather than be tenants at will and the wards of the public, both on State lands and farm by owning their own refuges and public shooting grounds the sportsmen would perpetuate the sport of hunting, which is a national necessity, since it strains our citizens to take care of themselves in our outdoors and familiarize themselves with the use of firearms, both these factors being vitually necessary to a nation in time of war. In addition to this, it provides the incentive for healthful outdoor recreation.

Very truly yours,
John M. Phillips.

Under date of the 24th I read an extract from Mr. Phillips' letter, in which he says:

PHILLIPS MINE AND MILL SUPPLY CO.

Pittsburgh, Pa., March 24th, 1925.

Hon. Frank E. Baldwin, Pennsylvania State Senate, Harrisburg, Pa.

Dear Senator: I understand that you and Senator Quigley and our other safe and sane law-makers are desirous of purchasing our waste forest lands by increasing the resident hunters license fees and a yearly appropriation from the State, to save our taxpayers the burden of a bond issue. I have not had the pleasure of reading your bill.

Since writing you last night, I have been handed the enclosed circular which has just been issued by the Game Commission, to the sportsmen of the State. You will note that the attention of the sportsmen is called to the fact that instead of the Game Commission handling the Game Refuges and public shooting grounds to be purchased by the sportsmen's money, they are to be handed over to the department of Forests and Waters, that $150,000 is to be paid as damages to the farmers and $100,000 is to be used for the purchase of Game. I think it would be a great mistake to take the lands purchased by the sportsmen out of the hands of their directors the Game Commission. The Game Commission should have complete control of these lands as they may have to cultivate some of them for feeding game, and plant some nut and fruit bearing trees and bushes. However, its main aim would be to raise wild life and forests hold back the water and provide a future lumber supply, the same as is now done by the Forestry Department, but the sportsmen should have complete control of their lands and game.

Other laws, and the bills now before the legislature give the farmers ample protection and provide for the purchase of game. I think it would be a greate mistake to encumber your present bill, in increasing the license fee, with the above, and it might lead to its defeat.

The present law gives the Game Commission control of all refuges purchased by the sportsmens money of which I think there are now ten and when it is desired to cut and mark timber, the proceeds to be placed in the game fund, it is only necessary to consult and receive the advice of the Forestry Department as to the cutting of the timber. The payment of damages caused by game is now taken care of by a separate appropriation, and despite the propoganda which has been going around lately the Game Commission has the power to remove or kill any game destroying property, as you will note in section seven hundred twenty on page fifty-two of the 1923 game law digest.

You will note from the enclosed circular that the Game Commission assuming that the license fee will be increased one dollar arbitrarily figures a reduction of 50,000 licenses with a reduction in revenue of over one hundred thousand dollars. Inasmuch as Pennsylvania is now considered the best game state in the union and the sportsmen at present receive a return in meat of over 800% for the money they invest and the hunters are constantly increasing, I think that they will still increase even if the license fee is placed at $2.25, because the advance will be used for the benefit of the sportsmen and will certainly mean an increase in the game.

Why not put your bill through simply increasing the resident hunters license fee to $2.25 without encumbering it with the other items, which I feel sure will defeat it.

You will note from the enclosed pamphlet, page 14, that in 1922 Governor Pinchots Commission of Conservation experts from outside the state recommend an increase in the resident hunters license fee for the purpose of purchasing refuges and public shooting grounds. They were a little late in this as you will remember that in 1919 you assisted in passing a law which allowed us to do this and I cannot understand why the Game Commission has now reversed its position.

Don't you think that if you were to simplify your bill and hold it up for a short time until the sportsmen through proper publicity would become familiar with its benefits, you would have no trouble in passing it.

With best wishes for your success, I am, your Friend,

JOHN M. PHILLIPS.

I want to say that I have letters so unanimous in regard to this matter that I am not going to attempt to read any large number of them to you, but I do want to call your attention to the position taken by the Chamber of Commerce where they appointed a committee which made a careful investigation of this question. And in making their report, which is a thorough and detailed report, they say: "From its investigation your committee does not consider the proposed bond issue as either necessary or proper, and feels justified in giving it a negative recommendation." "Your committee would recommend support of provisions for the purchase of additional waste lands for reforestration purposes, and respectfully represents that this should be done only by direct appropriation and not through the issuance of bonds."

I want to call your attention to what one or two bankers and big business men say. Mr. F. E. Hertzel, of Warren, writes to Dr. H. J. Donaldson, Chairman of the Publicity Committee of the State Conservation Council, in reply to a letter which Mr. Donaldson wrote him, a copy of which was sent me:

WARREN NATIONAL BANK.

Warren, Pa., January 2nd, 1925.

Dr. H. J. Donaldson, Chairman, Publicity Committee State Conservation Council 410 Pine Street, Williamsport, Pa.

Dear Doctor: Your interesting letter of December 30th at hand, and I was indeed glad to hear from you.

It occurs to me that you would prefer me to be perfectly frank about tme Forestry Bond Issue.

The Federal Government is an active purchaser of all cut over wild land in this section to be used for exactly the same purposes.

It would appear that the State entering the same field is an unnecessary duplication.

The tax-payer is in no mood for increasing municipal or state indebtedness, unless perhaps for roads.

From the sportsmen's standpoint in the northwestern counties the forest lands are practically all open and free, (less than 5000 acres of the 400,000 acres forest land in Warren County are posted and usually one can hunt the posted land by simply asking permission of the owners).

Therefore, it would appear that all of the conditions are here now without further investment by the taxpayers.

Yours very cordially,

F. E. HERTZLER.

That is the land, Fellow Senators, which is to be used for what we call "The Allegheny Park."

Perhaps it may not be known by some of the gentlemen of this Senate that the State Forestry Department has thus far acquired, since 1898—1,131,000 acres of land which are now under the supervision of the State Forestry Department, and that this land has been acquired at an average price of $2.26 per acre; but the Federal Government has come in and purchased about three quarters of a million acres, which go in the same lot.

Mr. A. W. Thompson, of the Chamber of Commerce, of Pittsburgh, writes to Senator Woodward as follows:

435 Sixth Avenue, Pittsburgh, Pa., March 23rd, 1925.

Dear Senator Woodward: I am very much interested in the matter of reforestation. The plan is an intelligent one and I think the people of Pennsylvania are solidly behind any measure which has for its purpose the reforestation of the mountains and valleys of our Commonwealth.

I understand there is to be a hearing on this matter before your Committee in Harrisburg, on Wednesday. While I cannot appear personally I am writing this letter to urge that the recommendation of the Pittsburgh Chamber of Commerce be given careful consideration. It seems to me that the best way to accomplish reforestation is through a gradual process, so far as possible making the necessary appropriations direct instead of raising the money through a bond issue. Pennsylvania already has too much bonded indebtedness, and I think the most intelligent way of handling the matter, as I say, raising the necessary funds direct for taking care of one of the greatest problems that confronts this or any other State in the union.

Won't you kindly add my name to the names of others who are favoring the action that is recommended by the Pittsburgh Chamber of Commerce, and which was made only after full investigation and deliberate study.

Sincerely yours,

A. W. THOMPSON.

Mr. T. A. Dunn, of Pittsburgh, writes as follows:

March 23rd, 1925.

Senator George Woodward, Harrisburg, Pa.

Dear Senator: The Chamber of Commerce of Pittsburgh are all opposed against the proposed bond issue for the forestry of Pennsylvania. I desire to record myself against this bond issue as the interest on the bonds at their expiration would be 50% for the value of the bonds at their issue.

This same amount of money appropriated annually divided into years will, I am sure, satisfy all the demands for this purpose. The proposed bond issue for forestry does not meet with public favor in this particular district.

Respectfully,

T. A. DUNN.

Now, I have another letter from Pittsburgh, from the Department of Public Safety, addressed to Senator Barr, and I am going to quote from a part of this letter:

"House Bills Nos. 231 and 405, as well as others, if enacted into a law, would be seriously detrimental; and I therefore urge that you oppose all legislation tending to interfere with the present status of the Game Commission's authority, other than Senate Bill No. 936, introduced by Mr. Baldwin of Potter County, which is the only constructive and helpful measure before you.

"Your support of this measure and opposition to other measures affecting the game and fish conditions of this State will gain for you the approval and appreciation of at least one-half million hunters and fishermen in this Commonwealth." Signed, "I. L. Gillespie," of the Department of Public Safety.

I have a letter here from G. C. Deeter, of St. Mary's, Pennsylvania, and I want to say, about Mr. Deeter, that he has been at the head of the Wild Life League and a sportsman of Elk County for many years; and he has been connected with Mr. Spear in one of the industries there, and is a man of very sound judgment, not only as a business man but as a sportsman.

I have a telegram which I received before the time of this hearing, from a Philadelphia party, which reads as follows:

"Real purposes of forest bond issue is to provide and assure jobs for present forestry officials who are not producing anything on lands already owned. Salaries and administrative expenses consume appropriations, leaving no money for production work. Mont Alto Forest School maintained at loss. Don't pass bill to Senate."

Now, Members of the Senate, you know that publicity and propaganda has already been sent forth on this issue. We have had no chance to get to the Granges, but I have a few letters from members of the Grange.

Here is a circular letter sent out by the Pennsylvania State Conservation Council. I would not want to get many letters as strenuous as this one, but, as you will see, it brought forth its own reply.

PENNSYLVANIA STATE CONSERVATION COUNCIL
PUBLICITY COMMITTEE

315 Commonwealth Bldg., Harrisburg, Pa., March 5, 1925.

BULLETIN ON FOREST BOND ISSUE LEGISLATION

To all Grangers in McKean, Potter and Tioga Counties:

Senator Frank Baldwin, of Austin, Potter County, representing your district in the Legislature, is strongly opposing the proposed Forest Bond Issue. He is trying to defeat the project in the Senate Forestry Committee, where the bills now lie.

As you know, the Grange originated the Forest Bond Issue movement in 1917, and has advocated it ever since. Mr. Fred Brenckman, the Pennsylvania State Grange Secretary, on February 12th, 1925, requested you to ask your Senator to support the legislation (Senate bills 217 and 224).

We want you to know that Senator Baldwin is doing all he can to kill the measure. We respectfully urge all grangers in Senator Baldwin's district to instruct him to cease his opposition immediately and support the forestry bond issue.

Please do this at once.

Final and definite action will be taken by the Senate Forestry Committee next Tuesday, March 10th. Senator Baldwin is a member of that Committee.

Prompt action is necessary.

Sincerely yours,

PENNSYLVANIA STATE CONSERVATION COUNCIL

The letter sent me was written on the reverse side of this circular letter, and reads as follows:

"Westfield, Pa., 4-7-1925.

"Hon. Frank Baldwin, Harrisburg, Pa.

"Dear Sir: On the other side of this sheet explains itself. We as Lecturer of Jennison Grange, No. 1497, are pleased to note you are against the Forestry Bond Issue, and we earnestly hope you will stick to your bush and vote against it. Also we instruct you to vote against the eight million bond issue for the State College and also against the Child Amendment for Labor of the United States, which if any of these are passed would be detrimental to the Farmer who is over burdened with taxes now.

Respectfully yours,
Mrs. ADA E. KING, Lecturer,
Jennison Grange No. 1497."

As the Senator from Northumberland has told us, a bond issue of $25,000,000 running thirty years would, in all, cost about $37,500,000. We have not the enabling act up from the printer, but, beginning with 1931 you would have to have a half million dollars a year to take care of the interest of this bond issue.

One other letter, and then I am through:

Maplecrest Farm,
Westfield, Pa., March 9th, 1925.

Hon. Frank E. Baldwin, Harrisburg, Pa.

Dear Sir:—In Saturday's mail there was a bulletin on Forest Bond Issue Legislation from the Pennsylvania State Conservation council, stating you, as Senator, was strongly opposing the proposed forest bond issue and they wanted all farmers and grangers to instruct you to cease opposition immediately. Now our instruction is knock it out if you can; and also; the proposed State College Bond Issue, of $8,000,000 and the twentieth (Child Labor) amendment to the United States Constitution. We have attended many State Grange sessions, and talked with many farmers in and out of the grange. Farmers behind the plow and the general verdict is the State is now overbonded. You know the State is now bonded one hundred and fifty million for graft road purposes and thirty-five million for forest and eight million for college, making one hundred ninety-three million bonded debt and in the end the farmers will have to pay the principal and interest. Kill the snakes for all of our best young men and women and leaving the farm. I would do the same thing myself, but a gray crown cannot find work in factories, so we are compelled to stick to the soil and it will take us through by may God pity the children and unborn children whose life-work if mortgaged before they are born.

Our farmers and their families are becoming demoralized and the three above bills if passed to law will only add to the demoralization.

Tioga County at one time had over 50,000 population, now there is about 37,000. When we were a boy at school there were five school within a distance of two miles of where we are writing this. Three in sight and there was from thirty to sixty pupils in each, and now there is only children enough for one small school all told, we are looking out of the window on two good farms, that were each worth $5,000.00 ten years ago; to-day they cannot be rented, to say nothing about selling. The schools have been taken away from them and no young man with a family will locate there where his little children will be forced from a back farm eight miles through deep snow and cold to school. These farms and many more are being reforested by nature without bonds. No more bonds for us. We know what the result will be better than the promoters.

L. K. KING.

I have numerous other letters, but, Members of the Senate, I apologize again for taking so much of your time, I would ask, however, Fellow Senators, whether you do not consider this proposition of enough consequence to adopt a Pay As You Go Policy and thereby save the tax-payers from $25,000,000 to $30,000,000?

Personally, I am impressed that I do not very ofter have an opportunity of being of such a real service to my district and State as I would be by assisting in this great saving to the taxpayers of the State.

Either plan I have suggested, if carried out, would do the trick.

If something is not done at this time, your bond issue is likely to fall at election time, and that much time will be lost. I thank you, Fellow Senators.

Mr. MacDADE. Mr. President and Fellaw Senators. I know you do not want to hear any further remarks upon this measure, but anticipating that Senator Baldwin was going to make an argument against the passage of the legislation I have prepared an argument in favor of the passage, which I have here. And I propose to be gracious with you, if you will be gracious with me, and ask leave that my argument be incorporated in the Legislative Journal.

Before sitting down, however, I want to make brief reference to a letter which has been addressed to every member of this Senate, signed by such men as Henry S. Drinker, Ex-President of Lehigh University; former Governor William C. Sproul, Effingham B. Morris, President of Girard Trust Company of Philadelphia; William B. McCaleb. Superintednent of Motive Power Pennsylvania R. R.; Harry C. Trexler, whom we all know is a good fellow, and a very successful lumber merchant up-state; H. D. Williams, President Carnegie Steel Co.; and General Richard Coulter, Banker in Greensburg, Pa., who was advisory counsel of the Pensylvania Forestry Association, that this movement, which originated under the last administration, is approved by the present administration and was endorsed by affirmative vote of the Legislature of 1923. It is absolutely nonpartisan and is directed only by the State of Pennsylvania of an adequate forest reserve supply.

I cannot understand the attitude of my friend, Senator Baldwin, who is an ardent supporter of the Highway Loan and at the expiration of the term of these bonds probably no highways will be reconstructed and no return to the State as far as assets are concerned except possibly,—and probably—another loan to reconstruct; and here is a proposition submitted to the people of Pennsylvania endorsed by the Grange also, the first loan bill that they have ever endorsed in the history of their organization, which will return to the State of Pennsylvania not only the principal which has been invested but the interest that you will pay thereon and a profit of probably three or four times the amount of the principal invested. And we know from the history of this Legislature that in 1921 when this subject was before the people of Pennsylvania, and some of us who were candidates for office gave our pledge that we would support this program, a bill was introduced, which was very wise legislation that continued for four years before the bottom dropped out and the Forestry proposition was prostrated; but in 1921 the bill again went before the Governor, to appropriate $500,000 for the same purpose as this loan, and he vetoed the bill and said he could not expend the money out of current revenues, and suggested this very loan we are discussing today.

This legislation came before the Legislature in 1923, this legislation which was passed by both branches; and it is now presented to this Legislature and has been passed by the House of Representatives, and is now before us. It seems to me it should have unanimous support, to give the people of the State of Pennsylvania the opportunity to say whether they should be further burdened with taxation. Give them the chance, and do not now inject an argument which ought to have been made when the resolution was introduced in 1923.

That is a fine campaign argument, but it is no argument for this Senate Chamber at this time, now that we have all committed ourselves those who were members of the Assembly in 1923, to support this resolution. I think it is worthy of the support of every man here. It is a good measure; I shall support it. And with your kind permission, I wish to have these letters corporated in the Legislative Journal.

1. The records of the Department show that the price at which land has been offered to the Department for sale has invariably been greatly in excess of that paid for it. Persons having little knowledge of land value, and knowing that the maximum price which could be paid was $5.00 per acre, and later $10.00, usually offered it at that price. The price at which land was or will be offered is no criterion of its true value—the value determined and offered by the Department after a detailed field examination has been made.

2. It is a mistake to assume that the Department is the only agency in the Commonwealth purchasing forest land. During the last five years outdoor organizations have been in the market for it, and have in many instances paid more for the land than it is worth for forest purposes. Large land owners, such as lumber companies, have been selling their land to such parties, and will continue to do so whether the Department purchases land or not. The effect of this is to place large areas of forest land into the hands of a few individuals to the exclusion of the general public. The Commonwealth, in acquiring land, pays no more or less than the worth of these lands for forest purposes. The value of forest land during the last ten years has more than doubled, and very little of the three and a half million acres of forest land which should be owned by the Commonwealth can be acquired at $2.50 per acre. The important reasons for this are:

1. The general increase in property values.
2. The increasing price of forest products.
3. The greater development of mineral resources on forest land.
4. The protection afforded by forest fire prevention.
5. The purchase of land by hunting clubs.
6. The great number of purchases of forest land by individuals for private estates.
7. Forest land purchases by water companies.

8. The increased recreational use of forest land made possible by improved roads, automobiles and trucks.

3. The Act of April 15, 1903, which limited the expenditure for land acquisition to not more than $300,000.00 in any fiscal year was only operative for four years, or until 1907. This is indicated by the fact that the Legislature in 1907 appropriated $500,000.00, on 1909 $100,000.00, 1911 $50,000,. 1913 $50,000.00, 1915 $40,000.00, 1917 $130,000.00, 1919 $130,000,00, or a total of $1,000,000.00, an average of a little more than $71,000.00 a year. Had the law of 1903 been operative over the period from 1907 to 1921 the Department would have had available $4,200,000.00 for land purchase, or $300,000.00 instead of $71,000.00 per year. The Legislature of 1907, and each succeeding Legislature, however, has practically annulled the appropriation provisions of the Act of April 15, 1903. The number of acres offered during this period was 1,327,424, but it was possible to acquire with the funds appropriated only 509,196 acres, a little more than one-third of the amount offered for sale.

4. The inventory value of the present State Forest land is about $12.00 per acre. The acquisition of 3,500,000 acres of additional land, if undertaken immediately, can be accomplished at an average price approximating $7.00 an acre. To acquire 3,500,000 acres on annual appropriations of $300,000.00 would require over 80 years. Unfortunately, the plan of appropriating $300,000.00 per year is fifteen years late. Had the Legislature permitted the Department to proceed with its program under the Act of April 15, 1903, which appropriated $300,000.00 per year, a Bond Issue of $25,000,000.00 would not now be necessary.

5. Any person familiar with the Department's land purchases knows that the $2.26 per acre paid for forest land purchased prior to 1921 was a bargain figure. Much of this land was acquired from lumbermen after they had removed all the timber, and was a liability to them at the time. Again, almost one million acres of the present area of State Forest land were acquired prior to 1910—fifteen years ago.

6. Since the organization of the Department in 1901 persons responsible for its activities have constantly urged upon the Legislature the necessity of appropriating more money for forest purposes. Dr. Rothrock, in requesting an appropriation for land purchase in 1903, had a definite program of land purchase in mind. The failure of the Legislature to adhere to the program of purchase begun in 1903 has made necessary the request for the $25,000,000.00 Bond Issue at this time.

7. At no time since land purchase began by the State has there been enough money available to acquire all the land offered. No money appropriated for land acquisition has been returned to the State Treasurer. It is exclusion from privately owned forest land that has led the sportsmen to purchase land or to use so extensively the State Forests. The important difference between privately owned and State owned forests is that the State is committed to the protection and care o f its land for the public good, while the private owner is not. If forest lands in Pennsylvania are given adequate protection it is usually not necessary to plant young trees in order to secure a satisfactory forest growth. It is estimated that with adequate forest protection such as the State will give the lands it will purchase under the Bond Issue that less than ten percent (10%) of them would require planting to obtain satisfactory tree establishment.

8. There is no competition as between this Department and the Game Department in purchasing forest land. The Game Department made its first purchase in 1920. This purchase was made because this Department was without funds to purchase State Forest land at that time. With adequate funds available to the Department for land purchase the needs of the Game Department for lands for game protection and propagation, with the exception of comparatively small isolated tracts to be used as auxiliary game refuges, will be fully met.

9. The plan suggested of appropriating $300,000.00 annually, and from this sum purchase 100,000 acres at $3.00 per acre, and in thirty years purchase 3,000,000 acres at $3.00 per acre or 3,608,000 acres at $2.50 per acre, is impossible of accomplishment. For reasons already given (See 2) the increasing value of forest land precludes it.

10. The statement that the State is not paying the same amount of taxes as private land owners is not borne out by investigations made by the Department. The State pays $0.05 per acre on State Forest land in lieu of taxes. The taxes paid in 1922 on unseated land in those counties in which State Forests are located and investigated by the Department are:

Huntingdon County, ...	$.07 1-2	per acre
Sullivan County, ...	.04 8-10	per acre
Centre County, ...	.03 9-10	per acre
Mifflin County, ...	.04 9-10	per acre
Tioga County, ...	.04 8-10	per acre
Snyder County, ...	.02 1-2	per acre
Clinton County, ...	.07 9-10	per acre
Lycoming County, ...	.04 8-10	per acre

State Forest land, therefore, is paying its full share in taxes to the local taxing authorities. In addition they are contributing benefits to the local communities and counties and the general public not afforded by privately owned forest land.

11. There is unanimity of opinion that full confidence can be placed in the State Forest Commission for the purchase of lands under the Bond Issue. This Commission has merited that confidence by its adherence for the past twenty-seven years to the policy of making no purchases of land except under terms most advantageous to the Commonwealth. Any intimation that this Commission would in the future, however composed, be actuated by any other motives, is unworthy and merits no consideration.

TO:	MEMORANDUM	FROM
"D"	March 9, 1925.	"M"

I attach a statement on the purchase of State Forest land in Pennsylvania to January 1, 1925. This statement shows the number of acres and the amount of money expended by years and is divided into periods that represent the manner in which the funds were provided by the Legislature for this purpose.

The Act of Assembly approved March 30, 1897, P. L. 11, authorized the purchase of forest land from county treasurers at tax sale. Very little land, however, was acquired in this manner.

The Act of May 25, 1897, authorized by purchase the acquisition of three reserves of not liess than 40,000 acres. One each on the Delaware, Susquehanna and Ohio water sheds.

The Act of April 28, 1899, provided for the purchase of lands other than those at tax sale and fixed the maximum price to be paid for said lands at $5.00 per acre.

The Act of February 25, 1901, which created the Department of Forestry, provided for the purchase of any suitable lands in any county and again limited the maximum price to be paid per acre at $5.00.

Under the above Acts there was no limit fixed as to the amount of money that could be expended and the Department was permitted to purchase all the land it could secure. From 1898 to 1903 314,570 acres of land were purchased at $613,338.65.

By the Act of April 15, 1903, the Legislature fixed a limitation of $300,000 per year in the purchase of forest land for forestry purposes. The Department purchased land under this authority until 1907. The number of acres secured was 384,700 at $942,657.42.

On June 13, 1907, an Act was passed limiting the amount of money to be expended for land acquisition to the amount appropriated by the Legislature.

The Act of April 15, 1903, placed a limitation of $300,000 as an annual expenditure for this purpose, and was not repealed and continued on the statute book until 1921, when it was changed to read "not to exceed the appropriations made for any biennium"

The Legislature, from 1907 until the last appropriation made, which was in 1919, ignored this law and made specific appropriations for land acquisition.

The amount of money appropriated from 1907 to 1921 by the Legislature was $1,000,000. or an appropriation of approximately $71,400 per year.

The records in our Offer Book show that since 1907 there has been more land offered for sale to the Commonwealth for State Forest purposes than there has been money available for its purchase.

Prior to May 14, 1915, the Department was limited to a purchase price of $5 per acre. Since that date it has been fixed at $10. per acre.

The Act of May 8, 1917, authorized the Department to purchase forest land for State Forest purposes with mineral reservations. Prior to that date all land was purchased without mineral reservations.

PENNSYLVANIA FORESTRY ASSOCIATION

March 23rd, 1925.

Hon. Albert Dutton MacDade, Senate Chamber, Harrisburg, Pennsylvania.

The Resolution (S-434) to amend the State Constitution to authorize a Bond Issue of $25,000,000 for the purchase of forest lands is now in the Senate Committee on Forestry. The Committee held a hearing on the resolution on Tuesday, March 10th, and has fixed another hearing for Wednesday, March 25th at 2 P. M. This popular measure passed both houses of the Assembly in 1923, was approved without a dissenting vote by the House at this session, and has passed second reading in the Senate. The only thing that now stands in the way of the measure going before the voters is favorable action by the Senate. The advocates of the measure, a host in number, are insistant that the electorate be given the opportunity to decide the question.

The urgency of the immediate adoption of the forest land purchase program possible under the Bond Issue cannot be too strongly emphasized. It is a sad commentary upon our treatment of the forest lands in Pennsylvania that this State is now and must necessarily remain for some years dependent upon outside sources of wood supplies to maintain its homes and operate its industries. We produce but one-fifth of the wood we use; most of the remainder comes to us at great cost from the South and the far West and these outside sources are rapidly nearing depletion. The freight charges alone on lumber products brought into this State are now $25,000,000 every year. This is as much as the proposed bond issue which will settle the question one and for all. Other losses due to our wood dependency and lack of forests are inestimable. More than our wood needs is at stake. Our water supplies, public health and public recreation are in danger.

The objection is raised in some quarters that $25,000,000 is more than is needed to purchase the forest land which should be owned by the State. The contention is that less than $15,000,000 is required. This argument is based on a holy erroneous conception of forest land values throughout the State. The average price $2.26 per acre as which State forest land has been secured during the past twenty seven years is no indication of present forest values. Over 80 per cent of the state forest land was purchased more than fifteen years ago and these purchase almost exclusively in those portions of the State in which forest land values are the lowest. It is essential not only that the present tracts be enlarged, but that the State Forests should be extended to other portions of the State. Wholly independent of the approciat value of forest land due to forest depletion, there has been and will undoubtedly continue to be in advance in forest values as with other property values. This condition holds whether or not the State purchases forest lands.

To dally with this question or delay for any reason the measure of forest restoration necessary is of serious moment to our homes and industries. If our children are to have forests and their products, we must produce them. To the extent to which we delay this responsibility we are unworthy of public trust and unmindful of our future. Pennsylvania can and should raise all the timber it needs, but it cannot do so until it commits itself unequivocally to an enlarged State program. At this stage the Forest Bond Issue is the only sure way of doing it and nothing short of certainty will fulfill our binding obligation to the future.

The Pennsylvania Forestry Association, which was organized 40 years ago, has steadily devoted its best thought and effort to ways and means by which the forest situation of the State can be adequately met. It very early recommended enlarged State Forests and stands solidly behind this resolution. It now asks of you and your colleagues that you permit this measure in the form in which it was presented to and passed upon by the last General Assembly and the present House to come before the voters. The people of the State want this Bond Issue and they should certainly be given the earliest opportunity to approve it.

Very respectfully yours,
THE PENNSYLVANIA FORESTRY ASSOCIATION,
Henry S. Drinker, President.

Merion Station, Montgomery County, Pa., March 26, 1925.

Honorable Albert Dutton MacDade.

My dear Sir:—Allow me to express my congratulation on your admirable address before the Forestry Committee yesterday. It is not difficult to see how the Committee can fail to agree with the views you so ably expressed. The three points made by Mr. Baldwin are clearly unsound. (1) That the financial aid in reforestation given by the State should be by biennial appropriations. Every Senator know that practically this is impossible. The last appropriation for land acquirement of $500,000, made in 1921, was vetoed by Governor Sproul because the State's finances did not permit it, and that is the case now, and has been since then.

(2) That the money should be raised by larger license fees from the sportsmen of the State, and that land so acquired should be in the absolute control of the sportsmen. The necessary money cannot possibly be so raised, and if it could, it would be very bad business to have the control of the lands devoted to forestry under the control of two State Organizations. Forestry looks to the growth and protection of our trees, to their maturity, and to their being then cut and used, and the land regrown with new trees, not to the preservation of trees until they rot and die as a cover for game.

(3) That $25,000,000 is more than is needed. No one can predict what will be needed to adequately reforest the State. I believe in my fellow citizens, and believe that if $25,000,000 should be found to be more than is needed that no more will be spent than is needed.

The reforestation of our State is now admitted and generally accepted State policy. Argument in its support is no longer needed by our citizens, the only question is what is the proper, broad, efficient means of carrying it out and a large bond issue is the only way to do it.

Sincerely yours,
HENRY S. DRINKER
President, Pennsylvania Forestry Association.

PENNSYLVANIA STATE GRANGE PATRONS OF HUSBANDRY.

Office of FRED BRENCKMAN, Secretary.

426-430 Telegraph Bldg., Harrisburg, Pa., March 9, 1925.

Hon. Albert Dutton MacDade, Senate Chamber, Harrisburg, Pa.

Dear Senator: We respectfully urge you as a member of the Committee on Forestry to do all in your power to secure favorable action on the part of the Committee with reference to the proposed bond issue of $25,000,000 for the acquisition of land. In our opinion this is one of the most important measures coming before the present Legislature.

With all due respect for those who take the position that sufficient money for the purchase of lands can be appropriated from current revenues, thus avoiding the necessity of a bond issue, we are persuaded that this plan will not work out in practice. If it has taken twenty-eight years for the state to acquire title to one million one hundred and thirty-one thousand acres by appropriations from current funds, it will be seen at a glance that at the same rate and on the same plan it will require approximately seventy-five years to purchase the three million five hundred acres or more it is proposed to buy. With the timber famine already staring us in the face, too much valuable time will be lost by following such a plan. To our mind, it is the element of time in this case that justifies a bond issue.

If any one objects to the charge for interest on long term bonds, why not amend the enabling act so as to provide for their more speedy redemption? The main question is not what the future cost of lumber is going to be. The principal consideration is to make adequate and timely provision for the needs of the future. We sincerely trust that the forestry committee will report this legislation to the Senate, and that the question may be submitted to the people as soon as possible.

Respectfully yours,
PENNSYLVANIA STATE GRANGE,
Fred Brenckman, Secretary.

HENRY J. RICE,
Smithport, Pa., March 17th, 1925.

Mr. Fred Brenckman, Harrisburg, Pa.

Worthy Secretary: Our Secretary, P. S. Crossman, just showed me a letter from our Senator, Frank E. Baldwin, in answer to a resolution favoring the $25,000,000 bond issue for the forestry. Of course, he is against it. Our Pomona meets in April and I will quote some of his letter and I would appreciate it if you would give me the facts as to the truth of his statements.

He says, "Do the members of the Grange realize that all of the proposed bond issue of $25,000,000 can be used only for purchase of waste lands?"

Then he goes on to say it is proposed to buy 3,500,000 acres and at $3.00 per acre it would only take $10,500,000.

Then he goes on "Under these circumstances should we bond the State for $25,000,000 and pay interest upon the $25,000,000 if it runs seventy years, as it is proposed by the Enabling Act, of about $41,000,000? Otherwise, why should the State obligate itself to a bond and the interest thereupon that will cost about $66,000,000 with interest at the rate of four and one-quarter per cent on the bond which runs 70 years if running for 50 years which they are now talking, the interest alone would amount to more than $25,000,000.

"The land can be acquired by an appropriation of $600,000 or $1,000,000 every two years and should not cost the State in the end over $10,000,000 and we will pay as we go." Then he says "An additional one dollar per year on hunters licenses would give us more than $1,000,000 every two years for the purchase of lands * * * *"

Then he states that the State has done scarcely any planting on lands they own since 1919 and have given trees away.

He says, "It is costing the State now nearly one million dollars for forest fire protection and administration expenses. What will it cost if nearly five times as much land is acquired? * * * *"

After recalling the State Capital Graft he remarks, "If a $25,000,000 bond is authorized for the purchase of lands in this State it will offer an opportunity for waste and even graft that will make the furnishings of the State Capitol sink into insignificance."

"This proposition is sure to increase taxes for the farmer and all other tax-payers. My interest is to save the tax-payers from $40,000,000 to $5,000,000 in principal and interest."

Is the Senator right and the Grange wrong?

These letters are no doubt sent to many Granges and will have influence.

Send me the Journal of proceedings of the State Grange.

Your fraternally,
H. J. RICE.

March 28th, 1925.

Mr. Henry J. Rice, Smethport, Pa.

Dear Brother Rice: I have your recent letter, setting forth a summary of the reasons advanced by Senator Baldwin with reference to his opposition to the proposed $25,000,000 bond issue for forestry purposes.

Let me assure you that the reason given by Senator Baldwin do not shake the confidence of the officers of the State Grange in the soundness of the proposed forestry loan. The record of the State Grange proves that we have never advocated going into debt unless there was a good reason for so doing. The fact of the matter is that the proposed forestry loan is the first state bond issue that the Grange has ever endorsed.

In view of the fact that at the present rate of consumption the virgin timber of the United States will practically all disappear in another generation, there can be no difference of opinion regarding the absolute necessity of reforesting the millions of idle acres of land within our borders. Even now, the freight bill on the lumber that is annually brought into the State from the outside amounts to $25,000,000. This is exactly the size of the proposed bond issue. It has well been said that Pennsylvania, with so much land that is not adapted for anything else but the growing of trees, under proper conditions, should find no more necessity for importing lumber than Iowa has for importing corn, or than Kansas has for importing wheat.

Everybody is agreed that the best results in the way of restoring timber production can be secured under State ownership of the land that is now lying waste and neglected. This is a project that is beyond the scope of any individual initiative or enterprise. The individual dies, but the State is perpetual. The State can afford to wait for returns on an investment of this nature which would not be attractive from the standpoint of the individual. Besides, it is the duty of our statesmen to make provision for the future.

The only point on which a deifference of opinion appears to exist is with reference to how the money is to be raised to purchase the land which is to be reforested. Senator Baldwin claims that the land could be bought by appropriations from current funds, and that there is, therefore, no necessity for paying interest on a bond issue. Theoretically, he may be right on this point; but in actual practice it would get us no where. As one of our former Presidents said on a certain occasion: "We are confronted with a condition, and not a theory."

If it has taken 28 years for the State to buy from current appropriations the one million one hundred and thirty-one thousand acres of land now comprising our State forests, it will be seen at a glance that if the same rate and under the same plan it would take approximately seventy-five years to acquire title to the three million five hundred thousand acres it is proposed to buy. With a timber famine already staring us in the face, and in view of the long time required to grow trees of marketable value, entirely too much valuable time would be lost by following such a plan. It is idle to say that the land could be bought out of current appropriations when the fact is that we won't. As Colonel W. B. Greeley, Chief Forester of the United States, observes: "The common experience of all the States shows plainly that this work may not be conducted adequately if it depends upon current appropriations."

To talk about raising the hunters' license fee and buying the land needed for reforestation out of the increased revenues thus derived, as is proposed by Senator Baldwin, is little short of ridiculous. When Mr. Baldwin tries to make the Forestry Bond Issue unpopular by emphasizing the amount of money that would be required to give fire protection to 3,500,000 additional acres of forest land, he would like to create the impression that this added burden of expenses would be too great for the people of the entire State to bear. If the whole people of Pennsylvania should not be asked to grapple with this Forestry problem because of the outlay involved which is the attitude assumed by Senator Baldwin, then it would surely be most unfair to ask a single class, the sportsmen, to shoulder the burden alone.

If anyone agrees with Senator Baldwin that it would be a waste of money to pay interest on long term bonds, the difficulty may easily be overcome by amending the Enabling Act so as to provide for the more speedy redemption of the bonds. Such a plan would make it necessary to increase the amount appropriated toward the sinking fund for the redemption of the bonds during each biennium; but, of course, to shorten the term of the bonds would cut down the charge for interest.

Senator Baldwin also finds fault with the proposed bond issue because he says the amount asked for is too large. The forest lands the State now owns was brought at the average rate of $2.26 per acre. The present law fixes the maximum that may be paid per acre at $10.00. If the Legislature fears the Forestry Commission in this matter, the law can easily be amended so as to reduce the maximum that may be paid per acre, and this may be done at any session of the Legislature. In the meantime, it is well to remember that most of the land the State now owns was bought years ago, when the dollar was worth one hundred cents. In many instances it was the cheapest land that was to be found; and there is other land that the State should own which will call for a larger outlay per acre. The average price paid by the United States Government for forest land was nearly five dollars per acre. It is well to remember in this connection that all of the proposed bonds will not be issued at once. The plan is to spread the issue over a term of years, and it is, of course, impossible to say in advance what forest land may sell for in the future. It is the part of wisdom to ask for enough money to enable the State to secure all of the desirable that may be offered,

In conclusion, we think that the proposed forestry bond issue is based on sound principles. Other things for which bonds are issued depreciate in value, and they may be entirely worthless when the bonds reach maturity. Forests increase in value from year to year, if given proper protection. Under State ownership proper protection from fire will be assured. We may well believe that if future generations could make themselves heard on this question, they would tell us in one resounding voice to make this investment for their benefit. In the days to come, the main question will not be as to what the price of lumber will be. We cannot do without timber, and the question will be, where is it to come from? There is only one satisfactory answer to this question, and that is to grow the timber for our future needs right here at home.

Beside, the question of timber is not the only one involved. The questions of water supply, flood control, the perservation of wild life, the prevention of soil erosion, not to mention the recreational uses to which forests may be put, are all directly bound up in this question. We look upon this as the finest business opportunity there is within reach of the people of Pennsylvania as a whole. That is why the Grange is for the proposed Forestry Bond Issue.

Fraternally yours,

FRED BRENCKMAN, Secretary.

Mr. BALDWIN. Mr. President, I just want to say one word in reply to my Fellow Senator, Mr. McDade. When he compares the Road Bond with the Forestry Bond the question is entirely different. With the Road Bond you have to have the money in bulk before you can build the road; and, of course, you have a sinking fund proposition, which is provided for in your Automoble Licenses. But this resolution before us is entirely different. It can be taken care of to much better advantage without having the money in hand. And I have suggested a plan by which the taxpayers of the State would not be taxed a single dollar, because the sportsmen would pay the extra dollar and they would be getting more, perhaps, for that dollar than for any other dollar they have ever invested.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, just a word to explain why I vote "Aye" on this bill. In a conversation I had with Senator Baldwin he gave me the assurance, as I understood, that he would succeed in passing the bill adding a dollar to the licenses for the hunters. Had that bill passed I would have been against this bond issue. I believe in the pay as you go policy and, ordinarily, would agree with the Senator from Potter, Mr. Baldwin, and be against the bond issue; but in view of the fact that that bill was not passed, and that the hunters seemed to be generally against it, there is only one thing for me to do, and that is, to cast my vote for this bill.

Mr. BALDWIN. Mr. President, I want to be on record right and say that if Senator Barr got an inference from what I said, that I could pass any bill through this body for hunters' licenses of my own accord, he got a mistaken idea.

I do not claim to be able to pass any bill without the co-operation and teamwork of my fellow members of this Senate I would have been glad to back that effort and I think it was the proper thing to do.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—40.

Aron,	Eyre,	Lanius,	Sprowls,
Barr,	Freeman,	MacDade,	Steele,
Baumer,	Gelder,	Mansfield,	Stites,
Brown,	Griswold,	Miller,	Vare,
Buckman,	Harris,	North,	Weingartner,
Culbertson,	Heaton,	Norton,	Woodward,
Daix,	Huffman,	Painter,	Homsher,
Davis,	Joyce,	Salus,	Pres. Pro Tem.
Derrick,	Krause,	Schantz,
DeWitt,	Kunkle,	Snyder,
Earnest,	Kutz,	Sones,

NAYS—5.

Baldwin,	Leslie,	Patton,	Quigley,
Einstein,

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return said bill to the House of Representatives with information that the Senate has passed the same with amendments tn which the concurrence of the House is requested.

RECESS.

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, the Committee on Appropriations has a hearing fixed for 2 o'clock on tubercular bills, and in view of the fact that some of the Senators who intend to take issue on some of the legislation later in the day complain of hunger and thirst, and in order that they may be able to attack the proposition with fresh vigor and strength, I now move you, Sir, that when the Senate adjourns today it be to reconvene to-morrow morning at 10:30 and that the Senate do now call off from labor to refreshment, and take a recess until 3:30 this afternoon.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

AFTER RECESS.

The PRESIDENT. The time of recess having elapsed, the Senate will be in order.

BILLS OVER IN ORDER.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I ask that Senate Bill No. 1065, on third reading, entitled:

An Act for the protection of the public safety by providing as a prerequisite to the registration of motor vehicles for the establishment (including the continuance during the period of registration) of financial responsibility by owners thereof for injury including death resulting therefrom to persons or damage to property caused by or as the result of the negligent use maintenance or operation of such motor vehicles conferring powers and imposing duties upon the Secretary of Highways and his agents in connection therewith and for the enforcement thereof imposing certain duties upon owners of motor vehicles and upon insurance companies associations exchanges and corporations issuing policies and contracts to motor vehicle owners and providing penalties go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. KUNKLE. Mr. President, I ask that Senate Bill No. 1067, on third reading, entitled:

An Act requiring the public selection and drawing of jurors in counties of the third class go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Kunkle.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Kunkle, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. KUNKLE. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Kunkle, why he is asking that the bill go over in order?

Mr. KUNKLE. I have not had an opportunity of seeing the bill.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, there is nothing in the bill now except what was there went it passed second reading.

The PRESIDENT. Does the Senator from Lackawanna, Mr. Davis, object?

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I do object.

Mr. KUNKLE. Mr. President, I move that the bill be recommitted to the Committee on Judiciary General.

Mr. CULBERTSON. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Lackawanna, Mr. Davis, will state his point of order.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, it seems to me there is nothing before the Senate now but to call the roll.

Mr. KUNKLE. Mr. President, I desire to state that I have not had an opportunity to examine this bill.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, for the benefit of the Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Kunkle, I will say he has read the bill over thoroughly and there have been no changes made in the bill. This bill was recommitted to the Committee on Judiciary General and it was re-reported from that Committee as committed and there is not a word of change in the bill. I will now read the bill for the benefit of the Senators while I am on the floor.

An Act requiring the public selection and drawing of jurors in counties of the third class

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That in counties of the third class it shall be the duty of the jury commissioners the president judge or the additional law judge or a majority of them when meeting annually at the seat of justice of their respective counties for the purpose of selecting jurors and placing in the jury wheel the names of the persons to serve as jurors in the several courts of the county during the ensuing year as now provided by law to make such selection of names and to place the same in said jury wheel at an open public meeting in the court house in a room to be designated by the president judge of the court of common pleas and the slips on which the names of jurors are written with the names thereon shall be open to public inspection before being placed in the jury wheel

Section 2 It shall be the duty of the jury commissioners and the sheriff in counties of the third class when drawing from the jury wheel any panel or panels of jurors to serve as grand jurors or petit and traverse jurors in the manner provided by law to draw the names of such jurors from the jury wheel at an open public meeting in the court house in a room to be designated by the president judge of the court of common pleas and the slips drawn from the jury wheel with the names thereon shall be open to public inspection

Section 3 All acts and parts of acts inconsistent with this act are hereby repealed

There is nothing that revolutionizes the jury system of this State, but merely provides for a public drawing of jurors in counties of the third class. This bill has been on the calendar now for several days, it has been recommitted to the Committee on Judiciary General, re-reported from there as committed and is now on final passage.

Mr. KUNKLE. Mr. President, I am vitally interested in this matter. My county is directly interested and I examined the Calendar and find that there is no File Folio and I cannot get to the bill. I have made the motion for no ulterior purpose, but I should like to know how it affects our county. I think I should be entitled to the courtesy of having the bill either go over in order or recommitted, so that I have an opportunity to examine this bill.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection to the bill going over in its order?

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I object.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair hears objection.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I will offer my reasons for objecting. We have but a few more legislative days to enact this legislation. There is a demand in my county for some relief in the jury system and we are giving them some relief. Now if we are going to delay this matter we cannot have time enough to pass this bill and I hope that the Senate will agree with me and give us a chance to relieve our people up there.

The PRESIDENT. Does the Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Kunkle, have any other motion to make?

Mr. KUNKLE. Mr. President, I renew the motion I made, to recommit to the Committee on Judiciary General for the purpose of amendment.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I again plead with the members of the Senate to vote down this motion. I do not think it is a fair proposition to us. The bill has been on the calendar for several days. It may not have a file folio number but it has been on the calendar since it was re-referred from the Committee and I think it is only fair. It is only a very small bill. I have read the bill carefully, no words have been cut out of the bill and I cannot see why it should be amended. The bill calls for a public drawing and a public filling which is only fair. It does not change the jury laws, or anything at all, and if I do say it, we had an agreement, Senator Kunkle will agree with me, that these three bills were to go on the calendar and passed. There is another bill, and I have no opposition to it. There is a gentleman's agreement to pass those three bills, if the Senate sees fit.

Mr. KUNKLE. Mr. President, I withdraw my motion to recommit.

Mr. CULBERTSON. Mr. President, I withdraw my second.

SENATE BILL No. 1067, SPECIAL ORDER.

Mr. KUNKLE. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 1067, on third reading, entitled:

An Act requiring the public selection and drawing of jurors in counties of the third class

be made a special order on the Calendar for 6 o'clock this evening, when the Senate meets.

Mr. MANSFIELD. Mr. President, I section the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I insist upon consideration of this bill at this time.

Mr. JOYCE. Mr. President, I think it is but common courtesy that this bill go over until 6 o'clock, as the Senator from Westmoreland suggests. There will be no harm done.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

BILLS ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1074, (House Bill No. 1235), entitled:

An Act empowering cities and counties which are authorized to take purchase or condemn property and to appropriate money for the erection thereon of public auditoriums libraries memorial buildings and monuments and to provide for their operation and maintenance to jointly take purchase or condemn property and to jointly appropriate money for the erection thereon of such buildings and to provide for their operation and maintenance jointly

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. EYRE. Mr. President, I move that the Senate resolve itself into a Committee of the Whole for the purpose of special amendment, as follows:

Amend page 17, by inserting after line 22, the following: "For buildings and construction of State normal schools as authorized and approved by the Superintendent of Public Instruction two years the sum of one million five hundred thousand dollars ($1,500,000)"

Amend page 26, line 18, by inserting after the word "hundred" the word "fifty."

Mr. CULBERTSON. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The PRESIDENT. The motion is that the Senate resolve itself into Committee of the Whole for the purpose of special amendment as indicated, and the Chair desires to call the attention of the Senators to the fact that a vote on this question carries with it the amendment.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I move to amend the motion to include the four amendments which I now submit.

The amendments were read as follows:

Amendments to House Bill No. 392. Printer's No. 1018. Amend page 4, line 14, by striking out the word [four] and inserting in lieu thereof the word "eight".

Amend page 4, line 14, by striking out the word [eighty-eight] and inserting in lieu thereof the word, "seventy-five"

Amend page 4, line 15, by striking out the figure [($1,488,000)" and inserting in lieu thereof the figures "($1,350,000)".

AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL No. 392.

Amend page 8, line 3, by striking out at the end of the line the word [two] and inserting in lieu thereof the word, "three"

Amend page 8, line 4, by striking out the figure [($263,500)] and inserting in lieu thereof the figure "($363,500)"

Amend page 18, line 2, by striking out the word "Eighty-five" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "ninety-five".

Amend page 18, line 2, by inserting after the word "thousand" the words "six hundred ten".

Amend page 18, line 2, by striking out the figure "(85,000)" and inserting in lieu thereof the figures "(1,350,000)".

Amend page 18, line 5, by striking out the word "seven" and inserting in lieu thereof the words "one million three".

Amend page 18, line 5, by striking out the word "twenty-five" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "fifty".

Amend page 18, line 6, by striking out the figure "($725,000)" and inserting in lieu thereof the figures "($1,350,000)".

Amend page 18, line 9, by striking out before the word "million" the word "two" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "four".

Amend page 18, line 9, by striking out the word "six" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "one"

Amend page 18, line 10, by striking out the figure "($2,640,000)" and inserting in lieu thereof the figure "($4,140,000)".

Amend page 20 by inserting after line 20 thereof the following: "For special education including the payment of the Commonwealth's share in the case of children between the ages of six (6) and twenty-one (21) and the payment of all in the case of pupils under the age of six (6) or over twenty-one (21) of the cost of the tuition and maintenance of Pennsylvania pupils enrolled with the approval of the Department in schools or institutions for the blind or for the deaf under the supervision of and approved by the Department, two years, the sum of nine hundred and eighty-six thousand dollars ($986,000)".

Mr. STITES. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. Pesident, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Lehigh, Mr. Schantz, will state his point of order.

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, my point of order is that the motion as presented, with the amendments as presented and read, is not a motion for special amendment, but a motion for general amendment. These amendments are general amendments to the bill and not special amendments. This is rewriting the whole bill and is general. A special amendment is an amendment to one item and not a rewriting and mutilation of the whole bill from Alpha to Omega.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President—

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, I ask for a ruling on my point of order. I have the floor and I have not yielded the floor to anybody and I refuse to yield the floor until the Chair has ruled on my point of order.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, in order to clarify the situation and to get the matter under way I would like to have the Chair state specifically to the Senate his ruling on the matter if I withdraw my motion. As I understand the Senator from Chester Mr. Eyre,—

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, I yield the floor only for the withdrawal of the motion and for no other purpose.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, the Senator from Chester, Mr. Eyre, has made a motion to consider his two specific items in Committee of the Whole. Now if I withdraw my amendment to the motion, will the Chair please state to me what motion is necessary to have my amendments placed in Committee of the Whole to be considered seriatim.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Barr, can make any motion after the one of the Senator from Chester, Mr. Eyre, has been considered; or he can make a motion to go into Committee of the Whole for special amendment or general amendment, as he sees fit.

Mr. BARR. I withdraw my motion in order to clarify the situation.

The PRESIDENT. The question is now, will the Senate agree to go into Committee of the Whole for the purpose of special amendment as indicated by the Senator from Chester, Mr. Eyre,

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, I nenew my point of order. This motion includes three amendments to the bill and they are therefor general amendments not a special amendment. A special amendment means an amendment of a particular item, and a general amendment is one which goes beyond that. This is a general amendment of the bill, and I rise to a point of order that a motion to amend specially means to amend a particular item.

Mr. EYRE. Mr. President, will the Senator from Lehigh yield the floor for a moment?

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Lehigh yield the floor?

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. EYRE, Mr. President, I ask that the two amendments be separated, because I believe that the point or order raised by the Chairman of the Committee on Appropriations, Mr. Schantz, is well taken, and I therefore renew my motion to go into Committee of the Whole for special amendment on the first amendment.

The amendment was read as follows:

Amend page 17, by inserting after line 22 the following: For building and construction of State normal schools, as authorized and approved by the Superintendent of Public Instruction, two years, the sum of one million five hundred thousand dolars ($1,500,000).

Mr. CULBERTSON. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The PRESIDENT. The question is upon the amendment, and the Chair calls attention again to the fact that a vote in favor of going into Committee of the Whole carries with it a vote for the amendment.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President and Members of the Senate, as the President has stated to you, the adoption of this motion does not mean a motion to go into Committee of the Whole for the purpose of considering this amendment to this bill. If you now adopt this motion then you have voted that amendment into the bill. So be not deceived, Members of the Senate, and think that you first want to vote for this motion to give you a chance to consider this item, whether or not you will incorporate it in this bill. Motions may be made here at this time, now, to go into Committee of the Whole for the purpose of special amendment to this bill, such as the one before you now, or motions may be made to go into the Committee of the Whole for the purpose of general amendment. When you go into Committee of the Whole for the purpose of amending a bill generally then any item while we are in Committee of the Whole may be presented, discussed and passed upon. But the adoption of this motion is adopting the amendment. The adoption of this motion means the adoption of the amendment. Now should this motion be adopted, should this amendment be incorporated in this appropriation bill?

Mr. President, in the first place what I am going to say now applies to this bill in general. This is the general appropriation bill before you for the expenditures of the Commonwealth for the next biennium. This bill was prepared after we had the budget from the Governor, after hearings and consultations with all the departments and everybody interested, public hearings and everything else, and there is not a thing in this bill without reason. Everything that is in this bill is there for a reason and there is a reason for its being there the way it is.

The reason why the million and a half was eliminated from the bill for this purpose—there was a committee appointed quite a long time ago to make an aducational survey of the State. I do not know why that report was not forthcoming. There were all kinds of rumors that the report was being suppressed. Nevertheless the people that knew what was in the report gave us the information. The report last week, however, was made public. This special amendment proposed in this bill would incorporate in the bill an item of one million and a half dollars for the erection of new buildings and normal schools. We have at the present time in Pennsylvania fourteen normal schools. The normal schools of Pennsylvania originally were private institutions; but not so long ago the State of Pennsylvania purchased them all and took them all over, and now it is felt that since they are all State institutions, entirely owned operated and financed by the Commonwealth, that there should be a merger, a consolidation and a rearrangement of the normal school system of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania; and the people feel, who know, that in view of that fact it would be imprudent on the part of the Commonwealth at this time to make a large expenditure of money for the erection of new buildings until it has been definitely ascertained which normal schools will be retained and whether all or whether some are going to be abandoned. Certainly you will agree with me that it would be a mistake on the part of the Senate at this time to go any one of the fourteen normal schools and make large expenditures for public buildings and then the next year, or the next two years, or within a short time have that institution abandoned as a normal school. And that is why it is felt that this item for improvements or new buildings at the normal schools should be deferred until this question has been finally settled.

This report of this educational survey, on page 211, says this: "There is a serious question as to whether, because of their lack of training facilities, certain schools can in their present location carry their fair share of the load which the normal school system must bear. This question arises particularly in connection with the schools at Edinboro, Slippery Rock, Shippensburg, Clarion, Kutztown, Indiana, California and Mansfield. See Exhibit 2."

Further on it says: "No town or city should be the site of a normal school unless it has an available public school enrollment of at least 2000, and preferably 3000, pupils. This would permit the normal school enrollment to reach 1000 or 1500 pupils. The present normal schools must have an average enrollment of 1000," and so on.

I am not going to read the whole report, but that is the report of this Committee on Educational Survey of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania; and the Appropriations Committee, in obedience to and in compliance with the best information and best statistics and everything available before us, decided that it would be imprudent at this time to spend a million and a half dollars on this proposition; and that is why it is eliminated. I now submit to this Senate whether the work of that Committee is to be upheld and approved or whether you will say that you are going to make this expenditure at all before this question is permanently and finally settled.

In view of that and to overcome that as much as possible and to afford all the relief possible to the normal schools, we did give them an increase of one million dollars; we increased the appropriations to Normal Schools from three and one-half million dollars two years ago to four and one-half million dollars, one round million dollars for maintenance,—which means not only for food, shelter, clothing and fuel but out of that million dollars they may use for improvement and repairs such expenditures as are absolutely necessary and essential in the normal schools that we now have. And I say to you, Members of the Senate, that if you appreciate the work of your Committee and the people who give time, thought and effort to it, a proposition that is as clear and plain as that will be supported by you. They have an increase of a million dollars, enough for maintenance and enough for all ordinary improvements and repairs.

Every member who has been of this body who has been a predecessor of mine as the Chairman of the Committee on Appropriations knows how the work is done, and my predecessors should be the first to uphold the work of the Committee on Appropriations. The principle of the Golden Rule would ask for that because I am sure that none of my predecessors would want to have their work thrust aside as it is now proposed here, simply because somebody wants some money which he felt he did not get. I have full faith and confidence in this Senate—that it is too big now at this late day, when we have treated every appropriation according to its merits without fear or favor or partiality or anything else, now to combine itself into a jockeying and a log-rolling organization.

There are quite a number of members here, and a log-rolling organization. Each one of whom feels there is an item here and there that he would like to have, and unless those members combine and vote them all through this bill will remain intact as it is before you to-day. It will remain intact unless every member hare who has an item, a pet or a project which he would like to have incorporated combines to put it through.

The newspapers have accused us of log-rolling and all of that. There has not been a particle of that, there has not been anything of that kind. If there is any log-rolling in the appropriations that could be done here in this session it will be done now,—it has not been done before; and if the Senators will consider each one of these items, this one and every other, on its merits, they will vote down this motion and, I know, every one that will follow.

Now that is the reason, Members of the Senate. There is your argument. It means nothing to me. The Governor told us in his budget that we would have one hundred and twenty-one million dollars, in round figures, to appropriate. We are just at his mark of about one hundred and twenty-one millions of dollars, and are you now going to break down the bars? Are you now going to brush everything aside like wild men and force up the appropriations way beyond the figure the Governor said we had to appropriate? We have given full faith and confidence to this budget and to his estimate of revenue, and we have arrived now at the mark of one hundred and twenty-one millions of dollars in appropriations. That is what they total with the approximate eighty-one million in this bill now, or, in other words, a quarter of a million for State-aid institutions plus the appropriations to the universities and colleges. Taking into consideration all the other items that we have made we are right there, and I ask you, are you now going to upset it? Are you going to tear it to pieces and say that all the hours that we have put on it and all the time that we have given to this work and all our labors have been in vain? Is this Committee going to be supported? Have we acted judiciously, wisely and prudently? Or are you going to, because West Chester feels that it needs an auditorium, to brush it aside and put in another million and a hilf? I submit to the Senate of Pennsylvania it is a serious proposition, and I ask you to vote down this amendment.

Mr. EYRE. Mr. President, I greatly regret that my distinguished friend and colleague takes personal grounds in a matter of this kind. I do not want to be selfish in any of these matters. I had explained fully to the Chairman of the Appropriations Committee that we in the West Chester Normal stand in rather a unique position insofar as the normal schools of the State are concerned. Some five years ago, when Dr. Finnegan was the Superintendent of Public Instruction, at a public meeting held at the normal school in West Chester, he pledged himself to the Alumni Association that he would stand for the building of an auditorium if the Alumni Association of the School raised $60,000.00. Since that time the Alumni Association have raised $80,000.00. The West Chester State Normal School saved last year out of their earnings $32,000.00. That has been added to the $80,000.00 and the State of Pennsylvania would get a building on its own property worth anywhere from two hundred to two hundred and fifty thousand dollars for their pro rate from this proposed appropriation of a million five hundred thousand dollars; and I submit to the Members of the Senate whether or not this is a good business proposition.

I have confidence in the management of the Department of Public Instruction. It may be that there should be some of the normal schools of the State combined, but if this million five hundred thousand dollars is voted for in this bill certainly it would not be expended on those schools that were ultimately to be abandoned.

That is my reason. I do not want the West Chester State Normal School to be treated differently from any other normal school in the State who probably have not been so fortunate in having their Alumni Association and the citizens of their community secure the fund that has been secured at West Chester; but I submit, Members of the Senate, that this is a fair proposition and not one that reflects upon the Appropriations Committee of this body. I would be the last man in the Senate to reflect upon Senator Schantz, or any other member of that Committee, and that the motion will pervail.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

A division being called for twenty-four (24) Senators voted in the affirmative, twenty-one (21) in the negative, whereupon the question was decided in the affirmative.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, is requested to take the Chair.

COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE.

The Senate thereupon resolved itself into Committee of the Whole, Mr. Buckman in the Chair.

The CHAIRMAN. The Committee of the Whole have before them Senate Bill No. 1087 (House Bill No. 392), entitled:

An Act to provide for the ordinary expenses of the executive judicial and legislative departments of the Commonwealth interest on the public debt and the support of the public schools for the two fiscal years beginning June first one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five and for the payment of bills incurred and remaining unpaid at the close of the fiscal year ending May thirty-first one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five

Whereupon the Committee of the Whole rose, President Pro Tempore (Mr. John G. Homsher) resuming the Chair.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, The Committee of the Whole having had before it Senate Bill No. 1087 (House Bill No. 392), entitled:

An Act to provide for the ordinary expenses of the executive judicial and legislative deartments of the Commonwealth interest on the public debt and the support of the public schools for the two fiscal years beginning June first one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five and for the payment of bills incurred and remaining unpaid at the close of the fiscal year ending May thirty-first one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five have directed me to report that the same has been amended as directed by the Senate.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the report of the Committee of the Whole?

It was agreed to.

The PRESIDENT. The amendment is made as directed by the Committee of the Whole.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill as amended?

Mr. EYRE. Mr. President, I move that the Senate resolve itself into a Committee of the Whole for the purpose of special amendment.

The amendment was read as follows:

Amend page twenty-six, line 18, by inserting after the word "hundred" the word "fifty".

Amend page 26, line 19 by striking out the figure "($100,000)" and inserting in lieu thereof the figure "(150,000)"

Mr. CULBERTSON. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. STITES. Mr. President, may I ask for a point of information? Do I understand that this is the item refering to the Japanese Beetle?

The PRESIDENT. The Chair informs the Senator from Montgomery, Mr. Stites, that that is correct.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

A division being called for twenty-five (25) Senators voted in the affirmative, fifteen (15) in the negative, thereon the question was decided in the affirmative.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair requests the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, to take the Chair as Chairman of the Committee of the Whole.

COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE.

The Senate thereupon resolved itself into Committee of the Whole, Mr. Buckman in the Chair.

The CHAIRMAN. The Committee of the Whole have before them Senate Bill No. 1087, (House Bill No. 392), entitled:

have directed me to report that the same has been amended as directed by the Senate.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the report of Committee of the Whole?

It was agreed to.

The PRESIDENT. The amendment is made as directed by the committee of the Whole.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill, as amended?

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I move that the Senate resolve itself into a Committee of the Whole for the purpose of special amendment as follows:

Amend page 18, line 5, by striking out the word "Eighty-five" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "ninety-five"

Amend page 18, line 2, by striking out the figure "($85,000)" and inserting in lieu thereof the figure "(97,610)"

Amend page 18, line 9, by striking out before the word "million" the word "two" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "four"

Amend page 18, line 10, by striking out the figure "($2,640,)" and inserting in lieu thereof the figure "($4,140,000)"

Mr. STITES. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Salus, will state his point of order.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, my point of order now is the same as the point made by the Senator from Lehigh, Mr. Schantz, on the previous question. I want to say to the members of the Senate that I have no particular reason for making this point of order, but I thought that Senator Schantz might have wanted to make it and I think he is justified in being thoroughly disgusted and in thinking that it the Senate of Pennsylvania wants to run wild let them run wild. I think he has done his duty; and if he feels as though "Do as you pleas" is the motto, why, let it go at that.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, the last three or four months I have been in close touch with the Department of Education as Chairman of the Educational Committee of the Senate, of which I happen to have the honor of being Chairman; and I have also been in close touch with Dr. Baish, of the Retirement Fund. I have asked that particular division to prepare a statement for me and that statement I now have, and would like to read it.

The Pennsylvania School Employes' Retirement System has been organized on a basis that is declared by those who have studied it to be most fair and equitable. In no other kind of public service is it more essential for the public welfare for superannuated employes to be retired from active service than in the public schools.

Without a Retirement System it is well known that old teachers are continued in active service after they are no longer able to render efficient service.

It is now so generally recognized that the public welfare is best served by retirement of superannuated and disabled public employes that in some branches of public service the entire retirement allowances are paid by the public without the help of contributions by the employes. In our State School Retirement System the teachers pay one-half the cost of the retirement allowances, the local school districts pay one-fourth and the State pays the remaining fourth.

The retirement allowances are based on the final salary and years of service of the teachers, and the rates of contribution by the teachers, the local school districts and the State are fixed in accordance with the Retirement Act so as to provide the money necessary to pay the share of the retirement allowances of each.

In carrying out the provisions of the Retirement Act there is no way for the Retirement Board to change the amounts due the Retirement Fund either from the State, the local school districts or the teachers. The rates at which each pay are fixed by law and are based on the age and salary of each individual teacher who is a member of the System. The computation of the amount due in each case is made in the office of the retirement Board and the computations are carefully audited by the State Insurance Department each year.

The assets of the Retirement System must be collected when its members are in active service while its expenditures come afterward. The liabilities of the Retirement Fund, therefore, mature largely in the future. During the early years of its operation assets must be accumulated and large funds must be built up in order to meet these deferred liabilities. The actual pension payments in the early years are small in comparison with the contributions which must be collected.

The contributions by the teachers and the payments by the State and local school districts are kept in separate funds and a careful valuation of these funds is made by the actuary each year to learn if the required reserve is being accumulated in each fund.

The teachers' contributions, including interest accumulation, now amount to more than $12,000,000 and the actual valuation shows that the teachers' fund is accumulating the required reserve each year. The local school districts are also without an exception paying the amount due the Retirement Fund promptly. However, in order to maintain the actuarial soundness of the Retirement System all three contributing agencies must pay promptly the amounts due the Retirement Fund that the money may be invested by the Retirement Board, as the interest earnings were included when the rates of contributions were adopted for the teachers, the local school districts, and the State.

If the State breaks faith with the teachers and local districts by failure to pay its share to the Retirement Fund the inevitable result will be to destroy the actuarial soundness of the Retirement System, even though the teachers and local school districts continue to pay their share promptly when due.

An investigation of the cost of administration of the Pennsylvania School Employes' Retirement System will show that the Retirement Board has made a creditable record in this respect.

There are now more than 57,000 members of the Retirement System who contribute monthly and with whom an individual account must be kept. There are also about 2600 local school districts contributing semi-annually and an account is kept of each district. An enormous amount of clerical work and accounting is required to keep the records of this system.

When compared with other Retirement systems that are operated on the actuarial reserve basis the statement should be made that the Ministerial Retirement System of the Episcopal Church reports for last year administrative expenses equal to almost 3 per cent of its income for the year. The New York State Employes' Retirement System reports that administrative expenses as slightly less than 4 per cent of its income and the New York State Teachers' Retirement System reports administrative expenses slightly less than 1 per cent of its income for the year. The cost of administration of the Pennsylvania School Retirement System for the year ending June 30, 1924, was less than 6-10 of 1 per cent of its income for the year, and the cost this year will be about one-half of 1 per cent of its income.

Mr. President and Members of the Senate, I want to call your attention to the fact that the Act of Assembly under which the Retirement Fund was created provides that one-fourth of this fund falls due July 1st, 1925, one-fourth of the fund falls due January 1st, 1926, one-fourth of the fund falls due July 1st, 1926, and one-fourth of the fund falls due January 1st, 1927, or before this Assembly again meets; and unless this amount of money is appropriated and handed to the Retirement Fund so that it can have and invest it at four per cent you are knocking out, as Dr. Baish says, the actuarial basis and breaking faith with the teachers of the schools of the State of Pennsylvania.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I do not intend to discuss the merits or demerits of this proposed amendment, but I merely want to go on record as saying that this whole matter has been before the Committee on Appropriations, has been considered in that committee, and last evening was fully and thoroughly discussed; and the bill was reported as it stood before this committee, where it was reported out of committee this morning; and as an ex-Chairman of the Committee on Appropriations I want to say to this Senate that I have never seen the work of the Appropriation Committee upset and everybody run in to get their piece of money as these amendments appear to be doing.

What is the use of having an Appropriation Committee. We have a Committee on Appropriations whose Chairman has worked in season and out of season,—days, nights and Sundays, in order to get before this Legislature the whole financial picture of the Commonwealth, and if we are going to tear down that work and grab a million here and two million there and three million there, what is the use? We might just as well say, "Help yourselves, boys; everybody come in and get some."

Mr. STITES. Mr. President, I am interested, of course, in the sympathetic appeal of the Senator from Bucks; but I do not think it is a matter of treason on the part of any member of this Senate if he by any chance happens to consider it more incumbent upon him to observe the laws of the Commonwealth than some question of fidelity to a committee of the Senate. I have the highest confidence in the Chairman of the Committee on Appropriations, but I do not believe the Chairman of the Committee on Appropriations would say to me that I must always agree with him.

Let us see about the situation in regard to the Teachers' Retirement Fund. The honor of the State of Pennsylvania is at stake. The Legislature of 1917, when it passed the Teachers' Retirement Act, said that semi-annually the State of Pennsylvania shall appropriate so much money,—I am quoting from the Act now: "The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania shall pay semi-annually into a fund * * *." And what is the situation? We still owe them a million dollars from the biennium of 1923. We owe them $4,000,000 in the biennium of '23-'25; that is, $4,000,000 for the last two bienniums.

And what have the teachers been doing? The word was passed abroad that this fund was rich, with $22,000,000; and the inference was thrown out that the State of Pennsylvania was taking care of the Teachers' Retirement Fund creditably because there were twenty-two millions in the fund. But who paid the twenty-two millions? The teachers paid twelve million of it; the districts paid seven millions of it, and the State of Pennsylvania has contributed a measly three millions out of the twenty-two millions in this fund. So that $12,000,000 came from the pay of the teachers; $7,000,000 from the pockets of the tax-payers; and the State of Pennsylvania has contributed only $3,000,000, and owes between $4,000,000 and $5,000,000.

And what was the situation in regard to the interest? Absolutely, today, the Retirement Board is taking the interest money, an increase of between 4 per cent and 5 6-10 per cent that it earns on the money of the teachers, and turns it over to bolster the interest fund of the State.

A situation here confronts us that, in my judgment, is not only unfair to the teachers of the State, but it is a question, to my mind, whether it is not disgraceful, to let this Retirement Fund practically take care of itself. The teachers have done their duty by putting up $12,000,000. The districts have done their duty by putting up $7,000,000 to aid this fund. And, of the $22,000,000, the State of Pennsylvania has contributed only $3,000,000.

Is it treason on the part of any member of this Senate, to the Committee on Appropriations, to object to a situation of that kind? I do not think it is. I think every member of this Senate has a sworn duty in regard to the laws of the Commonwealth; and the Act of 1917 and the obligations of the State of Pennsylvania mean something to me. So I must say, with all due respect to any committee of this Senate, that I think I ought to discharge my duty as a representative of the people of Montgomery County. I think the other Senators, very largely, feel the same about it.

A point was made by the Chairman of the Committee on Appropriations, yesterday, when discussing the various questions with people that come in to the hearing, that he did not regard the budget as infallible, and that he did not regard the department heads as infallible; and I say, with all due respect to the Chairman of the Committee on Appropriations or any member of the Committee on Appropriations, that as a member of the Pennsylvania State Senate I do not consider any Senator or any committee infallible on a matter of this kind.

I know the hard work that has been done by the Chairman of the Committee on Appropriations, and I am frank to say I have objected to very few items in this $121,000,000 bill. I think that the present Chairman of the Committee on Appropriations is one of the best if not the best we have ever had; but, in all good conscience, here is a situation which, to my mind at least, calls for intervention upon the part of every Senator of Pennsylvania.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. Huffman and Mr. Buckman, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—29.

Barr,	Freeman,	Lanius,	Sprowls,
Baumer,	Gelder,	MacDade,	Steele,
Betts,	Griswold,	Mansfield,	Stites,
Brown,	Harris,	Miller,	Woodward,
Culbertson,	Heaton,	North,	Homsher,
Davis,	Huffman,	Norton,	Pres. Pro Tem.
Derrick,	Joyce,	Painter,

DeWitt,

So the question was determined in the affirmative.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, to take the Chair.

COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE.

The Senate thereupon resolved itself into Committee of the Whole, Mr. Buckman in the Chair.

The CHAIRMAN. The Committee of the Whole have before them Senate Bill No. 1087, (House Bill No. 392), entitled:

An Act to provide for the ordinary expenses of the executive judicial and legislative departments of the Commonwealth interest on the public debt and support of the public schools for the two fiscal years beginning June first one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five and for the payment of bills incurred and remaining unpaid at the close of the fiscal year ending May thirty-first one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five

The amendment will be made as directed by the Senate.

Whereupon the Committee of the Whole rose, the President Pro Tempore, (Mr. John G. Homsher) resuming the Chair.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, the Committee of the Whole having had before it Senate Bill No. 1087, (House Bill No. 392) entitled:

An Act to provide for the ordinary expenses of the executive judicial and legislative departments of the Commonwealth interest on the public debt and the support of the public schools for the two fiscal years beginning June first one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five and for the payment of bills incurred and remaining unpaid at the close of the fiscal year ending May thirty-first one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five have directed me to report that the same has been amended as directed by the Senate.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the report of the Committee of the Whole?

It was agreed to,

The PRESIDENT. The amendment is made as directed by the Committee of the Whole.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill as amended?

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I move that the Senate resolve itself into a Committee of the Whole for the purpose of special amendment as follows:

Amend page 20 by inserting after line 20 thereof the following:

"For special education including the payment of the Commonwealth's share in the case of children between the ages of six (6) and twenty-one (21) and the payment of all in the case of pupils under the age of six (6) or over twenty-one (21) of the cost of the tuition and maintenance of Pennsylvania pupils enrolled with the approval of the Department in schools or institutions for the blind or for the deaf under the supervision of and approved by the Department, two years, the sum of nine hundred and eighty-six thousand dollars ($986,000)".

Mr. STITES. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, there is no division on this; it is a matter of difference of opinion between the Governor and the Chairman of the Committee on Appropriations with regard to the subject. I am informed by the Governor's Office that the Governor wrote the Chairman of the Committee on Appropriations under date of March 31st, and I would rather, as a matter of courtesy—if the Senator so wishes—have him make an explanation regarding the bills that have gone to the Governor and been signed, with no appropriations in the hands of the Governor. And the Governor has said, in this letter, that he thinks the appropriations should go into the General Appropriations Bill. If the Chairman of the Committee on Appropriations does not care to make a statement on it, I will send this letter of the Governor's to the desk and ask to have it read.

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, I have nothing to say whatever excepting that this full amount of $689,000 has been appropriated and is in four bills in the hands of the Governor now and I so told the Governor, personally, this morning. I received his letter yesterday, and this morning I personally took the letter over to his office and had a conversation with him—a personal conversation with him this morning, and told him that this full amount of $689,000 is incorporated in four separate bills which are in his hands—they were not when I was there but have been delivered to him with the General Appropriations Bill—the amount is $986,000.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I would ask that the letter at least be read.

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, I want to add this: When I received that letter I took it over personally to the Governor and had a conversation with him and told him that this full amount of $986,000 was appropriated in four separate bills which were on the way to him. I believe they had not been delivered then, but they have been delivered since. The Governor said to me that it might be a question whether it could be done that way or had to go in here, and said he would send for Mr. Schnader and send Mr. Schnader to see me, and Mr. Schnader and I should talk the matter over and decide which was the proper way to do. Mr. Schnader has not been to see me. He evidently got lost on the way and landed at the seat of the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Barr. I have nothing further to say, he is coaching him right now.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I am sorry if this thing has given offense to the Senator from Lehigh. I had no knowledge of the prior right to this information. I have just been informed that the bills as passed will not fit in so they can be made workable with the bills signed; and the Attorney General's Office has said there will be no appropriations unless these amendments are inserted in the bill.

I would therefore ask for favorable consideration for the blind.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, is requested to take the Chair.

COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE.

The Senate thereupon resolved itself into Committee of the Whole, Mr. Buckman in the Chair.

The CHAIRMAN. The Committee of the Whole have before them Senate Bill No. 1087, (House Bill No. 392), entitled:

An Act to provide for the ordinary expenses of the executive judicial and legislative departments of the Commonwealth interest on the public debt and the support of the public schools for the two fiscal years beginning June first one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five and for the payment of bills incurred and remaining unpaid at the close of the fiscal year ending May thirty-first one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five

The amendment will be made as directed by the Senate.

Whereupon the Committee of the Whole rose, President Pro Tempore (Mr. John G. Homsher) resuming the Chair.

Mr. BUCKMAN. The Committee of the Whole having had before it Senate Bill No. 1087, (House Bill No. 392), entitled:

An Act to provide for the ordinary expenses of the executive judicial and legislative departments of the Commonwealth interest on the public debt and the support of the public schools for the two fiscal years beginning June first one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five and for the payment of bills incurred and remaining unpaid at the close of the fiscal year ending May thirty-first one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five have directed me to report that the same has been amended as directed by the Senate.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the report of the Committee of the Whole?

The PRESIDENT. The amendment is made as directed by the Committee of the Whole.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill as amended?

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I move that the Senate resolve itself into a Committee of the Whole for the purpose of special amendment as follows:

Amend page 8, line 3, by striking out at the end of the line the word "two" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "three"

Amend page 8, line 4, by striking out the figure "($263,-500)" and inserting in lieu thereof the figure "($263,500)"

Mr. STITES. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, the Act of Assembly No. 386, dated May 21, 1921, provides for a State Police Force of 421 officers and men.

In 1921, the State Police received an appropriation of $1,897,645.00. This was sufficient only to carry a reduced force of 390 men.

In 1923, economy compelled a further reduction to $1,-500,000.00, resulting in a corresponding reduction in the Force to 270 men.

Each reduction in the amount appropriated to the State Police Force results in cutting the effective police end of the organization. The same supervisory and executive force is necessary for 260 men as is necessary for 421—or for 1,000, for that matter.

Because of the meagerness of the 1923 appropriation and the tremendous amount of work the Force has been called upon to perform, it has been necessary to exhaust much of the equipment without replacement, lack of which is seriously affecting the efficiency of the organization.

The public have learned to expect results when they call upon the State Police Force, and that the public might not be disappointed, the men have been required to work on an average of twelve (12) hours per day during the last two years, to the end that during these two years, 23,682 arrests were made (192 of which were for murder) and resulted in 81.4% convictions in cases brought to trial.

The reduction in force and the handling of his tremendous number of cases has resulted in a reduction in the number of regular patrols on the highways.

To operate a full force of 421 men and replace exhausted equipment, $2,200,000.00 is necessary. This estimate is based on the average annual consumption of each item and article required by the Pennsylvania State Police extending over a period of twenty (20) years.

The Budget Committee allowed $1,887,000.00. This is sufficient to maintain and operate a State Police Force with 300 officers and men.

That there is an economy, in these days of the automobile bandit, in having an adequate number of rural substations and patrols, may be discovered in the fact that the State of Illinois had eight (8) times as many bank holdups during the past year as the States of Pennsylvania and New York both have State Police Forces. Illinois has none.

Day before yesterday seven (7) desperate criminals escaped from the Western Penitentiary. Today they are all recaptured. Five (5) of them were rounded up, yesterday, by one lone State Police Corporal. That he was alone was partly due to the fact that during the past two years we have been compelled to operate with a greatly reduced Force. That he brought the escaped criminals in is due to the fact that he is a trained State Policeman.

The question has been raised that the amount has been cut down on the State Police due to the fact that they are spending all their time on booze raids and enforcing the Armstrong-Snyder Act. In conclusion I want to give you a few figures, here, and to say that is not true. In the case of the liquor law violations there were four thousand and seventy-four arrests, against a total of 12,437 arrests made, or about thirty-three and one-third percent. Major Adams,—in my opinion one of the highest type police officers that there is in this State or any other, as well as a trained soldier, a reguar soldier, a man who knows his business,—stated that the four thousand arrests he made under the Armstrong-Snyder Act were in the proportion of one to one thousand of the law-breakers who should have been arrested under the Act.

Now, Members of the Senate, if these men have carried on their duty arrested men for arson, robbery, bank holdups, murder, automobile-law violations, breaking of the fish laws, the game laws, the gambling laws, the health laws, the liquor laws, for burglary, manslaughter, rape and other things, it seems to me that the least Pennsylvania can do is to say to the State Police Force, " We will give you at least enough money to carry on the work of 421 men." And that is what the State Police Force is asking; and if it is not appropriated you cannot look to Major Adams or the State Police Force for efficiency,—and that is what we need, God knows not only on the liquor laws but on all laws.

February 2, 1925.

Whereupon the Committee of the Whole rose, President Pro Tempore (Mr. John G. Homsher) resuming the Chair.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, the Committee of the Whole having had before it Senate Bill No. 1087, (House Bill No. 392), entitled:

An Act to provide for the ordinary expenses of the executive judicial and legislative departments of the Commonwealth interest on the public debt and the support of the public schools for the two fiscal years beginning June first one thousaid nine hundred and twenty-five and for the payment of bills incurred and remaining unpaid at the close of the fiscal year ending May thirty-first one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five have directed me to report that the same has been amended as directed by the Senate.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the report of the Committee of the Whole?

The PRESIDENT. The amendment is made as directed by the Committee of the Whole.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended be printed for the use of the Senate.

BILLS ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now proceed to the consideration of Senate Bill No. 1067 on third reading, entitled:

Mr. Schantz, Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1067, entitled:

An Act requiring the public selection and drawing of jurors in counties of the third class

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. KUNKLE. Awhile ago this bill came up and since that time I have made an inspection of it and so far as we are concerned in Westmoreland County if this bill satisfies conditions in Lackawanna and Luzerne counties we have no objection to it. The only thing that I would suggest which I think ought to be made is that on the fifth line on page 1 the word "the" ought to be changed to the word "and", for the reason that in our county and in other counties they have more than one additional judge, so that to fit in right the word "and" ought to be there. If, however, the bill is satisfactory to the other counties in its present shape, it is satisfactory to me.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—46.

HOUSE MESSAGES.

RESOLUTION RECALLING FROM THE GOVERNOR HOUSE BILL NO. 676.

The Clerk of the House of Representatives being introduced, presented extract from the Journal of the House of Representatives, which was twice read as follows, considered and agreed to:

In the House of Representatives, April 1, 1925.

Resolved, (if the Senate concur), That House Bill No. 676, Printer's No. 203, File Folio 1513, entitled "An act to fix the salaries of the deputy, register, clerks and employes in the office of the register of wills of counties of the first class."

be recalled from the Governor for the purpose of amendments.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the House of Representatives accordingly.

RESOLUTION RECALLING FROM THE GOVERNOR HOUSE BILL NO. 775.

He also presented extract from the Journal of the House of Representatives, which was twice read as follows, considered and agreed to:

In the House of Representatives, April 1, 1925.

Resolved, (if the Senate concur), That House Bill No. 775, Printer's No. 745, File Folio 3799, entitled "An act to amend section one of and to add sections four, five and six to an act entitled 'An act authorizing cities of the third class to regulate the location of business, trades and industries, the location, size and use of buildings, and the areas of yards, courts and open spaces,' approved the third day of April, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three (Pamphlet Laws, fifty-four); providing for regulating and restricting the height, number of stories, bulk and size of buildings and other structures, the percentage of lot that may be occupied, the size, depth and width of yards, courts and other open spaces, the density of population and the location and use of buildings, structures and land for trade, industry, residence or other purposes, providing for a board of appeals to review decisions of the officer charged with the enforcement of any zoning ordinance duly adopted by said cities, establishing appeals from the decision of said board of appeals to the court of common pleas of the respective counties and authorizing said appeals to be advanced, also providing for the enforcement of zoning regulations established by said cities, and providing penalties for the violation of the same."

be recalled from the Governor for the purpose of amendments.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the House of Representatives accordingly.

SENATE BILL NO. 182 RETURNED WITH AMENDMENTS.

He also returned to the Senate, Senate Bill No. 182, entitled:

An Act establishing certain public roads as State highways and providing for their construction and maintenance at the expense of the Commonwealth with the information that the House has passed the same with amendments, in which the concurrence of the Senate is requested.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I move that Rule 21, which required amended bills to be noted on the calendar, be in this case dispesed with, and the Senate proceed to the consideration of the amendments made by the House of Representatives to the foregoing bill.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Said amendments having been printed as required by the Constitution were twice read, as follows:

Amend page 27, line 4, by striking out the bracket before the word "an"; also line 5, by striking out the bracket after the word "Ivy and"; also page 29, line 28, by striking out the bracket before the word "route"; also line 29 by striking out the bracket after the word "route".

On the question,

Will the Senate concur in the amendments?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, for the information of the Senate. I want to call attention to the fact that this is the Omnibus Road Bill. The House has ssen fit to make certain amendments, some of which perhaps some of the Senators might object to, but on the whole I feel the bill is the best that can be obtained, and I hope the Senate will concur in the amendments made by the House.

Mr. STEELE. Mr. President, I would like more information to vote intelligently upon this proposition. I think it has hurt it so much that I do not know just what these amendments are. I have not been able to discover that and I would like the information before this vote is put through. I think it is due to us.

The PRESIDENT. The roll has been called upon the bill.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT, The Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, will state his point of order.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, my point of order is that there is nothing in order but the announcement of the roll call.

The PRESIDENT. The point of order is well taken.

Mr. STEELE. Mr. President, I desire to be recorded as voting "no" on this concurrence.

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—45.

Aron,	Earnest,	Kutz,	Schantz,
Baldwin,	Einstein,	Lanius,	Snyder,

Items of moneys or property escheatable under the provisions of this act which were not reported to the Auditor General in the annual report of the person copartnership association [bank national bank] or other corporation holding such moneys or property but which were afterwards returned to the Auditor General in special reports to that officer or which were not reported to him but were ascertained by his agents may be advertised in the foregoing manner for the same period at any time and notice by mail to the several depositors beneficiaries or creditors shall be given in such cases as soon as the items are reported or otherwise ascertained

Section 3 That section seven of said act which was amended by the said act approved the twenty-first day of April one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one (Pamphlet Laws two hundred twenty-three) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 7 [After any particular deposit of money made otherwise than in a saving-fund savings institution or savings bank subject to the provisions of an act entitled "An act relating to unclaimed deposits in savings banks and transfer of stock" approved the seventeenth day of April Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred seventy-two (Pamphlet Laws page sixty-two) shall not have been increased or decreased or if not increased or decreased shall not be known to have been credited with interest on the pass book or certificate of deposit of the depositor at his request for the period of fourteen successive years the same shall be escheatable to the Commonwealth and shall be escheated in the manner hereinafter provided with interest thereon actually accrued to the date of the decree for the escheat of the same whether such deposit was at the expiration of said period in the possession of the depository with which it was originally deposited or in the possession of another depository which took over mediately or immediately in any manner whether before or after the expiration of said period of fourteen years the deposits of the depositary with which the deposit was originally made]

After the owner benefical owner or person entitled to any of the following named moneys or property shall be and remain unknown or the whereabouts thereof shall have been unknown for the period of seven successive years such moneys or property shall be escheatable to the Commonwealth and shall be escheated in the manner hereinafter provided with interest actually accrued thereon to the date of the decree for the escheat of the same namely

(a) Moneys or other estate of any kind whatsoever held by any person [bank national bank trust company or [other] association or corporation as guardian committee executor administrator assignee or receiver or as trustees under or by reason of a dry trust or under or by reason of any other trust the active duties of which have terminated except the delivery or payment to the beneficiaries thereunder of the subject of the trust and any increments accrued thereon

(b) Any moneys estate or effects paid into or deposited in any court of this Commonwealth or in any Federal Court in and for any district within the Commonwealth or in the custody of any officer of any such court

After any moneys or property held by any person [bank national bank trust company] or [other] corporation or by any association limited partnership copartnership belonging to any other person the escheat of which is not otherwise provided for in this section has been and remained unclaimed by the person for whom the same is held for the period of seven or more successive years such moneys or property shall be escheatable to the Commonwealth and shall be escheated in the manner hereinafter provided with interest actually accrued thereon to the date of the decree for the escheat of the same

After any dividend or dividends profit or profits declared by any [bank national bank trust company] or [other] corporation or association or by any partnership and after any debt or interest on any debt or debts owed by any such [bank national bank trust company or] corporation association or copartnership shall have been and remained due and unpaid for three successive years such dividends or profits debt or interest on debt shall be escheatable to the Commonwealth and shall be escheated in the manner hereinafter provided with interest actually accrued thereon to the date of the decree for the escheat of the same

Such escheat shall at the suggestion of the Auditor General be determined and enforced by an action in the nature of a bill in equity filed by and in the name of the Attorney General against the depositary fiduciary or debtor and all of his or its depositors beneficiaries or creditors for whom he or it holds unclaimed moneys escheatable under the provisions of this act in the appropriate court for the county where the debtor if an individual resides or if a corporation where it maintains its principal office Such action shall be brought in the court of common pleas except (a) Where it is sought to escheat unclaimed trust funds in which case the same shall be brought in the court having jurisdiction of such funds and except (b) where it is sought to escheat moneys paid into or deposited in a court or in the custody of any officer thereof in which case such action shall be brought in the court into which the money was paid or in which it was deposited or in the custody of an officer of which court the said moneys are

When the moneys have been paid into and are in the custody of any court the escheat of the same shall be determined and enforced at the suggestion of the Auditor General in said court upon which proceedings shall be had as in other cases of escheat provided for by this section Proceedings for the escheat of moneys in the possession or custody of any officer of any court shall be by a bill as provided for by this section in other cases in which bill such officer and the persons entitled to such moneys shall be made codefendants

Any such escheat proceedings may be prosecuted whether the deposits dividends moneys funds or other property or estate sought to be escheated shall have been reported to the Auditor General in conformity with the provisions of this act or have not been so reported Any number of items may be joined in one action against one debtor though owed to different creditors

If service of the bill cannot be had on the creditor's defendant within the State service shall be made by publication for two successive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation published in the county in which the debtor is resident or has its principal office and also when practicable for the same period in such a newspaper published in the county within or without the Commonwealth where when last heard from by the debtor the creditor had his residence Publication may be made in such form as the court shall direct and need not contain any order or other paper in full

If such creditors or their legal representatives shall appear in the cause within the time limited by the court and establish such right to recover said sums from the debtor but for the provisions of this act and if this right shall not be barred by the statute of limitations or presumption of payment a decree shall be made for the payment of said sums to them after paying their proportionate part of the costs of the cause and of said advertising Provided That such persons on demand may have any issue of fact determined by a jury and if they shall not so appear and establish such right a decree shall be made that said sums have escheated and shall be paid by the debtor to the State Treasurer for the use of the Commonwealth and the amount of such decree shall bear interest at the rate of twelve per centum per year from sixty days after the same is made and such decree shall be effectual to bar the creditors from claiming the said sums from the debtor An appeal may be taken by either or any party to such action to the Supreme Court at any time within thirty days after the date of the date of the decree issued therein

An action may be begun in the nature of a bill for discovery merely with respect to the subject matter of this act whether in this or other sections hereof against the debtor without the necessity of specifying the items which should escheat with the right to compel an answer under oath to subpoena all persons as witnesses and to compel the production of all books papers and records and from time to time the bill may be amended to pray for the escheat of specific items under this section seven and to make parties to the bill the creditors as ascertained

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

WEDNESDAY, April 1, 1925.

The House met at 10:30 o'clock A. M.

The SPEAKER (Thomas Bluett) in the Chair.

PRAYER.

The Chaplain, Rev. George P. Donehoo, offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, we thank Thee this bright morning that we are still in the battle and conflict of life and we thank Thee that life is a battle. Help us to take part in it as happy warriors of truth. Give us this morning the ability, even amid the noises of this world, and our political and professional and business activities, to still be able to hear the voice of God speaking to us. Keep us in our love for children and flowers and the blue sky and the trees and this beautiful world about us, and make us through these things to realize how, after all, what children we are, playing on the sands of the great ocean of thy limitless truths, seeing the horizon stretching out into the distance. Bless us all this day and abide with us in everything we do, we ask in Thy name. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the Journal of yesterday's proceedings.

Section 3 The annual salary of each of the judges of the courts of common pleas learned in the law in judicial districts of this Commonwealth having a population as determined by the last United States census of two hundred thousand (200,000) and less than four hundred thousand (400,000) shall be twelve thousand five hundred dollars ($12,500) in judicial districts of this Commonwealth having a population of one hundred thousand (100,000) and less than two hundred thousand (200,000) the annual salary of each of the judges of the court of common pleas learned in the law shall be eleven thousand five hundred dollars ($11,500) in judicial districts of this Commonwealth having a population of less than one hundred thousand (100,000) the annual salary of each of the judges of the courts of common pleas learned in the law shall be nine thousand five hundred dollars ($9,500) in judicial districts of this Commonwealth having a population of less than sixty-five thousand (65,000) the annual salary of each of the judges of Courts of Common Pleas learned in the law shall be eight thousand dollars ($8,000) And provided further That each of the judges of the courts of common pleas of Dauphin county shall receive three thousand dollars ($3,000) additional for trying the civil cases for the Commonwealth

Section 4 The annual salary of each of the judges of the municipal court of the county of Philadelphia shall be eleven thousand dollars and the annual salary of each of the judges of the county court of Allegheny county shall be eleven thousand dollars

Section 5 The annual salaries hereinbefore provided shall be paid monthly by warrant drawn by the Auditor General on the State Treasurer except that the salaries of the judges of the Municipal Court of the County of Philadelphia and the judges of the County Court of the County of Allegheny shall be paid respectively upon warrants drawn by the County Commissioners on the county treasury of the respective counties as heretofore provided by law

Section 6 In the counties where separate orphans' courts are established the annual salary of each of the judges of the said courts shall be the same as is paid to the judges of the courts of common pleas in the respective counties where such separate orphans' courts are established to be paid in the same manner as the salaries of the said judges of the courts of common pleas may be by law payable

Section 7 Each of the judges of the court of common pleas having a separate judicial district and having another county attached to said district shall receive two thousand dollars per annum additional for holding the courts of the county so attached to said separate judicial district

Section 8 All acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the Act of July 21, 1919, says in regard to the salaries of the municipal judges, "And the judges of the court of Allegheny County shall be payable by the State Treasurer in the same manner that the judges of the court of common pleas are paid." On page 66 of the general appropriation bill there is an item of $161,000 to pay the salaries of the municipal court judges of Philadelphia, and on the same page is an item of $80,000 for the payment of the salaries of the judges of Allegheny County. The bill under consideration on page 3, section 5, says that:

"The annual salaries hereinbefore provided shall be paid monthly by warrant drawn by the Auditor General on the State Treasurer except that the salaries of the judges of the Municipal Court of the County of Philadelphia and the judges of the County Court of the County of Allegheny shall be paid respectively upon warrants drawn by the County Commissioners on the county treasury of the respective counties as heretofore provided by law"

What I would like to know, Mr. Speaker is whether it is the intention of this bill to transfer from the State payroll to the payroll of the Counties of Philadelphia and Allegheny the salaries of the municipal court judges of Philadelphia and the salaries of the Allegheny County Court judges.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, and for the information of my friend from Tioga, the Committee carefully considered the bill and the bill was in general approved. There are two or three errors in the bill, and one of the errors is the error mentioned by my friend from Tioga, Mr. Williams. The friends of the measure got together and thought it better to let the Senate correct the errors that appear in the bill. The error that my friend points out is an error that will be corrected in the Senate, and the idea is to pass the bill here and let the Senate correct that error, and also correct an error appearing on the second page wherein a population of sixty-five thousand is omitted.

Mr. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker, President Coolidge in one of his addresses emphasized his thought on public expenditures by saying: "First I am for economy and second I am for more economy."

Congressman Vare in a recent interview on State affairs as printed in the Philadelphia Ledger said: "My policy as I have informed my friends is one of rigid economy all along the line, such economy as the President has put into practice in the National Government and you Mr. Speaker, in assuming the duties of your important office said "Public expenses and public activities must stop somewhere or we will drift into chaos. It should be our duty to guard carefully the public treasury and practice rigid economy in public expenditures."

In the face of these wise and timely suggestions by these students of public questions I have quoted, at a time when there is so much uncertainty as to the amount of funds we can safely appropriate for the next biennium we are confronted with the bill now under consideration, which, if enacted into law, will increase the annual expenses of the State over $250,000. and this will not be for a single year but for a period of time extending beyond the life of the youngest person present in this chamber.

The Judges of our State are in a much favored class. While the constitution says in substance that no law shall increase the salary of a public official during the term for which he is elected, the Supreme Court has said that Judges do not come under this constitutional prohibition. So if this bill becomes a law the salary of every Judge included in the provisions of this bill begins at once instead of when their successors assume the duties of the office.

From a laymans standpoint this bill at this time is not only unwise but unreasonable and should be defeated. I may, as a layman, be presumptuous in assuming to discuss this bill as I have, but I belive nevertheless what I have said to be based on facts.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I didn't come with reference to this bill with a prepared speech. I will answer my friend in my own humble way. My friend raises the first proposition, economy. That is a beautiful cry of today, but it is a cry only as to this bill when you come to examine the facts. My friend would have you believe that President Coolidge was against the increase of the salary of Judges. If he was he didn't say it when he approved the bill the other day for the raising of the salaries of the judges of the United States courts. Now, that is a fact, he did approve the raising of their salaries, and in doing so said to the public that there is no more important servant of the people than the judges, and that the judges should be given such a sum of money that they should be above temptation. What have we got as to the other facts? In the last session of the Legislature I heard my friend here making a similar argument to the argument made by the gentleman from Tioga, they argued that in raising the salary of the Supreme and Superior Court judges that you are putting an awful burden on the people of Pennsylvania. They made the same argument, and the result was the same, the bill passed because this House, then as well as this House now, feels that the judiciary are entitled to a fair wage.

Let us take the next fact. My friend says that the salaries of judges were fixed years ago. Yes, they were fixed years ago and have not been raised for years. What is the difference between the purchasing power of the dollar today and the dollar some years ago. This House has received a pamphlet wherein the value of a dollar today and the value of a dollar ten years ago has been very carefully described, and if I remember rightly the figures shown by some table that was presented to use was that the purchasing power of a dollar today is about fifty-five or sixty cents as much as what the dollar was ten years ago. Is this a bill raising the salary of judges or is it merely equalizing their salary with the conditions that exist in the ordinary everyday walks of life of today.

Now, let us have it from another viewpoint. Let us have if from the viewpoint of the mechanic. Does any member of this House fail to realize that the wage that was a dollar a day wage is a thing of the past? Does anybody fail to realize that the plasterer fifteen years age got his dollar and two dollars a day, and now he takes his eighteen dollrs? Does anybody fail to realize that ten years ago the bricklayer got two and three dollars a day and today he takes fifteen dollars? Does anybody fail to realize that every mechanic and every laborer throughout this broad land had his wages not only doubled but tripled? This salary raiser for the judges is not asking for a double raise, not asking for a fifty percent raise, but asking on the average for approximately a thirty and forty per cent. raise.

Let us take another view of the bill. A judge is in a peculiar position. A position peculiar to himself and different from everybody else. He may have much work to do or he may have little work to do, but he is put on a high pedestal, he must stand forth in the community and keep an eminent position, he must hold himself apart, he must occupy a social standing different from the rest of us, he must engage in every charitable undertaking, he must share in every charitable undertaking. That costs money, and don't he need the money, and don't he have to do that in order to keep himself in the proper position in society? Can he do that on the present wage. I heard a judge in Philadelphia say that when he went on the bench less than two years ago he left a practice of thirty-five thousand dollars a year, something that made him thirty-five thousand dollars a year, and he said he could not understand why he left the vanity of a judgeship tempt him to go on the bench for twelve thousand dollars a year and forgo the thirty-five thousand dollars. That man was patriotic enough to serve his country for twelve thousand dollars, and if we raise it to fifteen thousand that man is still short twenty-thousand. I ask every member to vote in favor of this bill.

Mr. GOODNOUGH. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the sponsor of the bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Neely, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. NEELY. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. GOODNOUGH. Section 7 of the bill provides as follows:

"Each of the judges of the court of common pleas having a separate judicial district and having another county attached to said district shall receive two thousand dollars per annum additional for holding the courts of the county so attached to said separate judicial district"

Does that section mean that where two counties make up a judicial district that the two thousand dollars is to be paid to that judge?

Mr. NEELY. Yes, that is the intention.

Mr. GOODNOUGH. Then, may I ask further, what would be the result in the event that three counties make up a judicial district as they do in the district of which my county is a part?

Mr. NEELY. I don't know that I can answer that. I didn't know there were any three counties in a judicial district.

Mr. GOODNOUGH. That is the case in the twenty-sixth judicial district.

Mr. NEELY. That would be matter of interpretation. Now, if it is necessary to change that we will make the amendment in the Senate to take care of that.

Mr. MARCUS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I only want to concur with the remarks of the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers. I appreciate the facts in the statement read by the gentleman from Tioga, Mr. Williams, on economy, but I don't believe that economy applies to the condition as set forth in this particular bill. The judiciary of Allegheny County and all other counties are marching with the trend of progress. We must make it attractive for members of the bench to remain on the bench and not leave the bench. We must be put in the position of giving them adequate salaries. I assure the members of this House that if there are any technical errors of corrections as pointed out by the gentleman from Cameron, Mr. Goodnough, that they will be corrected in the Senate. I would ask the members of this House to, solidify in voting for this measure, it is a step forward and not a step backward because in a sense we are economic in giving the judges on the bench a decent, adequate salary to live on.

Mr. NEELY. Every citizen in this Commonwealth is interested in maintaining a high standard in our judiciary. Now, as to the economy of President Coolidge, I want to call your attention to the fact that President Coolidge discriminates in matters of economy. He has not only signed a bill raising the salary of judges, he has also signed bills increasing the pay of congressmen, senators and postal employes. Now, when you choose a man for the judiciary you demand a man of ability and integrity, that he be a man not afraid of work and capable of working. Therefore, you need a man in the prime of life, a man of that caliber who will make the proper kind of judge for this Commonwealth. Men demand in everyday life more money than these men are paid on the bench today. If you are going to keep the salary of those judges down you are confronted by one of two things, you either choose men from a station in life who have not had the experience in business necessary to pass upon many judicial questions, or you name men who have a private income. I submit to you members of the House that neither of those conditions work for the highest standard of your judiciary. I believe that you are justified in voting for this bill and hope you will pass it.

Mr. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker, I think if my good friend from Philadelphia will refresh his memory, and he will not have to work very hard to do it, I don't think he will find it necessary to refer to the Pamphlet Laws, he will find that during his period of service in this House the salaries of the judges have been increased more than once.

As to the necessity of increasing the salary of the judges to get a higher type of man for the office there is nothing to the argument. Throughout the state of Pennsylvania today there are numerous districts in which judges are to be elected, and I don't recall one of them but what there are several candidates seeking the nomination and election to the office, knowing very well that they will in all probability have to serve under the present salary. It has been admitted by the gentleman from Philadelphia and the gentleman from Allegheny that this bill is defective, very defective. Then why should we send this bill over to the Senate to be corrected? Are not we capable of amending and correcting the defects in this bill here in this House? If not we had better adjourn and go home. I think this bill should either be put on the postponed calendar where it can be amended here by ourselves or defeated.

Mr. RHODES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I want to differ with the explanation of the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Neely, with reference to section 7 of this bill. As I understand section 7 it discriminates in favor of two judicial districts in this Commonwealth, but there are a number of judicial districts that contain more than one county, and this bill in so far as section 7 is concerned only applies to two of those judicial districts. Columbia County was originally one judicial district which had attached to it Montour County. This bill would apply to that judicial district and increase the salary in that district to ten thousand dollars. It likewise would apply to the judicial district which consists of Warren and Forest, making the salary of that judge ten thousand dollars, but it does not apply to the other judicial districts that are in the same condition. Monroe and Pike Counties are one judicial district but the judge cannot get this additional compensation. Therefore I feel that this bill discriminates in favor of some judicial districts against those that are in the same position but do not come within this particular category.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Amend sec. 1, line 6, page 1, by inserting after the word

"company" the following: "duly authorized by law to transact business in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania".

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the insertion of the amendments at this time? Is there any objection? The Chair hears none, and the amendments will be inserted in accordance with the instructions of the House.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended lie over for printing.

Mr. EARLEY. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time House Bill No. 1310, (Senate Bill No. 533), file folio 1899, on page 30 of to-day's calendar, bills on third reading postponed.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. Earley,

The House resumed the consideration on third reading of House Bill No. 1310, (Senate Bill No. 533), entitled:

An Act to amend section three hundred eighty-one of the act approved the fourteenth day of July one thousand nine hundred and seventeen (Pamphlet Laws eight hundred forty) entitled "An act concerning townships and revising amending and consolidating the law relating thereto" by providing for the establishment of lights along the village streets in townships of the first class and authorizing the levy of a special tax therefor

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. EARLEY. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk for information.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend sec. 1, page 2, line 8, by striking out the word "shall" and inserting in lieu thereof "may"

Amend sec. 1, page 2, lines 11 and 12 by striking out the words "any other public places in the district benefited thereby"

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the insertion of the amendments at this time? Is there any objection? The Chair hears none, and the amendments will be inserted in accordance with the instructions of the House.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended lie over for printing.

Mr. HAAS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time House Bill No. 1093, file folio 3345, on page 28 of to-day's calendar, bills on third reading postponed.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. Haas.

The House resumed the consideration on third reading of House Bill No. 1093, entitled:

An Act to amend article thirteen of the act approved the twenty-seventh day of June Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and thirteen (Pamphlet Laws five hundred and sixty-eight) entitled "An act providing for the incorporation regulation and government of cities of the third class regulating nomination and election of municipal officers therein and repealing consolidating and extending existing laws in relation thereto" providing for a charge on property for the use of sewers and sewage disposal plants and the collection of such charge

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE.

Mr. MARCUS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time, on page 10 of today's calendar, bills on final passage postponed, House Bill No. 22, file folio 1863.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. Marcus.

The House resumed the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 22, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Roselia Foundling Asylum and Maternity Hospital of the city of Pittsburgh

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. BICKETT. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the Chairman of the Appropriation Committee.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. McCaig, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. McCAIG. Yes, sir, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. BICKETT. Mr. Speaker, I would like to know if this is not a sectarian institution.

Mr. McCAIG. No, sir.

Mr. BICKETT. On what ground do you base your answer?

Mr. McCAIG. I have in my hand the Directory of the Department of Welfare of Children's Institutions and Child Caring Societies prepared by the Bureau of Children, and on page 27, the Roselia Foundling Asylum and Maternity Hospital of the City of Pittsburgh appears, and the directory reads as follows: "Roselia Foundling Asylum and Maternity Hospital, Cliff and Manila Streets, Pittsburgh, Allegheny County, Pa.; Non-sectarian; children, birth to three years; adults, any age; capacity, 109 children and 68 women."

Mr. BICKETT. Mr. McCaig, is it not a fact that in the official directory of the Catholic Church, they recognize this hospital as a sectarian institution?

Mr. McCAIG. I refer again to this Welfare Department which has made investigations of these institutions. I hold in my hand a list of seven institutions, whose bills are now on the postponed calendar, and which were granted appropriations two years ago, passed on by the Attorney General's Office, I take it, before they went to the Governor, and the Governor signed the bills and the State Treasurer paid them the funds; and this list is here, and reads as follows:

Orphan Asylum of the Holy Family, Emsworth;

St. John's General Hospital, Pittsburgh;

Roselia Foundling Asylum & Maternity Home, Pittsburgh;

Spencer Hospital, Meadville;

St. Vincent's Hospital, Erie;

St. Francis Hospital, Pittsburgh;

Mercy Hospital, Wilkesbarre;

Mr. BICKETT. Isn't it a fact that all these hospitals that you mentioned were declared non-sectarian on one appeal that went before the Supreme Court?

Mr. McCAIG. Every hospital stands upon its own footing, and the decision in the case of St. Vincent's Hospital of Erie was the guide by which these other institutions were declared non-sectarian by those then in authority at the time these bills were passed. They were held up for two years, and after the decision came down on the St. Vincent Hospital case, these seven were declared non-sectarian and the State Treasurer and Auditor General paid the gratuities.

Mr. BICKETT. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, personally I am not opposed to the Roselia Institution as an institution, but I believe that this institution, in the official directory of the Catholic church is recognized as a Catholic institution; also on page 581 of Kennedy's Catholic Directory, under the heading, "Religious Institutions in Charge of Religious Orders," this hospital is recognized as a religious institution. Now, I do not care personally whether they are Catholic, Protestant or what they are, if they are sectarian institutions. I will vote just as readily against Protestant institutions, if sectarian, as against Catholic institutions. That makes no difference to me; but in both of these cases, both of these directories were admitted as evidence in the mandamus case of the Mercy Hospital of Johnstown, therefore I believe that they are authentic, and I therefore claim that this institution is a sectarian institution.

Mr. McCAIG. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, at the time this decision was made, these institutions had been held up for a matter of two years, and after the decision came down they were carefully looked into by the Department of Welfare, who sent special agents and they made a report that these institutions were non-sectarian and thereafter this directory was published.

I want to say that these institutions which come under this decision are institutions which have as their employees nurses of the Catholic faith, several of them; others have their board of directors; but the decision was made on the method of conducting business. The community owned the property and leased to the hospital association, which is comprised of boards of directors who are non-sectarian. I myself am on several, and some of the other members of this House are on some of them. Some of the strongest business interests and business men of the city of Pittsburgh and in the Commonwealth are connected with these worthy institutions; and I want to say to you, ladies and gentlemen of the House, if you all knew the good work that this particular institution does, as I have so explained to several of the members of the House, and have showed communications which have been brought to my attention, there would not be a dissenting vote in allowing these bills to pass upon the recommendation of the Welfare Department and the State Treasurer, and the fact that the Governor signed the bills two years ago, and I therefore ask you to vote for this bill.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were then taken.

Mr. STRAYER. Mr. Speaker, I call for a verification of the roll.

The SPEAKER. The roll will be verified.

The roll was verified as follows:

SENATE BILL No. 182 MADE A SPECIAL ORDER.

Mr. HESS. Mr. Speaker, I move that House Bill No. 1082, (Senate Bill No. 182), file folio 3203, on page 26 of today's calendar, bills on third reading, entitled:

An Act establishing certain public roads as State highways and providing for their construction and maintenance at the expense of the Commonwealth be made a special order of business at 12:50 o'clock P. M.

Mr. METZGER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE.

Mr. STERLING. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time on page 11 of today's calendar of bills on final passage postponed, House Bill No. 743, file folio 5115.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. Sterling,

The House resumed the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 743, entitled:

An Act to amend sections fourteen fifteen and seventeen of an act approved the twenty-fifth day of July one thousand nine hundred and thirteen (Pamphlet Laws one thousand three hundred eleven) entitled "An act providing for the establishment of a State Industrial Home for Women authorizing the purchase of a site and the erection thereon and equipment of necessary buildings providing for the commitment to said State Industrial Home for Women of females between the ages of sixteen and thirty years convicted of or pleading guilty to the commission of any criminal offense and providing for the government and management of said institution and making an appropriation to carry out the purpose of this act" by changing the procedure of transfer sentence and commitment and making certain changes in the eligibility of women prisoners for commitment to said institution and providing a method of transfer to and from Laurelton State Village

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House—

Mr. STERLING. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, if the gentleman from Delaware will yield the floor to me, I will explain this bill to the House.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Yes, go ahead.

Mr. STERLING. First of all, Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the reason why a minute ago I objected to the request of the gentleman from Lancaster to call up a bill from the postponed calendar was because, as I understand under the rules of this House, from 12:00 o'clock on until that branch of the business is disposed of, the House's attention is given to the consideration of bills on the postponed calendar, and that was the only reason why I interposed my objection to the consideration of a postponed bill at this time.

The bill now under consideration is the bill that has to do with the Industrial Home for Women at Muncy, Pennsylvania. The bill in short, proposes that ultimately all women prisoners in Pennsylvania will be accommodated in one institution, and that no longer will women be committed to the local county jails and the penitentiaries. If for no other reason that the one just mentioned, this bill, it seems to me, should have your favorable consideration. Muncy is—

Mr. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from Philadelphia which bill he is speaking on?

Mr. STERLING. I beg to advise the gentleman that I am speaking on House Bill No. 743, file folio 5115, on page 11 of today's calendar.

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, Muncy is about fifteen miles from Williamsport in this State. The institution is just a short distance from the main station of the Pennsylvania Railroad there. It is an institution that is built on the cottage scheme, and presently accommodates something over one hundred inmates. Anticipating what questions might be raised about the institution, it may appear to you that the per capita cost for the maintenance of prisoners in that institution has been abnormally high. The answer to that it seems to me, because as you well will know, the overhead for a prisoner depends altogether on the result of the division between the number of inmates and total cost of operation. This bill proposes to increase the number of inmates and if by simple arithmetic you increase the divisor, you decrease the results; in other words, if you will pass this bill, you will make it possible for this institution to receive a greater number of inmates and, doing so, you naturally will bring down the per capita cost. That also already has been done, and the history of the institution will show that for 1920 and for 1921, the cost for sixty-five to seventy inmates was five dollars and fifty cents per capita; for 1921 and '22, with the same number, three dollars and forty cents; for 1922 and 1923, with ninety to ninety-five inmates, two dollars and eighty-eight cents; and at the present time, with approximately a hundred and two inmates, the per capita cost is two dollars and fifty cents.

Now, this bill proposes, members of the House, that all women prisoners over the age of sixteen whose term of sentence shall be one year or more, will be committed by the courts to this institution. While the bill was going through the process of final preparation, a great number of interests showed their activities for the bill. Among them was the Penal Commission which wanted one thing in this bill. Another of them were trustees of the institution; and, finally, Judge Frank Smith, of Philadelphia, who happened to be a trustee of this institution, and who has watched it grow, took the side of the court so far as the question is concerned. Finally, as far as I am now able to understand, the parties interested in the measure are satisfied with it as it appears upon your file folio. And, concluding, then, in your consideration of this measure, if you will permit the one point and only the one point to address your attention, namely, that by the passage of the bill, ultimately all the women prisoners of Pennsylvania will come to this institution, I feel confident, and urge you that upon that basis and that basis alone, no matter what the short-comings of the bill may otherwise be, it should have your favorable vote this morning.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House: As far as the original purpose of Muncy is concerned, I have nothing but the heartiest approval, but under the present management of Muncy I certainly could not for one moment vote for the appropriation of one dollar for any improvements at that place. I have within the last week visited Muncy. I have seen the place; I have the figures of what it is costing, and I have a little history of the place for the last few years. Muncy at the present time, is filled to its capacity, having 102 inmates. Some figures have been given to you to show what it cost back in 1921. We will be able to show why that was, not so much of so few inmates, but because of the extravagance in the management of that place. In the first place, along some time before this administration, the superintendent of that place took a trip to Connecticut and handed in a bill to the board of trustees of between two and three hundred dollars. The board of trustees, at least three of them, including the Honorable Senator Sones, a member of the Senate, and who has been a member of that Senate for a long while, and those of you who know him as well as I do, know that he, for his charitableness, cannot be exceeded, —was a member of that board. He objected to the bill; the bill was held up; it was finally passed with the understanding that no further bill for trips outside the State would be paid. Notwithstanding that, it was not long before this same superintendent of that institution took a trip to Florida, not only herself—

Mr. STERLING. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point or order.

Mr. STERLING. Mr. Speaker, as I understand it, my friend from Delaware is now discussing the expenditures of money in this institution. I take it that that is a subject which should be considered when this House receives the appropriation bill which will accompany this bill, at a subsequent time, House Bill No. 744. This bill has nothing to do with the appropriation of money to this institution. I therefore think my point of order is well taken.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Before the Speaker rules on that point of order, I would like to explain—

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will confine himself to the bill before the House.

Mr. ALEXANDER. I am confining myself to the bill. If the members of this House decide by this bill that that population shall be increased, you are voting on that question before the appropriation bill comes before you, because there must be an appropriation before the population of Muncy can be increased. It may be that the gentleman is getting the cart before the horse. You must have the appropriation first, but that cannot check us up in discussing this bill. Starting where I was stopped, the trip was not only taken to Florida by the superintendent herself but by one of the other attendants. There was another bill of about $300 handed in for expenses. That was held up, but in the meantime the administration of this State changed hands, and when the new administration came in, they discharged, or rather, did not reappoint, under the administration Code, the Honorable Senator Sones and the two members of Lycoming county in that district who knew what was going on and knew the conditions of the place. They were refused a reappointment, and there was a letter sent from this Capitol stating that "now the disturbing element had been removed he hoped they would be able to get along," and they had been going along very nicely and are today at $2.88 per capita for each inmate in that institution. They have two touring automobiles. They have an overhead of management—that is, I mean to say, the administration employs thirty-three people at a total cost of $40,140 per annum, for thirty-three people, mind you, while at Laurelton, which has about the same aged people, women, they employ forty people, and there it needs a higher class, they being feeble-minded inmates at Laurelton, and yet the cost of the forty there is $10,000 annually less than what it is at Muncy.

Another thing that I want to call your attention to, because, as I say, if we increase this population, we must build new buildings, and that is this: There was, under the Sproul administration, a bill passed by this House, appropriating $15,000 for a new barn. They need a new barn. Governor Sproul cut the appropriation down to $12,000. The lowest bid then, 1922, was $13,000. They have, since this administration came in, had a bid for $15,000 and a contract was entered into for that purpose. The barn has cost $18,000, and now they find out that they have a contract on the unit basis instead of the flat basis, and the barn is going to cost $21,000 before it is finished; so we do not want to appropriate $200,000 to be spent in that way.

The report from this institution differs from the report which Mr. Sterling, no doubt inadvertently stated awhile ago, that the per capita was $2.50. The report which I have here came from the superintendent herself, handed to me last Saturday, and shows that the per capital cost is $2.88 per day. It is costing, in other words, $942 a year per capita to keep these inmates which are now kept in jails at 70 cents a day. Now, as I say, the purpose in the first place was proper. That purpose was this: That females between the ages of sixteen and thirty were to be sent to Muncy because of the belief at that time of the old Board of Charities that women under the age of thirty offered a chance for reformation, and therefore they sent them to that Industrial Home. As I said, I have no quarrel with that purpose; but now they propose not only to send these people who may be reformed, between the ages of sixteen and thirty, but they propose to empty the jails and they propose to empty the penitentiaries, although I believe at the present time there are none in the penitentiaries, they having been sent to the jails. You know and I know that it would not be proper to send some of the women who are confined in the jails of this State today out there with any idea that you will reform those girls between sixteen and thirty. Why, I know of women in jails today that if sent into the presence of anybody, would only make the worst criminals of those girls rather than help to reform them, and I refer to two of them at the present time who spend ninety-nine per cent of their time in the jails of Delaware county. To permit such people as them to be sent out to Muncy would be absolutely wrong.

There is another purpose that I want to call your attention to, and that is in Section 17 of this bill. You will see that it provides—first, before I come to Section 17, this provides that they may take to that institution any criminal they desire to bring out there, even murderesses, a murderess convicted of murder in the second degree and sentenced to from ten to twenty years, they may take her out there; and if they see fit may, under Section 17, without any let or hindrance and without consulting the trustees at Laurelton, who are the trustees of the Feeble-minded Institute, they might send them to that Feeble-minded Institute, leave them there as long as they please and then withdraw them from that institution without even consulting the trustees of Laurelton. Now, I ask you if you were the trustees of an institution like Laurelton, which has the feeble-minded children between the age of sixteen—or feeble-minded women of child-bearing age, how would you like to have another institution interfere with your administration of the affairs of that institution? In that institution at the present time, they have the right to accept or reject the patients in the institution, but under this bill, they have nothing to say; it leaves it entirely to the trustees of Muncy with the consent, of course, of the Welfare Board, but not with the consent of the trustees of Laurelton to say whether they shall take these prisoners or whether these prisoners are proper persons to mingle with the feeble-minded people of Laurelton. It takes away from the administration entirely of the trustees at Laurelton that discretion which up until this time they had the right to exercise. At the present time, let me tell you, that these trustees of Laurelton, with these feeble-minded inmates, are keeping them at a per capita rate of $364 per annum. Mind you, the feeble-minded women about this same age, they are keeping them at $364 per capita per annum, while it is costing $942 per capita per annum for the inmates at Muncy. Now, of course, this is entirely the trouble with the administration, it is entirely the trouble with the trustees, and when the three trustees, who were endeavoring to see that this administration of the affairs of Muncy was conducted on an economical basis, were discharged, three friends of Miss Wilson, the superintendent, suggested by her, were placed in their places so that she could go along just the same as before and take all the trips she wanted to. I say, for the principle of Muncy, I have nothing to say. I want to ask another thing, and want you to take that into consideration after having taken these other matters into consideration. I want to ask another thing; with all due respect to my friend, Mr. Sterling, and this House, and with all due respect to the Senator from Delaware now in the Senate, there have been two bills presented, one by the gentleman from Philadelphia, many hundred miles away from this institution, another in the Senate presented by Senator MacDade who also lives many hundred miles from this institution, and has not been brought in close contact with it. We have in this House two honorable members of this House that live within twenty miles, within fifteen miles of this institution, who live in Williamsport, the same county in which that institution is, and you do not see either one of those gentlemen sponsoring this bill, and why? Why isn't this bill given to them to sponsor? They knew the situation out there and they know the conditions, and I gamble that you will not hear either one of them vote "aye" on this bill. On the other hand, the Senate bill, with the honorable gentleman over there, Senator Sones, who was practically one of the originators and who was one of the men whom made possible this institution in the beginning, as I said, a man who is charitably inclined and who does anything to aid charitable institutions, you would think it proper that this bill should be handled to him to present over in the Senate, but it was not for good reasons. I want you to look at this bill and want you to look at it in the right light. I have had piles of letters sent to me, many signed in the same handwriting, signed by the people who sent them, and I had them come to me last Sunday and call me over the telephone. When I asked these same women that wrote the letters if they knew about the conditions at Muncy, they told me, "No, they did not know anything about them." I asked "Have you ever inquired what it is costing to run that institution?" and they said, "No, we do not know anything about it." I said to them, "It is costing $942 per annum per capita." They said; "Do not consider my letter then for a minute." And I had a number of this kind of talks; and I dare say that if the ones who are sending the same kind of letters to you here would analyze and find out the conditions at Muncy and the extravagence going on there, you would not have one-one hundredths of the letters sent to you for that place. I say to you now and I want you to take into consideration the fact of how these bills have been handled, not by the people of that community who know the institution and know the conditions.

As I said before, if you increase that population, then you must put the money into the hands of these people for the extravagance that is going on there, provide for this extravagance in the appropriation bill which will follow. At Laurelton you need more money, because that is properly managed and properly run. As I said before, only repeating and finishing, the cost is $364 per annum per capita for the feeble-minded children each year, who need the aid of physicians and need the protection which these people at Muncy do not, these criminals from the counties, and yet you are paying board for them that you will pay in hotels, for $2.88 per day, you can board in good hotels, and yet for that number you are paying $942 per annum.

As I said before, I took this trip for the purpose of learning the facts and the truth about this institution, and I felt at the time that if these facts were correct, then this House should know it by somebody who had been there and examined the situation, and if not correct we should tell you so. And as I said, we examined this institution on Saturday, Mr. McCaig and myself, and he can assure you that what I am telling you is the absolute facts.

I may tell you also another thing: This I want you to understand, however, I do not have as a fact. I am told that the superintendent's room is furnished at Muncy with a set of furniture that cost along $4,000. I say to you, I did not see it. I forgot to ask her to show me her furnished room, but she showed me every place in the institution except her own bedroom. Unlike Laurelton, however—. I take it from that there must be something out there.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Delaware.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Delaware has the floor.

Mr. ALEXANDER. If the gentleman from Philadelphia will wait until I get through, he can ask me all the questions he wants to.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Delaware will proceed.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Unlike Muncy, however, Doctor Wolfe of Laurelton took us to her rooms and she has a little cubby hole in a corner in which she has not hardly room enough to turn around, and it was very economically furnished and she was not afraid to show us, and there was no extravagance in that; but we did not see the other room where there was a $4,000 bedroom suite to furnish that place, a place where we are keeping the criminals of this State. For these reasons I do not think it expedient at this time to do anything more than the act provides at the present time. Your present act provides that these people between sixteen and thirty, who are the proper persons to be taken there, can be taken there without this act at all. This act provides that the hardened criminals shall be admitted there.

And I want to call your attention to another thing: The last survey made shows that in your county jails in the State of Pennsylvania—and there is now a great cry made about the women prisoners being there—there are 413 women at the present time in your county jails, and they are divided as follows: 82 serving over a year; 16 serving one year; 300 serving less than one year. Out of this number of 413, there are 52 in the Workhouse in Allegheny; and the complaint is that these women in these jails do not have separate attendants or female attendants, but that the men attendants have the keys and can go in and are the only people who have the keys that can go in and out of these cells. That is not so with the 52 in the Workhouse in Allegheny; they have their separate female attendants. That is also so in Cambria where they have 10, in Dauphin where they have 12, in Delaware county, where they have 4; and we have there a separate woman attendant, the only person that has the keys to that department and the only person who can get in there with the exception of the wife of the warden, who is matron of the jail; we have a separate apartment for them there.

Let me tell you another thing: It makes no difference if this act is passed today and your hardened criminals you have in your jails are released and sent to Muncy, you must still keep up your organization in your county jails, because you will have your thirty, sixty and ninety days women, the big majority of the women kept in your jails anyhow, and you are bound to have them there, and you are bound to have your separate attendants, and your cost will be just as great, whether this bill passes or not, as far as that is concerned, with the great hotel boarding costs that you have at Muncy. Of those 413 women prisoners, you have in the Philadelphia County Prison 91, and in the House of Correction in Philadelphia, 142, and both of those ploces have their separate women attendants; and therefore this complaint cannot apply to any except, perhaps, about less than 100 of the women today who are in the jails in the different counties throughout the State, and many of those, many of those, are thirty, sixty and ninety days prisoners, and at least less than a year; so that there is little hardship being done at the present time; and with the number of things that are necessary, I say, as far as I am concerned, that the management of Muncy must be changed before I will vote for this bill.

And, by the way, let me tell you: I am figuring another thing: When I say $942 per annum per capita, that is the figure in the appropriation made this year of $90,000. There was an appropriation recommended by the Welfare Department of this State, notwithstanding that extravagant amount of $942, there was a recommendation of $100,000 which would put the per capita cost per annum over $1,000 for this institution. I tell you that there is something wrong and something wrong at Muncy.

Mr. STERLING. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, there are only two points raised by my friend from Delaware that in my judgment need reply. To reply to one I must repeat what I said before and that is plainly this: That only by the passage of this act will you make it possible to increase the number of inmates at Muncy, and if you do increase the number of inmates at Muncy you do, by the simple arithmetical process, reduce the per capita cost.

Point No. 2, suggested by my friend from Delaware, involved the commingling of the hardened with the less offensive prisoners. The bill provides, page 5, section 15, that "upon the commitment or transfer of any women to the State Industrial Home for Women the Board of Managers thereof shall segregate and keep apart in separate cottages the more hardened offenders."

With those two points answered the question comes again: Why is this bill deserving of your favorable consideration? My friend from Delaware, with all his opposition, states that the principal involved in this measure is a good one, namely, that this State take its place with the other great States of the Union and provide a place where ultimately the women prisoners of this Commonwealth may be placed in one institution. I ask on the basis of these arguments that this bill have your favorable vote.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Alexander.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Delaware permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. ALEXANDER. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SOWERS. Is not this institution solely for women?

Mr. ALEXANDER. Sure.

Mr. SOWERS. And does it not cost more to keep women than men?

Mr. ALEXANDER. For my part I have never had any experience keeping women.

Mr. SOWERS. I trust then that your object in visiting Muncy was to get that experience.

Now Mr. Speaker, and members of the House, I listened with great attention to my friend and his description to us of his visit to Muncy. I had no idea that he was single. My friend went to Muncy and you heard the description of these beautiful rooms and for a single man to be escorted to the bedrooms of the institution is surprising. What is my friend's argument against Muncy that it cost too much? His argument when you sift it down, comes down to this: He objects to the great cost there looking after the women, that is all.

Mr. HART. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I rise on this question in compliance with the request of a very large number of my constituents and I may say here that I represent in this House the most distinguished district in the State of Pennsylvania, distinguished because living there is Chief Justice Robert Von Moschzisker, the Senator of the Unite States, Senator George Wharton Pepper, a vice president of the Pennsylvania Railroad; four judges of the courts of common pleas; the president of the Philadelphia Rapid Transit Company—he may not be popular but he lives there just the same; Dr. Nathan F. Mossel, the chief surgeon of the Douglas Hospital; and then the president of the city council of Phiadelphia, Charles P. Hall. Together with this distinguished array of men we have a grilliant array of the most aristocratic white women in Philadelphia. Joined with them are more than four thousand respectable and thrifty colored people. All of these people believe that protection should surround the womanhood of Pennsylvania; and they believe further that every man, whether it costs more to keep women or not, should exercise their right judgment and their right duty in bringing about protection to the womanhood of the State of Pennsylvania; and I am conscious of the fact that I represent and speak the voice of every man and woman in my district when I appeal to you to lay aside every vestage of that long, adverse and technical speech that had no bearing on the protection of the womanhood of the State and let this bill pass and the women of the State of Pennsylvania be accorded the protection they deserve.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. STERLING. Yes, sir, surely.

Mr. ALEXANDER. As stated in this bill, it provides for the segregation of hardened criminals. Where are you going to put them at the present time?

Mr. STERLING. In one of the cottages that are now there, sir.

Mr. ALEXANDER. The only cottage that is not full out there is the barn. You do not propose to put them in there?

Mr. STERLING. Provision can be made for them if this bill is passed.

Mr. ALEXANDER. What kind of provision, by this bill?

Mr. STERLING. Accompanying this bill, as I said before, is House Bill No. 744.

Mr. ALEXANDER. That calls for an appropriation?

Mr. STERLING. That calls for an appropriation of two hundred thousand dollars, and no two hundred thousand dollars, in this Commonwealth's treasury, in my judgment, can be spent for a more worthy cause.

Mr. ALEXANDER. And that is for the purpose of taking care of hardened criminals now in the jails.

Mr. STERLING. I could not say that. I should say rather that that two hundred thousand dollars will assist in developing a comprehensive program of buildings which will make this institution adequate for the whole purposes of the Commonwealth.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Will your program be on the same basis as the building of the present barn?

Mr. STERLING. Mr. Speaker and ladies and gentlemen of the House, I cannot answer questions that have to do with barns, not being a farmer, and if any of your gentlemen who represent farming districts can answer the question I will be glad if you will accommodate him.

Mr. ALEXANDER. I desire to interrogate the gentleman further. As I understand, you have never been to Muncy?

Mr. STERLING. I have never been to Muncy, sir; but I can say, this, Mr. Speaker and members of the House, that I believe in the survey made by many estimable people of Philadelphia through whose interest I have become interested in this matter. I believe with them that the purpose of this bill is fundamentally right. I believe with them that the question of cost and the question of administration must be subordinated to the bigger question involved that my friend from Philadelphia so eloquently stated to you a minute ago.

Mr. EARLEY. Mr. Speaker, I move the previous question.

The motion was seconded by Messrs. Hall, Bidelspacher, Wheeler, Eaches, Behney, Hess, Armstrong, Posey, Greenstein, Royle, Fratt, Orr, B. F. Evans, Lafferty, Haws, Dilsheimer, Metzinger, Witkin, Jones, Bush and others.

On the question,

Shall the main question now be put?

It was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

Amend as follows: Line 4, page 27, strike out the "Bracket" before the word "and".

Amend Senate bill No. 182, file folio No. 3203, section 1, by striking out the bracket before the word "Route" in line 28, on page 29, and the bracket after the word "Route" in line No. 29, on page 29.

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the insertion of the amendments at this time? Is there any objection? The Chair hears none, and the amendments will be inserted in accordance with the instructions of the House.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

The SPEAKER. The amendments consisting simply of strikeouts, this bill is now on final passage, the question being

Shall the bill pass finally ?

Mr. WHEELER. Mr. Speaker, I ask leave to interrogate the gentleman from Lancaster.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Lnacaster, Mr. Hess, permit himself to be interrogated

Mr. HESS. yes, sir, I will.

Mr. WHEELER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from Lancaster what financial provisions, if any, has been made to meet the additional obligations upon the State Highway Department in the passage of this bill

Mr. HESS. In the first place, there is no financial obligations incumbent upon the State before the thirty-first of May, 1926, so that the obligation upon the State for maintenance of these roads will only be during the latter half of the biennium or for the period of a year.

In the second place, I may say that the language of the enabling act and also the constitutional amendment which authorized the fifty million bond isue, which recently passed this House, a portion of which bonds have already been sold and money receivd from them, is so broad as to permit that money to be expended for the improvement of the Highways of the Commonweath including these and any other roads.

Mr. WHEELER. Mr. Speaker, I should like to say to the members of the House that I am not opposing the passage of this bill, simply trying to bring out certain points in connection therewith. I would like to ask the gentleman further whether this decision with respect to expenditure of bond issue monies will apply to the maintenance or temporary improvement of dirt roads as contemplated in the passage of this omnibus bill.

Mr. HESS. My answer to that question, Mr. Speaker, is that it will. At the discretion of the department it could be used for those purposes.

Mr. WHEELER. I desire to further interrogate the gentleman. Does not the gentleman from Lancaster feel that this bill, in its anticipated passage, creates an obligation on the part of this House to consider a measure which would provide the necessary revenue for the Highway Department to meet the obligations created by the passage of this bill? I refer to the proposal to continue the emergency gasoline tax.

Mr. HESS. There is no bill before the House that in any way connects the maintenance of these roads during the last year of the biennium with that tax. There is a bill before the House providing for an appropriation of three million dollars for township reward roads, and five million dollars for State-aid roads that has been discussed very generally in connection with the proposition that the gentleman from Forest has referred to.

Mr. STERLING. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Lancaster.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Lancaster permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HESS. I will, Mr. Speaker,

Mr. STERLING. Will the gentleman from Lancaster tell this House definitely that the road program as proposed by this measure will not in any wise depend for its accomplishment upon any revenue that may be raised by the extending of the one cent emergency gasoline tax beyond the time that is now provided by law?

Mr. HESS. It is not necessarily depending upon the proposition stated by the gentleman from Philadelphia.

Mr. STERLING. Mr. Speaker, I desire to further interrogate the gentleman from Lancaster. Will the gentleman from Lancaster say to this House that this road program can be accomplished without the use of any additional moneys that may be raised through the extension of the one cent emergency gasoline tax?

Mr. HESS. It surely can be. Only one year's maintenace will be encumbent upon the State and there are ample other sources of revenue that can be used for the purpose so there surely can be.

Mr. STERLING. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I have no feeling against this measure, but as I see the proposition I feel it my duty to call the attention of this House and more particularly the attention of my collagues from Philadelphia to the fact that we may, by the passage of this bill, since the gentleman from Lancaster has not definitely stated to us that this program can be accomplished without more gasoline revenue, we may, I say, be called upon shortly before this session ends to continue the one cent gasoline emergency tax beyond the period now provided by law. I want to call to the attention of my colleagues from Pholiadelphia that while this House already has been generous to Philadelphia I will not concede that it has been too generous. You must know that Philadelphia contributes a very great portion of the motor license fees to the motor fund, and that Philadelphia also contributes a very great portion of the gasoline tax to the fund. Now then, the proposition as it presents itself to me is this will Philadelphia vote for this measure and be obliged subsequently before the session ends to vote for an extension of the one cent emergency gasoline tax without having some understanding that Philadelphia will receive some support for the maintenance of the greatest highway in the Commonwealth, namely, the Lincoln Highway, as it traverses through the city of Philadelphia. That, gentlemen, is the question that present itself to me. I make no argument for or against this measure but I feel as a Philadelphian that it is my duty to call this question to the attention of my colleagues from Philadelphia.

MOTION TO PLACE BILL ON POSTPONED CALENDAR.

Mr. ARMSTRONG. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I do not agree with the gentleman from Lancaster that additional revenues will not be needed to carry into effect this addtional burden on the Highway Department. I have talked a great deal in the last year with the Secretary of Highways and I am led to believe that it cannot be successfully carried out without additional revenue. Therefore, Mr. Speaker, in order that the gasoline measure may come up with this measure or more nearly with it, I move that this bill be placed on the postponed calendar.

Mr. MATHAY. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,
Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. HESS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I did not mean to consume any time of the House on this measure, but I request that this motion be voted down. The matter of whether or not the State Highway Department shall maintain the Lincoln Highway in Philadelphia is not now before this House. I am sure that if that matter is presented to this House in the form of a bill that it will receive due and careful consideration. As a matter of fact, that proposition has scarcely been suggested to the Committee on Public Roads at any time during the different discussions that were had with reference to what might be done that would be of some relief to the city of Philadelphia. On only one occasion did I hear that proposition even broached.

Now, as to the matter of whether or not additional revenue is necessary, when I explain to the members of this House that it is within the discretion of the Department to use any part of the issue of bonds for the improvement of any highways, any roads in the Commonwealth, it is very readily seen that the money is available for these purposes. Now, it may possibly be and most likely is, in fact I believe it is the opinion of the Department that the gasoline tax of one cent emergency tax should be continued, and there is no doubt that if it is continued that the Department would make wise use of that money, and there is no doubt that if it is continued more work can be done by the Department. As the Secretary of Highways has remarked, when I was present, "the matter of roads is simply a matter of money and the more money you give us the more roads we can build." But that is no reason why this bill should be placed on the postponed calendar and delayed; as a matter of fact, it is highly important that the passage of this bill shall not be delayed. The money is available if the department sets out during the two ensuing years to complete the construction of all roads in the primary system and then, in order to do some of the other things, they will need additional money, that is, additional to the proceeds of the bond issue. If these roads are maintained during the later year of the biennium by the Department I am afraid that the construction of the primary system will be just a little retarded; but the moneys are available for that purpose, but whether or not the continuation of the one cent emergency gasoline tax be later enacted has really no issue whether the pasage of this bill should be continued. And, as I said before, maintenance of these roads will devolve upon the Commonwealth during the latter year of the biennium. The maintenance of these roads during that period will not mean a large expenditure of money. Many of these roads, while not in Philadelphia, are located very close to it, are located in territory quite adjacent to it, and I feel very sure that our friends in Philadelphia will enjoy many of these roads when improved and receive quite as much enjoyment and benefit from them as residents of other portions of the State. I feel further that the members of this House are disposed to be entirely fair and will give fair consideration to any proposition in which Philadelphia is interested; and I ask you to vote down this motion.

Mr. ARMSTRONG. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I want it distinctly understood that I am wholehearted for this measure. Two years ago I worked for several weeks on bill No. 12, a similar bill, and the Governor vetoed it for the very reason that I stated to you, that it was a burden on the Highway Department, that they should not carry. If the gentleman from Lancaster can assure me beyond question that moneys appropriated for primary roads can be used for maintenance of dirt roads then I will withdraw my motion, otherwise I must insist that the measure providing funds for the upkeep of these roads shall come along with this measure. I know everybody in this House, the whole membership, know I am for the omnibus bill, and always have been, but if you pass this bill and then kill the other bill that will necessitate a killing beyond this House. I am trying to get them both through and then we will have the omnibus bill.

Mr. HESS. My explanation with reference to the funds being available was that the proceeds of the sale of bonds is available for the improvement of any highway and that the Department can, in their discretion, use moneys secured in that manner for the maintenance of these roads if they so finally need the use of that money.

The gentleman from Armstrong has just stated that Bill No. 12 of two years ago was vetoed, and the very fact that it was vetoed back in 1923 should appeal to you not to postpone consideration of this bill at this time.

The SPEAKER. Does the gentleman from Armtsrong insist upon his motion to postpone?

Mr. ARMSTRONG. I will be glad to hear from some one on the floor first.

Mr. WHEELER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the gentleman from Lancaster has made a statement which, if he will allow me to say so, should be further cleared up. He said that it is his understanding that the bond issue money could be used to carry the full expense of this bill. Now, the bond issue money, as far as I can understand the situation may be used for certain kinds of work, namely, permanent improvements and possibly for things that are now regarded as maintenance; in other words, suppose you are now building, if any such are included in this bill, in that case the resurfacing and maintenance charges may be taken out of the bond issue money, but as to the hundred miles of dirt roads in this bill, there is no assurance that the bond issue money may be used for such purposes. Now, with respect to the so-called emergency gasoline tax of one cent. I think the members of the House should remember thoroughly that this omnibus measure was delayed a certain length of time in order that it might be considered in connection not only—not solely in connection with the gas tax, but in addition to the omnibus bill, another bill carrying money for State aid and township reward might also be considered; in other words, we have a comprehensive program which, if split up and acted upon separately, may mean financial embarrassment to the Department and nothing but an empty gesture from the point of view of the members of the House who desire to see more improved highways in this State.

Mr. EDMONDS. May I ask a question from either the gentleman from Lancaster or the gentleman from Forest, because I want to get the information from whichever one has it most accurately. In Pennsylvania, have we ever spent the proceeds of a bond issue for maintenance?

Mr. HESS. I think not.

Mr. EDMONDS. As I understand the gentleman from Lancaster, they may now spend the proceeds of the bond issue, authorized at this session for maintenance.

Mr. HESS. Under a ruling of the Attorney General, it can be done. It has not been done in the past. I will say further that by the time of the adjournment of this session, I doubt if it need be done.

Mr. EDMONDS. May I ask the gentleman from Lancaster, would he not call it very poor business for the Commonwealth to raise money by bond issues, and then to use any of that money for maintenance?

Mr. HESS. It is not necessary to do that. We have the motor license fund which can be drawn on for the maintenance of these roads during the one year of the biennium. My reference to the bond money was simply to illustrate that there was more than one possible source from which moneys could be had for this purpose. In all probability, the Department will use moneys from the Motor License Fund, not from the bond issue, even though they can at their discretion, if they see fit.

Mr. GOODNOUGH. I desire to interrogate the sponsor of the bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Lancaster permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HESS. I will, Mr. Speaker, but I am not the sponsor of the bill.

Mr. GOODNOUGH. Well, the Chairman of the Roads Committee. Do I understand you to say that there is a bill pending before the House, proposing to charge the Motor License Fund with five millions of dollars for State aid and three millions of dollars for township rewards?

Mr. HESS. I did.

Mr. GOODNOUGH. Making eight million dollars in the total?:

Mr. HESS. You are right.

Mr. GOODNOUGH. Is it a fact that the Motor License Fund is already charged with the interest and sinking fund upon the bonds issued for improvement of the roads?

Mr. HESS. It is.

Mr. GOODNOUGH. Will you tell us how much that interest and sinking fund amounts to?

Mr. HESS. Somewhere around six million dollars.

Mr. GOODNOUGH. Making fourteen million dollars in all, assuming that this bill became a law?

Mr. HESS. Yes, sir.

Mr. GOODNOUGH. Will you tell us how much the Motor License Fund may reasonably be expected to amount to and can you tell us how much it amounted to in the previous biennium?

Mr. HESS. About forty-four million dollars; twenty-two million dollars a year.

Mr. GOODNOUGH. With that fourteen million dollars taken from it, that would leave a balance for the maintenance of dirt roads?

Mr. RHODES. Yes, sir; the maintenance of these roads during the last year of the biennium, I should say would be less than a half million dollars.

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. PERRY. Mr. Speaker, we had a motion before this House whether this bill should be postponed or not. This discussion is entirely out of order. When the original bill comes up, let us have the discussion. The members sitting here are very tired, and want to get through.

The SPEAKER. The point of order is well taken. The motion to postpone is not debatable. The question before the House is on the motion of the gentleman from Armstrong that this bill be placed on the postponed calendar.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was not agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. STERLING. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. STERLING. Mr. Speaker, the Committee on Ways and Means, for the purpose of having a public hearing on the Manufacturer's Tax and the Anthracite Coal Tax Repealer, secured the Senate Caucus Room for that purpose. I have just been advised that the Senate Caucus Room is now being used by a committee of the Senate, and for that reason I would ask, with the approval of the House, that the use of the hall of the House be granted to the Ways and Means Committee at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon.

The SPEAKER. Is there any objection to this permission being granted? The Chair hears none and such permission is granted to the Ways and Means Committee.

RECESS.

The SPEAKER. If there is no objection the Chair will declare a recess until 4:30 o'clock this afternoon. Is there any objection? The Chair hears none.

Whereupon at (2:05 o'clock P. M.) the House took a recess until 4:30 o'clock P. M.

AFTER RECESS.

The House reconvened at 4:30 o'clock P. M.

SPEAKER BLUETT IN THE CHAIR.

The SPEAKER. We will now resume Bills on Final Passage postponed and bills on third reading postponed.

BILLS ON THIRD READING.

Mr. LYNCH. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time House Bill No. 280 file folio 3119 on page 27 of to-day's calendar, bills on third reading postponed.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. Lynch,

The House resumed the consideration on third reading of House Bill No. 280, entitled:

An Act continuing the commission to make an investigation of the condition of disabled World War veterans of Pennsylvania and making an appropriation

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. LYNCH. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk for information.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend title last line by inserting after the word "sylvania" the following: "providing for apppointments of members on said commission and the powers and duties of the commission"

Amend sec. 1, page 1, line 12 by adding after the word "commission" at the end of the section the following: "The commission shall continue to be composed of five citizens, but three of them shall be members of the General Assembly. The Governor shall make the appointments of the members of said commission as soon as may be after the approval of this act"

Amend sec. 2, pages 1, 2 and 3 by striking out all of said section and inserting in lieu thereof "It shall be the duty of the Disabled Veterans Commission to make an investigation of the condition of any former soldiers, sailors, marines or nurses who were wounded or disabled in the World War, and to provide for the furnishing of assistance to any such soldiers, sailors, marines or nurses in prosecuting any claims which they may have for assistance under the laws of the United States

Amend sec. 3, page 3, line 6 by inserting after the word "postage" the following: "for traveling and hotel expenses of the members of the commission, for furnishing assistance to disabled soldiers, sailors, marines and nurses"

Amend sec. 3, page 3, lines 6, 7 and 8 by striking out the words "and for the transportation and subsistence and fees of disabled soldiers, sailors and marines and nurses of the World War"

Amend sec. 3, page 3, line 11, by striking out beginning with the words "the State Treasurer" all of the remaining part of said section.

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the insertion of the amendments at this time? Is there any objection? The Chair hears none, and the amendments will be inserted in accordance with the instructions of the House.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended lie over for printing.

Ordered, that the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed it without amendment.

Mr. RHODES. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time, on page 28 of to-day's calendar, House Bill No 806, file folio 3207.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. RHODES

The House resumed the consideration on third reading of House Bill No. 806, entitled:

An Act to amend sections thirteen and fourteen of an act approved the fourteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and fifteen (Pamphlet Laws four hundred and eighty-three) entitled "An act relating to practice in the courts of common pleas in actions of assumpsit and trespass except actions for libel and slander prescribing the pleadings and precedure to be observed therein and giving the courts power to enforce its provisions" by permitting defendants in actions of trespass to set up county-claims arising out of the same transaction as that sued on by the plaintiff and declaring the effect of averments contained in such counterclaim

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Monroe, Mr. Rhodes, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. RHODES. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Is it not so, at the present time under all actions of trespass or assumpsit, the defense of setoff is interposed in the affidavit of defense?

Mr. RHODES. Not in actions of trespass.

Mr. ALEXANDER. I change my question, I mean in actions of assumpsit?

Mr. RHODES. That is correct.

Mr. ALEXANDER. In cases of trespass, what is usually known as trespass on the case or trespass vi et armis, there never has been an affidavit of defense by reason of an affidavit of defense has there?

Mr. RHODES. It is permissible to file an affidavit of defense but it is not required under the practice act.

Mr. ALEXANDER. It is not required excepting in cases where the defendant denied the ownership of the vehicle or the power which is being used.

Mr. RHODES. That is correct.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Your idea is, as I understand this proceeding, that if two automobiles collided at an intersection, one going south and the other west or the reverse,—I am only giving you that as an example—and the one man sues the second man, he may by an affidavit of defense interpose: try this case at the same time as the plaintiff who has started the suit?

Mr. RHODES. That is correct, it eliminates cross actions.

Mr. ALEXANDER. But it does put the man starting the suit at a disadvantage, does it not?

Mr. RHODES. Not in my opinion, no.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Who would have in their pleading under the rules of motion courts, who would have the opening and closing?

Mr. RHODES. Mr. Speaker, I think the gentleman from Delaware knows enough about that not to require any answer from me.

Mr. ALEXANDER. I am asking for the information of the House; all of them are not members of the bar, and I am asking this for the information of the House; who would have the opening and closing?

Mr. RHODES. I might say, for the information of the House, that the plaintiff would have the opening and closing, and the defendant would precede the closing of the attorney for the plaintiff but I do not see that it makes any difference in this particular case. I cannot quite see the logic of the gentleman from Delaware.

Mr. ALEXANDER. It has been the policy of the pleading every since the old English pleadings on account of the affidavit of defense in actions of trespass which we used to know as trespass on the case or trespass vi et armis. Each plaintiff brings his action. I can see in this matter where it might, in some instances, save the time of both the litigants and the courts; I can see on the other hand where a great injury might be done to one or the other of the litigants. Just for instance: I bring a suit for "A", we will say, against "B", "A" being the plaintiff, and under the rules of practice the burden of proving his case being on the plaintiff, he has the right to open and close to the jury, and no man knows better than the gentleman from Monroe what a great benefit it is to the plaintiff to have the last crack at that jury. He has the opening and the closing and it is one of the greatest advantages that any plaintiff or litigant in any court can have. So, therefore, we have the case where the injury happened by reason of a collision at the cross roads. One man rushes into court and brings his case first. The other man, therefore, by his affidavit of defense becomes the defendant and his attorney, when he comesbefore the court, has but one case and his defense is that of a setoff because he is also injured. That is one disadvantage of this case and there are other disadvantages. It seems to me, however, this disadvantage is worse than the others. We have, for instance, the case of a man traveling south on a road and another man traveling west on the same road. The man traveling south under the laws of this Commonwealth has the right of way, and is in a better position in his suit than the man coming west. Both parties are injured, and it is absolutely true that the man traveling in the opposite direction caused the injury; and yet both suits being tried together, the man who has the original suit, we will say, is injured to the extent of four or five hundred dollars, and the defendant in the case who has just as good a suit and perhaps a better claim and is also injured by reason of the accident to the extent of four or five hundred dollars. Here is what juries will do time in and time out, and many times injustices are done especially in criminal suits which will happen this way where we have cross suits. There are no dollars and cents to be computed in this as in an assumpsit case. In other words, a man brings an assumpsit suit and files his statement of claim and sets out item after item and the defendant when he puts in his counter claim sets out his items one after the other. But not so in a negligence case; he proves certain damage; the cause of the accident and then rests and the defendant then puts the same thing in. Here we have two men both injured about the same. These juries are too apt to say that inasmuch as both are injured about the same let each one pay his own damage, and yet the person who is the defendant in the case may have acted without any negligence whatever and the other man who is the plaintiff was negligent, and that is what will happen when we try these cases together under this act. It does not seem to me to be a proper act in which justice may be done to all parties.

Mr. RHODES. Mr. Speaker, the argument of the gentleman from Delaware assumes that a jury cannot decide fairly an issue after having heard all the evidence and testimony. His argument that there is some advantage in having the closing speech to a jury, in my opinion, is without merit. Long speeches, I believe, whether closing or opening, have never convinced very many juries on actions of this kind. The purpose of this act, and I want to say to you at this time that this act has been recommended by the Pennsylvania State Bar Association is to expedite litigation in all its different phases arising out of one particular transaction, so that there will not be two suits started from the same set of facts. At the present time an accident may happen and you have cross suits, which mean that you are taking up the time of the court in trying two cases involving the same set of facts, and there is no especial reason why a jury cannot come to some conclusion when they hear the evidence in the case, and decide whether or not the defendant or the plaintiff is to blame and which one should pay for the damage that has been incurred. Besides that, it saves the time of the court; it eliminates the multiplicity of suits; it saves the time of the litigants, and brings the law into conformity with the existing law on actions in assumpsit. If a jury is qualified to pass upon the facts in an assumpsit case and decide whether or not the plaintiff or defendant should pay, there is no reason why a jury should not decide under the proposed act as to whether the plaintiff or defendant is to blame.

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Mr. MANGAN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time House Bill No. 584, file folio 4087, on page 31 of today's calendar, bills on third reading postponed.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. MANGAN,

The House resumed the consideration on third reading of House Bill No. 584, entitled:

An Act to regulate and determine what weight shall make a ton in all transactions in this Commonwealth and to impose penalties for short weight

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. MANGAN. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk for information.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend title, line 1, by adding after the word "weight" the words "of coal".

Amend section 2, line 14, by adding after the word "dollars" the following words: "for each and every offense". Also amend on line 15, by adding after the word "Commonwealth" the following words: "providing, however, that a tolerance of forty pounds per ton shall be allowed".

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the insertion of the amendments at this time? Is there any objection? The Chair hears none, and the amendments will be inserted in accordance with the instructions of the House.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended lie over for printing.

Mr. McKIM. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time House Bill No. 1407, (Senate Bill No. 363) file folio 2151, on page 32 of today's calendar, bills on third reading postponed.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. McKIM

The House resumed the consideration on third reading of House Bill No. 1407, (Senate Bill No. 363), entitled:

An Act to amend an act approved the eighteenth day of July one thousand nine hundred and seventeen (Pamphlet Laws one thousand and forty-three) entitled "An act establishing a public school employes' retirement system and creating a retirement board for the administration thereof establishing certain funds from contributions by the Commonwealth and contributing employes defining the uses and purposes thereof and the manner of payments therefrom and providing for the guaranty by the Commonwealth of certain of said funds imposing powers and duties upon boards having the employment of public school employes exempting annuities allowances returns benefits and rights from taxation and judicial process and providing penalties" by giving employes certain additional service credit changing the rules relating to the State annuity and the contribution of employes and extending the provisions of this act to persons on the retired list after a certain date

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from Allegheny to explain this bill.

Mr. McKIM. Mr. Speaker, and members of the House, this bill now under consideration, Senate Bill No. 363, is an amendment to the Act of 1917, known as the School Teacher's Retirement Act. The amendments change the act in three parts. First it provides that time be allowed to a teacher who was a member of the American Expedition Forces in the World War or in activities connected therewith and approved by the retirement board. It also excepts from the provisions of the act, on page 7 of the act, file 2157, all members of the retirement board prior to the age of sixty-two years. In other words, it permits members of the teacher's board to be a party to the retirement fund even after they have passed the age of sixty-two years provided they are still employed as teachers. Another amendment is to cut out of the act the maximum of $2,000. upon which the computation of the amount due teachers is based. I might say that this elimination of $2,000. is fair on the judgment of the speaker. This matter was considered by the Education Committee of the Senate, approved by the Senate; it was considered by the Education Committee of the House, and met with their approval, and it is here before you now for your approval. In the justice of the man or woman following the teachers profession who is receiving more than $2,000., should be limited after they are retired under this act to a maximum of $2,000. when as a matter of fact they may have been teaching for some years at a salary in excess of that amount. This is only in fairness to the teacher who has been receiving this amount of money who presumably was earning a greater sum of money than $2,000., and the extra expenses following, or which would acrue by reason of this increase in the retirement fund because of this change in the act would be neglegible. As to the elimination of the sixty-two year age period I can say that there is nothing inequitable in that. If the teacher teaches beyond sixty-two years and at that time she is still or he is still paying the pro rata share that they are compelled to pay to the retirement fund they do not get credit. As to allowing time to a teacher who was connected with the World War in any of its activities, I think that is only fair and just. I cannot see that this bill is inequitable in any way. It is very fair. It is not going to in any way interfere with the administration of this retirement fund. The amount added is neglegible and I would ask the House to vote in favor of this bill.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to further interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny. Does the gentleman know how this retirement fund is made up at the present time?

Mr. McKIM. I know that the retirement fund is made up on a basis in which the State pays a portion, the school district pays a portion and teacher pays a portion. The teacher pays one-half, the State one quarter, and the municipality or the school district one quarter.

Mr. ALEXANDER. What part of the retirement fund does that payment refer to? Is it the gentleman's understanding that these payments relate to the retirement fund?

Mr. McKIM. After a certain time it is to be paid by the teachers under this scheme that I have just mentioned.

Mr. ALEXANDER. After what time?

Mr. McKIM. The time prior to that has been taken care of in another way.

Mr. ALEXANDER. What other way? In the first place after a certain time, what is that time, what is that date?

Mr. McKIM. I think it is 1919.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Before that time has passed, with reference to what is known as passed service or contingent fund number two how is that taken care of?

Mr. McKIM. That is taken care of on a fifty fifty basis by the State and local district.

Mr. ALEXANDER. I desire to ask that the gentleman sitting and prompting Mr. McKim, who is one of the gentleman lobbying in the interests of the retirement fund be removed from the floor of the House.

Mr. McKIM. This bill did not originate with this House, it is a Senate Bill. I am not the sponsor of the bill, but I am attempting to answer the questions as best I can and with what other fair and reasonable information I am getting from parties who know, I think it is nothing but fair that this House should hear it and consider it for what it is worth.

Mr. ALEXANDER. I again ask, if the Speaker please, that the lobbyist who has been lobbying for this bill be removed from the floor of the House to the side lines.

The SPEAKER. Is the gentleman a lobbyist, or is he connected with the Department of Public Instruction?

Mr. McKIM. He is connected with the Department of Public Instruction, and he has a legitimate right to be here.

The SPEAKER. The gentlemen will proceed.

Mr. ALEXANDER. I ask you again then what proportion I won't bother the gentleman any further.

Mr. McKIM. I did answer the gentleman's question.

Mr. ALEXANDER. I know you can with the gentlemen along side of you, I know that.

Mr. McKIM. I understood that the gentleman wanted information, and I have been trying to give it to him no matter from what source.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, of course I recognize the fact that sometimes we spend our money lavishly, and sometimes we spend other people's money lavishly and more lavishly than we spend our own. I have but one interest in this matter. I think will the fight and the trouble we have been having over this retirement fund and over the educational proposition in our general appropriation bill, I should think we would be more interested in knowing something about the retirement fund proposition than simply voting yes or no on the bill. If, however, there is no information necessary I would be glad to keep my seat and vote with the knowledge I have of it. I was told and you were told by the gentleman from Allegheny that after a careful consideration by the Education Committee in the Senate they were satisfied with it, and after a careful consideration by the Education Committee of the House they were satisfied with it, and I wanted to show just how much the gentleman knew about it. I don't think there are many in the Educational Committee who have gone to the trouble of examining just how this retirement fund is made up, and it shows when he had to have the gentleman who has been lobbying for this bill sitting along side of him and prompting him that he don't know very much about it himself.

Now, let us see where we are going to get to with this bill. In the first place this was what was known as the Ramsey Bill of 1917. It was sponsored by my colleague at that time from Delaware County. It proposed that before a certain period which was, as has been stated, 1919, in order to bring this fund to what they called an actuarial basis, or the peak as the actuary calls it, it required certain funds to be paid into that fund. It also required that every five years a survey should be made of that fund to ascertain what was necessary to be paid into it. That fund which is known as Contingent Fund No. 2, the teacher has no payment in it whatever, that was known as the accrued service of which the school district and the State pays one-half. Now, then, we have been wondering every year, the members of this House, and I have heard them wonder time and time again why it is that that retirement fund should take anywhere from two to four or five million dollars every year for the purpose of keeping it going. If you were over yesterday in the Senate Chamber that question was asked time and time again by the Appropriation Committee. They didn't question there to see how that was made up. At the beginning it was the understanding and the intention of the teachers and everybody else when this was enacted that no teacher should receive more than $1,000 annually out of this fund. This bill raises that now from $1,000.00 to $4,500.00. That is one of the things that it does. Another thing you will see it does, and as many of you know who were interested in the schools of Pennsylvania during war times that the teacher who was receiving $100 a month and found that they were making two or three hundred dollars in the ammunition plants somewhere else deserted the schools and went into the ammunition plant in order to make that money. Now they want to come back here, after coming back into the school at a lower rate, while the other teachers who were working during all that time for the school system, not neglecting their duty, because it was just as patriotic for those teachers to go to those schools and teaching in those schools, along the lines which they had adopted, and leave other people take their place in the ammunition plants. Of course, if they wanted to leave it, that was their pleasure, but it is not right that they should come up now and load this retirement fund again by reason of having them permitted to take part of this retirement fund. There is no reason why we should load up this retirement fund just to accommodate them. Now these actuaries have made surveys within the last month and they have found, just listen to this, and you will know by your appropriation bill for school requirement is so much every year, and why it is so difficult to follow it. The actuaries have found that in order to bring that fund to its peak it requires $45,000,000. $7,000.000 has been paid in, and it requires the State and the districts in order to bring that even now to its peak to pay $38,000,000 more, or $19,000,000 by the State and $19,000,000 for the district. Some little sum of money. If these changes are made, and this is not the only change, there are three or four more coming along of the same kind loading this retirement fund and I am told by men who know that this means—I might say further that at the figure of $4,000,000 a year it will take eighteen years and mind you, when I say $38,000,000 that is money it would take that means that $38,000,000 has to be put in cash into that fund at sometime over a term of years. The longer that is spread over a term of years the more money it is going to cost and therefore if it is spread over eighteen years it is going to cost the State $4,000,000 for the eighteen years. Now then, loading it up, or raising it rather from $1,000 a year to $4,000 a year, where are you going to get after awhile with your retirement fund? Now is not the time to load up this fund for any purpose. It was wrong from its inception. There should have been a different means of raising this fund, and we should do it on a proper actuarial basis. I might just say at the present time that the Act of 1917 provided this system, and we are bound by it, but we are not bound, I don't think, to add any other extra load to it. I don't know, if we keep on with this pace, just where under the sun we are going to get to. As Congressman Hess of Ohio, said some time ago, it won't be very long, if we keep on until we get to the place where four-fifths of the people will be working for the government. Just where are we ever going to stop. We as the custodians and the watchmen of this fund for the people and constituency of Pennsylvania, we must stop, look and listen somewheres; there is danger along this road somewhere, and I am sure that the danger spot is being reached right here at the present time and it seems to me that we had better whistle down brakes before we go much farther.

Mr. SOWERS. I am going to advocate and ask you to vote no on this bill. I think we have reached the point where we ought to stop. I think we should take a new motto, and that motto should be, "Pensions for all or pensions for none". We are reaching the point where everybody is working for a pension for everybody else, and not for a pension for himself. Now here comes a school teacher making five or six thousand dollars a year, and wants to get in on a pension. Don't they make enough? Here are school teachers limited to two thousand dollars a year, possibly fifty thousand who have accumulated a fund, they have got that fund together and along come these aristocratic teachers and superintendents with their four and five and six thousand dollars salary and they want to get in on the fund that the poor teachers made up. I think it is time for us to stop. I ask you to vote no on the bill.

Mr. STADTLANDER. I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentle from Philadelphia, Mr Sowers permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SOWERS. Certainly, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. STADTLANDER. Did the gentleman vote for the judge's pension bill at the time it was before the House?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr Speaker, yes, I voted for the Judge's pension bill, but I am beginning to see the true light. I am going to change my mind and admit that hereafter I want to stand for pensions for all or pensions for none.

Mr. BLUMBERG. May I interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia Mr. Sowers, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SOWERS. Certainly, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. BLUMBERG. Does the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers, know how many teachers in Pennsylvania are getting less than $2,000 per annum?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House in answer to my friend, I don't have the accurate information to answer my friend, but I am absolutely satisfied in my own heart from what I have heard here this session that we are going crazy on education, not to educate, but to pay.

Mr. BLUMBERG. The gentleman referred to teachers getting a salary of five and six thousand dollars a year. Does the gentleman know how many teachers in Pennsylvania are getting a salary in excess of $5,000.

Mr. SOWERS. I cannot accurately answer your question.

Mr. BLUMBERG. Mr. Speaker, ladies and gentlemen of the House, the purpose of my investigation, or my interrogation, was that the House be not misled when statements are made that teachers are getting salaries of five or six thousand dollars a year. I have had no opportunity of getting actual statistics but I have statistics from the Department of Public Instruction which show that of 45,597 teachers in Pennsylvania, the medium salary is $1172.00 per year, that there are 5,482 teachers who get a salary of between two thousand and twenty-five hundred dollars that there are only two in Pennsylvania who get a salary above $5,000 and that there are only two in Pennsylvania who get a salary above $9,000, to wit; the Superintendent in Philadelphia and in Allegheny counties. So do not be misled by statements as to teachers high salaries. Now this act does not create a teachers pension fund. The law creating the retirement fund for teachers is already on the books. This is an amendment to that law and covers three features. First it would be giving teachers above the age of sixty two years credit for service after they have reached the age of sixty two years. In other words a teacher might teach until she or he is seventy years old. Now this act says that they ought to get credit for those years after they reach sixty-two. Now, what could be fairer than that? Ought not they get credit. Today before a teacher is entitled to participate in the retirement fund the teacher must have spent forty years in teaching. In a great many cases those forty years have not elapsed before the time a teacher has reached sixty-two. In Philadelphia, a great many of our school teachers get in after they are twenty-two years of age so that they would not be entitled to credit for the years spent after they have arrived at the age of sixty-two. This bill attempts to remove that. That is one feature of the amendment.

The second feature is that it will give to a teacher who participated in the war credit for that service. That is in line with the policy of the state. We have done it so far as the doctors, lawyers, physicians and dentists are concerned, we have given them credit for the time spent in actual service.

The third, and to my mind the question that seems to agitate our friend from Delaware is the raising of the limit above $2,000. So that you may understand it I just want to take a few minutes of your time. Under the present law no teacher can participate in the retirement fund above the salary of $2,000. Now, that means in as much as they can only receive one half of their salary that a teacher at the present time can never receive retirement benefit of more than $1,000. If a teacher is earning $5,000 the teacher is entitled to participate in the fund only up to the $2,000 limit and is then on an equal footing with the other teachers. This attempts to remedy that situation. The number of teachers who receive salaries in excess of $4,000 is not great and one half of that is $2,000 the retirement fund limit. Mr. Alexander seems to be confused on that slightly. As I pointed out in Pennsylvania there are only fifty-two who receive salaries over $5,000 and there are only two in excess of $9,000. Mention was made of the survey of the actuary and that this might have some affect in upsetting you. I have here a statement made by Mr. Buck who was the State actuary, who made the investigation on behalf of the State. I have that before me, and it says this: "Mr. Buck the actuary submits the following statement in regard to the removal of the $2,000 limitation. The removal of the limit is in line with the trend of modern retirement legislation." Then he goes on and recites some experiments, and he says, "The Pennsylvania Act as originally drafted did not provide a limit on the salaries of those who were permitted to participate nor on the salary of those who were compelled to join as a condition of their employment."

In fairness to the proponents of this answer and I have no personal interest in it, I want to answer the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Alexander's objection to what he refers to as contingent fund No. 2. He mentioned that that fund was $45,000,000 of which $7,000,000 had been paid in, leaving a balance of $38, 000,000 for which the State stands committed for one half or $19,000,000. Now, if this amendment is passed to wit; raising the limit above $2,000 that would increase, I am told, and basing it on the estimate of the actuaries of three per cent it amounts in twenty-five years to an increase of $1,000,000. or slightly in excess of $1,000,000, of which the State must pay half, or half a million dollars. So that the entire matter comes down to half a million dollars which the State must undertake to pay, not now, but at the end of twenty-five years, or twenty-six years from now. Now this problem is an attempt to make equitable the provisions of this act, to make it applicable to all teachers no matter what their salaries are. Bear in in mind that the great bulk of teachers receive salaries under $2,500. that for the 45,000 the minimum or mean is $1,172. Now this bill has the support of the Department of Public Instruction, it has the support of the Retirement Board, it has the support of the Pennsylvania State Education Association and the provisions of this identical bill are found in many states surrounding us. Remember also that in this increase the State pays but one-half, the teacher pays one-quarter and the local district pays one-quarter. This bill seems to me eminently fair. It is in line with modern trend of pension legislation, and has the endorsement of the State Actuary, it has the endorsement of all state educational associations, and under all those considerations, it seems to me the only thing we can do is to pass it.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Blumberg.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Blumberg permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. ALEXANDER. Can the gentleman from Philadelphia tell me what the increase in teachers salaries has been in the last five years in Pennsylvania?

Mr. BLUMBERG. I don't know. Perhaps the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Edmonds, can reply to you.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Of course, you know that the payrolls at the present time are being increased according to the demands made annually.

Mr. BLUMBERG. Yes sir.

Mr. ALEXANDER. So those salaries you have quoted in the next ten years will be very much higher than what they are at the present time.

Mr. BLUMBERG. They may or may not be.

Mr. ALEXANDER. You have quoted the retirement fund, have you seen any members of the retirement board personally? Mr. BLUMBERG. No, I have not. This information I happended to get from people whose word was unquestioned, and word was sent out by the Pennsylvania State Educational Association, and I have no doubt that that is accurate.

Mr. ALEXANDER. You would not doubt it if I told you that a member of the retirement board said that they were not advocating this, that they were taking no part in it whatever, were not interested in it, would you?

Mr. BLUMBERG. I would not doubt the word of the gentleman from Delaware.

Mr. ALEXANDER. The Mr. Buck that you spoke of is the gentleman sitting in the audience at the present time and who was lobbying on this bill?

Mr. BLUMBERG. I didn't mention Mr. Buck; I don't know the gentleman.

Mr. ALEXANDER. You read an article in which you mentioned Mr. Buck's name.

Mr. BLUMBERG. I stated the State Actuary, I have never spoken to the gentleman. That information is contained in the pamphlet sent throughout the State by the Pennsylvania State Educational Association.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL RECOMMITTED.

Mr. FRED. A. BELL. Mr. Speaker, I move that House Bill No. 1447, entitled:

An Act declaring it a misdemeanor to stipulate for or receive or consent or agree to receive fees commissions gifts or things of value for procuring or endeavoring to procure loans or the purchase or discount of negotiable paper or other evidence of debt and providing penalties for violation of this act on page 9 of today's calendar be recommitted to the Committee on Judiciary Special for a hearing.

Mr. STADTLANDER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

TIME EXTENDED ON APPROPRIATION BILLS.

Mr. MARCUS. Mr. Speaker, I move that the time on all appropriation bills on the postponed calendar be extended for a further period of five legislative days.

Mr. LUDLOW. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON THIRD READING.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time House Bill No. 1421, (Senate Bill No. 565) file folio 2213, on page 32 of today's calendar

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. Alexander.

The House resumed the consideration on third reading of House Bill No. 1421, (Senate Bill No. 565), entitled:

An Act authorizing and empowering the Department of Welfare to sell surplus products of prison industries to the Government of the United States including all departments bureaus commissions and other agencies thereof existing under acts of the Congress of the United States and to the Government of any state or Commonwealth of the United States and to any county city borough township or other organized subdivision of any state or commonwealth of the United States And to any institution maintained by or receiving aid from any State or Commonwealth of the United States or any organized sub-division thereof

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this was one of the bills which last evening I moved to place on the postponed calendar. I was under the impression at that time that it was one of the special fund bills. I find, however, that it is not. In other words, the penitentiaries are doing now practically what they are authorized to do here with the exception that they have not had the power to sell to the government, and its institutions, and this extends that power. Therefore, I call it up for your vote.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

NAYS—2.

Donnell, Himes,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed it without amendment.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. HENRY A. MILLER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. HENRY A. MILLER. Mr. Speaker, in the Journal under date of March 16, page 1558, on the motion to place House Bill No. 655, on the calendar, when the roll was called I voted "aye," and I would like to be so recorded.

The SPEAKER. The remarks of the gentleman will be spread upon the Journal.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. EARLEY. Mr. Speaker I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. EARLEY. Mr. Speaker, I want to announce to the members of the House that on next Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock the great golf game will take place at the Harrisburg Country Club. Four or five or six of us are going to try to put up one of the best fights we can against the Senate. We are up against a big proposition because they have professionals over there, but we are going to try to put up a good fight. I don't know whether the Speaker wishes that some of the members up there or not, but I was supposed to make the announcement that the game will take place next Tuesday afternoon.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER.

The SPEAKER. The Chair wishes to announce at this time that it is necessary to have a session tomorrow and he advises that everyone be in his or her seat as matters of importance may be considered.

BILLS ON FIRST READING.

The SPEAKER. If there is no objection, the Chair will take up at this time bills on first reading, on page 32 of today's calendar. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA

Legislative Journal.

Session 1925 — 126th of the General Assembly

Vol. 8. HARRISBURG, PA., THURSDAY, APRIL 2, 1925. No. 33.

SENATE

THURSDAY, April 2nd, 1925.

The Senate met at 10:30 o'clock A. M.

The PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE (Mr. John G. Homsher) in the Chair.

PRAYER.

The Acting Chaplain, Rev. George P. Donehoo, offered the following prayer:

Most gracious Father, we think Thee this morning for the light and sunshine of another day. Grant that we all may walk in the sunshine of Thy presence and that we may have Thy blessing upon us in everything that we do. Help us what ever may be our position and to realize that finally we must all appear before the great Judge to answer for what we have done. Let us then do everything in Thy presence with the consciousness of doing that which is right and unafraid of doing the things which are right. Bless this Senate, its presiding officers and all who are here and guide us this day and always. We ask in Christ's name. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED.

The PRESIDENT—A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. LESLIE, the further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE.

NAYS—1.

Krause,

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return said bill to the House of Representatives with information that the Senate has passed the same with amendments in which the concurrence of the House is requested.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. PATTON. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Patton, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. PATTON. Mr. President, in voting "aye" on this bill I desire to state my reason:

In voting aye on the final passage of this bill I do so only for the purpose of expediting the business of the Legislature. The amount of appropriations in bills now in the hands of the Governor together with the undisputed bills still pending will to my mind offer an experience of nearly a half century in financial legislation be in excess of any probable income for the biennium and I must place on record my belief that the Legislature should revise the action of the Senate in loading this bill with such drastic increases.

BILLS ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 97, entitled:

An Act providing for the establishing and maintenance of a State institution for the care and treatment of indigent children and others afflicted with surgical tuberculosis and allied conditions and making an appropriation

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

Section 20 [Every motor vehicle on the public highway shall from one hour after sunset until one hour before sunrise show at least two lights of approximately equal power on the front of such vehicle that shall be clearly visible from a distance of at least two hundred (200) feet Provided That motor-cycles to which no side car is attached need display only one such light but no brilliant light shall be displayed on any motor vehicle standing on the left-hand side of the highway And [further provided That the council of any city or borough or the commissioners or supervisors of any township may by ordinance establish zones in brightly lighted sections within which motor vehicles may remain standing without lights]

[When any motor vehicle or motor-cycle is in motion on a public highway not so lighted as to render any substantial object clearly discernible at a distance of two hundred (200) feet it shall show a front lamp or lamps furnishing illumination in accordance with the following provisions]

[Motor vehicles shall display lighted front lamps furnishing sufficient illumination to render clearly discernible on a level highway any substantial object two hundred (200) feet directly ahead and any substantial object one hundred (100) feet ahead and seven (7) feet to the right of the axis of such vehicle and this provision shall be deemed to be complied with if the apparent candlepower of the combined beams of the lamps as measured one hundred (100) feet directly ahead of the vehicle on a level surface and at a heigh not less than one-half (½) the distance of the center of the reflector above said level surface is not less than forty-eight hundred (4,800) and if the apparent candlepower as measured one hundred (100) feet ahead of the vehicle and seven (7) feet to the right of the axis thereof at any point not the level of the head lamp is not less than twelve hundred (1,200)]

[Motor-cycles shall display a lighted front lamp or] [front lamps furnishing sufficient illumination to render clearly discernible on a level highway any substantial object one hundred and forty (140) feet directly ahead and any substantial object seventy (70) feet ahead and five (5) feet to the right of the axis of such vehicle and this provision shall be deemed to be complied with if the apparent candlepower of the combined beams of the lamps as measured one hundred (100) feet directly ahead of the vehicle on a level surface and at the height not less than one-half (½) the distance of the center of the reflector above said level surface is not less than twenty-four hundred (2,400) and if the apparent candlepower as measured one hundred (100) feet ahead of the vehicle and seven (7) feet to the right of the axis thereof at any point not above the level of the headlamp is not less than six hundred (600)]

[The lamps of all vehicles shall be so arranged adjusted and operated as to avoid dangerous glare or dazzle and so that no dangerously glaring or dazzling rays from the lamps of any vehicle on a level road can be projected at such an angle above the level as to enter the eyes of approaching drivers or pedestrians and this provision shall be deemed to be complied with if the apparent candlepower of the beam or combined beams of the lamp or lamps as measured one hundred (100) feet ahead of the vehicle on a level surface and five (5) feet above the level surface does not exceed twenty-four hundred (2,400) directly in front of the vehicle and eight hundred (800) at a point seven (7) feet to the left of the axis of the vehicle and at the same height]

[Every motor vehicle including motor-cycles shall also whether standing or in motion display one red light on the rear thereof and if a trailer be attached to such motor vehicle or another motor vehicle being towed so as to obscure such red light then a red light shall be displayed on the rear of such vehicle or such trailer Provided That a motor vehicle while standing upon any public highway may exhibit only a parking light in accordance with the provisions further set forth in this section]

[The registration plate on the rear of every motor vehicle including motor-cycles and trailers shall also be clearly illuminated during the same period except when such vehicle is standing upon any public highway and exhibiting a parking light in accordance with the provisions further set forth in this section]

[All additional or supplemental lights including movable spotlights or searchlights shall fully comply with these restrictions and the rays of light from any such searchlight or spotlight shall at no time extend to the left of the center of the highway]

[Every motor vehicle while standing upon any public highway at such times as lights are required by the provisions of this section for such motor vehicles may in lieu of the lighting equipment specified in this act show one light f at least two (2) candlepower carried on the left side of the car insuch manner as to be visible to the front and rear and so as to show white to the front and red to the rear shall be considered a full compliance with the terms of this clause]

[No red light shall be displayed on the front of any motor vehicle]

[The commissioner may after laboratory test in conformity with standard specifications approve certain devices for controlling the front lights of motor vehicles so that they shall comply with the provisions of this section upon the payment of such fee as he may deem necessary to cover the actual cost of such tests not to exceed the sum of fifty ($50) dollars and may issue a certificate to the applicant describing the device and certifying that such tests have been made and that the device when properly applied complies with the requirements of this act]

[Devices for controlling the front lights on motor vehicles heretofore or hereafter approved by the commissioner in conformity with standard specifications may be used when properly arranged adjusted and operated upon motor vehicles in this Commonwealth while such certificates of approval are in force Any such certificate however heretofore or hereafter issued may be revoked by the commissioner after a hearing of which the person or corporation named therein or his or its successor in interest shall be given reasonable notice or opportunity to hear or be heard upon the grounds that the device does not comply with the provisions of standard specifications as provided for in this section and the decision of the commissioner revoking such certificate shall be final However revocation of certificates of approval of device for controlling front lights on motor vehicles heretofore or hereafter approved shall not take effect until three (3) months after decision of the commissioner revoking same]

[Motor vehicles equipped with acetylene headlights shall be deemed to have complied with the provisions of this section when such headlights are fitted with clear plain front glass and a standard acetylene burner]

Every motor vehicle on the public highways shall during the period from one hour after sunset to one hour before sunrise and at any other time when there is not sufficient light to render clearly discernable a person vehicle or other substantial object on the public highway at a distance of at least two hundred (200) feet ahead show at least two (2) headlights of approximately equal candlepower at the front of and on opposite sides of such motor vehicle which shall be clearly visible from a distance of at least two hundred (200) feet Provided That motor-cycles to which no side cars are attached at the times and under conditions specified shall carry at least one (1) lighted headlight and any motor-cycle having more than two (2) wheels or with side car equipment shall have two (2) lights to the front at least one of which shall comply with the provisions of this Section the additional light to be attached to the side care equipment in such manner as to indicate the right lateral extension of the side car equipment

Such headlights shall be so attached to such motor vehicle that they shall not project a dangerous or dazzling light at a greater height than forty-two (42) inches when measured on the level surface on which the motor vehicle stands at a distance of seventy-five (75) feet ahead of the lamps and so that at no time shall the top of any main beam of light be higher than the lamp centers

The term "headlight" as used herein shall denote a complete road illuminating device located upon the front of a motor vehicle the rays from which are projected forward other than a sidelight or spotlight

Motor vehicles may also be equipped with two side lights but no less and the term "side lights" shall include any lights upon a motor vehicle other than headlights or spotlight

Motor vehicles may also be equipped with two side lights but no less and the term "side lights" shall include any lights upon a motor vehicle other than headlights or spotlights the rays of which project forward No electric lamps or bulbs shall pe used in any side lights which exceed four (4) candle power

The headlights of motor vehicles and motor-cycles shall be so constructed arranged and adjusted that they will at all times and under normal atmospheric conditions produce ample driving light for the use of the operator of such motor vehicle but will not project a glaring or dazzling light to persons approaching such headlights

Headlights shall be presumed to comply with this provision if they throw sufficient light ahead to make clearly visible all vehicles persons or substantial objects upon the (160 feet and if they and their component parts are so constructed and mounted as to render them readily and universally adjustable to conform to the requirements of uniform standard specifications as approved by the Secretary of Highways and as used by a testing agency appointed by said Secretary of Highways which testing agency shall be duly qualified and not interested directly or indirectly in any headlamp headlight lens headlight reflector or headlight control device

Before any headlamp headlight lens headlight reflector or headlight control device intended to enable a headlight to comply with the provisions of this Section shall be used upon any motor vehicle such headlamp headlight lens headlight reflector or headlight control device shall first be submitted to the Secretary of Highways and tested by a testing agency appointed by the Secretary of Highways and a certificate of approval be issued by the Secretary of Highways The Secretary of Highways may after such a test in conformity with uniform standard specifications and after such road tests or other tests as may be deemed necessary by him approve certain devices for controlling the headlights of motor vehicles so that they shall comply with the provisions of this section upon the payment of a fee of fifty ($50) dollars and may issue a certificate to the applicant describing the device and certifying that such tests have been made and that the device when properly applied complies with the requirements

Devices for controlling the headlights on motor vehicles heretofore and hereafter approved by the Secretaay of Highways in conformity with uniform standard specifications may be used when properly arranged adjusted and operated upon motor vehicles in this Commonweatlh while such certificates of approval are in force Any such certificate however heretofore and hereafter issued may be revoked by the Secretary of Highways after a hearing of which the person or corporation named therein or his or its successor in interest shall be given reasonable notice or opportunity to hear or be heard upon the grounds that the device does not comply with the provisions of uniform standard specifications or road tests or other tests However revocation of certificates of approval of devices for controlling headlights on motor vehicles heretofore or hereafter approved shall not take effect until three (3) months after decision of the Secretary of Highways revoking same

For the purpose of enforcing this Section a headlight will be presumed to project a glaring or dazzling light if the top of any main beam of light projected by it is at a distance of twenty-five (25) feet ahead of the motor vehicle on an approximately level stretch of highway projected on the body of a person or on a motor vehicle or on any object at a height greater than the distance of the centers of the headlamps from the ground

Every motor vehicle including motorcycles shall also whether standing or in motion display one (1) red light on the rear thereof and if a trailer be attached to such motor vehicle or another motor vehicle is being towed so as to obscure such red light then a red light shall be displayed on the rear of such vehicle or such trailer Provided That a motor vehicle while standing upon any public highway may exhibit only a parking light in accordance with the provisions further set forth in this Section

The registration plate on the rear of every motor vehicle including motorcycles and trailers shall also be clearly illuminated during the same period except when such motor vehicle is standing upon any public highway and exhibiting a parking light in acordance with the provisions further set forth in this Section

The rays of light from any searchlight or spotlight shall at no time extend to the left of the center of the highway nor shall the search light or spotlight be so attached arranged or adjusted as to project a beam of light into the eves of approaching motorists pedestrians or other users of the highways

Every motor vehicle including motorcycles while standing upon any public highway at such times as lights are required by the provisions of this Section for such motor vehicles may in lieu of the lighting equipment specified in this Act show one (1) light of at least two (2) candlepower carried on the left side of the motor vehicle in such a manner as to be visable to the front and rear and so as to show white to the front and red to the rear shall be considered a full compliance with the terms of this clause Provided That the council of any city or borough or the commissioners or supervisors of any township may be ordinance establish zones in brightly lighted sections within which motor vehicles may remain standing without lights

From and after the date upon which this Section becomes effective it shall be unlawful to sell or offer for sale any headlamp headlight lens headlight reflector or headlight control device unless it is of a type which shall have been approved by the Secretary of Highways under the provisions hereof and unless such device is accompanied by a printed sheet of instructions describing the device in detail its method of mounting and adjustment candlepower limits of lamps to be used and any other adjustment that may be necessary to insure it conformity with the requirements of this Section

It shall be unlawful from and after the date from which this Section becomes effective to sell or offer for sale any motor vehicle equipped with headlights which do not comply with the porvisions of this Section and the use of any motor vehicle not so equipped whether during the period cause for the prosecution of the operator or owner of the motor vehicle on which they are used

Motor vehicles equipped with acetylene headlights shall be deemed to have complied with the provisions of this Section when such headlights are fitted with clear plain front glasses and five-eighth foot burner

Every lamp bulb or light used in any headlight on a motor vehicle or motorcycle shall be of twenty-one (21) mean spherical candlepower Every reflector which is used as a part of such headlamp shall have a highly polished silvered or glass or other reflecting surface and shall be free from dents rust and other imperfections

Section 9 That Section twenty-four of the said act as amended is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 24 No motor vehicle of any description shall be used or operated on the public highways unless the engine be muffled so that the explosions thereof shall not constitute a nuisance to the public and no muffler cut-out shall be used on any public highway

No motor vehicle shall be used upon any public highway having upon any of the wheels thereof any device to prevent skidding which consists of less than five (5) cross chains or projects more than one (1) inch upon the outside surface of the wheels

No commercial motor vehicle shall be used or operated on any public highway the weight of which including chassis body and load shall be in excess of five thousand (5,000) pounds for a vehicle in class A seven thousand (7,000) pounds for a vehicle in class B eleven thousand (11,000) pounds for a vehicle in class C thirteen thousand (13,000) pounds for a vehicle in class D eighteen thousand (18,000) pounds for a vehicle in class E twenty-two thousand (22,000) pounds for a vehicle in class F and twenty-five thousand (25,000) pounds for a vehicle in class G and twenty-six thousand (26,000) pounds for a vehicle in class H

Provided That no electrically operated commercial motor vehicle shall be used or operated on any public highway the weight of which including chassis battery body and load shall be in excess of the maximum capacities as fixed for the several classes of such commercial motor vehicle registrations in section nine as amended

No motor vehicle or trailer having a gross weight of vehicle and load combined in excess of twenty-six thousand (26,000) pounds or in excess of nineteen thousand five hundred (19,500) pounds on any axle or in excessof eight hundred (800 pounds on any one wheel for each nominal inch of width of tire on such wheel or that exceeds an over-all length of vehicle and load of three hundred and sixty (360) inches or no combination of vehicles coupled together whose total length including load shall be greater than [eighty-five] feet sixty (60) feet or an over-all width of vehicle and load of [ninety (90)] ninety-six (96) inches or an over-all height of vehicle and load of one hundred fifty-six (156) inches except hookand-ladder trucke and water towers shall be operated upon any public highway Provided that motor vehicles loaded with hay or straw may have an over-all width of vehicle and load of more than ninety-six (96) inches

No semi-trailer except hook-and-ladder trucks and water towers that exceeds a gross weight on its axle or axles of nineteen thousand five hundred (19,500) pounds or in excess of eight hundred (800) pounds on any one wheel for each nominal inch of width of tire on such wheel (or that increases the gross weight of tractor truck semi-trailer body and load more than thirteen thousand (13,000) pounds over the gross weight hereinbefore provided) with its axle or axles not less than ninety-six (96) inches from the axle of the towing motor vehicle or that exceeds an overall length of three hundred sixty (360) inches or over-all width of [ninety (90)] ninety-six (96) inches except as hereinbefore provided [for over-all width of vehicle and load not exceeding ninety-six (96) inches on highways of cities of the first second and third class] or over-all height of one hundred fifty-six (156) inches shall be operated upon any public highway Provided That owing to the effect on improved highways of seasonal conditions the commissioner may in his discretion reduce the gross weight of vehicle and load combined of motor vehicles trailers or semi-trailers as he may deem necessary The width of rubber tires for the purpose of this section shall be ascertained by measuring the width of tire at the base of channel or between the flanges of the metal rim except pneumatic tires the width of which shall be determined by measuring the greatest width of tire casing Provided That no motor vehicle or trailer or semi-trailer shall be operated upon the public highway equipped with any solid rubber tire [which has at any point less than one (1) inch of rubber above or beyond the top of the metal flange or rim The width of metal tires shall be determined by measuring the width contact of tire with the road surface] of less than five (5) inches in width which has a thickness of seven-eighths (⅞) of an inch of rubber above or beyond the top of the metal flange or rim and no solid rubber tire of more than six (6) inches and less than eight (8) inches in width shall have a thickness of less than (1) inch of rubber above or beyond the top of the metal flange or rim and no solid rubber tire of more than eight (8) inches in width shall have a thickness of less than one and one-eighth (1⅛ inches of rubber above or beyond the top of the metal flange or rim The width of metal tires shall be determined by measuring the width of contact of tire with the road surface

Any person or persons carrying on any motor vehicle or trailer or semi-trailer a load in excess of the maximum carrying capacity or miximum length or maximum height or maximum width or without the required [one (1)] seven-eighth (7/8) of an inch rubber tire above or beyond the top of the metal flange or rim as so fixed by this act shall upon summary conviction thereof before a justice of the peace alderman or magistrate be subject to a fine of not less than one hundred ($100) dollars or more than two hundred ($200) dollars

Any person intending to use a motor vehicle or trailer or semi-trailer for special hauling whose dimensions or weight are in excess of the specifications hereinbefore mentioned shall apply to the commissioner for permission so to do upon a blank in such form as the department shall prescribe Such application shall set forth the location of the roads over which it is propose to haul the counties townships and municipalities in which such roads are located the weight and length of motor vehicle trailer or semi-trailer and its registration number the number of trailers to be used the maximum capacity of such trailers the weight of each when empty the kind of materials to be hauled and the date on which said hauling will begin and be completed Provided That no such period shall exceed five (5) days

The commissioner upon receipt of such application and a fee of five ($5) dollars shall immediately inform him self as to the condition of the highway mentioned in said application by referring the same to the local authorities or otherwise and if satisfied that the purposed use of such roadways will not result in damage thereto may grant a permit for such number of days and under such restrictions as in his discretion may be necessary to prevent extraordinary damage to the roads by reason of such hauling

All the provisions of this section shall apply to the owner of the motor vehicle or the person having control thereof who causes or permits such motor vehicle to be operated or equipped contrary to such provisions and any such person shall be deemed equally guilty with the operator of any violation thereof

Section 10 That section twenty-five of the said act as amended is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 25 No operator of a motor vehicle who meets or overtakes a street passenger car that has stopped for the purpose of taking on or discharging passengers shall pass said car on the side on which the passengers get on or off until the car has started and until any passengers who may have alighted shall have reached the side of the highway

When meeting or when overtaken by any other vehicle legally travelling at a greater rate of speed the operator of any motor vehicle shall turn promptly tothe right of the center of the highway allowing such other vehicle free passage to the left

The operator of any motor vehicle overtaking another vehicle shall pass such vehicle on the left but shall not attempt to pass any such vehicle at intersecting highways or at the crossing of any railroad tracks at grade or at a sharp turn or curve or on approaching the crest of a hill where a full view of the highway ahead for a distance of two hundred (200) feet is obstructed

Every operator of a motor vehicle shall at all times keep as close as possible to the right-hand side of the highway allowing other vehicles free passage to the left and no operator of a motor vehicle shall allow such vehicle to stand in the center of the highway or so as to obstruct or interfere with any other users thereof

At the intersection of public highways the operator of a motor vehicle shall keep to the right of the intersection of the centers of such highways when turning to the right and shall pass to the right of such intersection before turning to the left

When two vehicles approach the intersection of two public highways at the same time the vehicle approaching from the right shall have the right of way Provided however that any city may establish by ordinance and within its limits and the Department may by rule establish elsewhere through-traffic public highways and require all vehicles before entering upon or crossing such public highways to come to a full stop but no such ordinance or rule shall be effective until the authority enacting or promulgating such ordinance or rule shall have erected on the public highways crossing or joining through-traffic public highways a sign placed at the right hand side of said intersection or adjoining highway facing the traffic to be controlled and not nearer than fifty (50) feet to the said through-traffic public highway nor further than from said through-traffic public highway than one hundred and fifty (150) feet said signs to be clearly visible to said traffic and to bear in letters at least eight (8) inches in height the following words "THROUGH-TRAFFIC HIGHWAY AHEAD....STOP BEFORE CROSSING" and in addition shall bear in cities the name of the city and elsewhere the words "PENNA. DEPT. OF HIGHWAYS" in letters at least three (3) inches in height at the bottom of said sign

No operator of a motor vehicle shall proceed across the tracks of any railroad crossing at grade abreast of any other motor vehicle traveling in the same direction

When signaled to do so by the rider or driver of any horse or other animal of draft or burden the operator of a motor vehicle shall stop until any danger has been avoided

The operator of any motor vehicle shall as a warning when about to turn slow down stop or back indicate his intentions by some mechanical device or by a single cautionary signal made by extending the arm well outside the vehicle or if he is driving a closed vehicle by raising his hand in such a way as to be visible through the window in the rear of the vehicle

The operator of any motor vehicle shall not park entirely on any part of an improved State highway nor shall any motor vehicle be parked at a sharp turn or curve or on approaching the crest of a hill where a full view of the highway ahead for a distance of five hundred (500) feet is obstructed

Section 11 That section twenty-six of the said act as amended is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 26 The operator of any motor vehicle shall stop upon request or signal of any constable police officer or member of the State Police Force or designated officer of the State Highways Department who shall be in uniform [or] and shall exhibit his badge or other sign of authority and shall upon request exhibit his resignation certificate or license and shall write his name in the presence of such officer if so required for the purpose of establishing his identity He shall also furnish to any legally constituted authority any information in his posseession as to the identity of the operator or owner of any motor vehicle

Any constable or police officer or member of the State Police Force or designated officer of the State Highway Department who shall be in uniform [or] and shall exhibit his badge or other sign of authority shall have the right to stop any motor vehicle upon request or signal for the purpose of inspecting the said motor vehicle as to its equipment and operation or manufacturer's number or motor number or weight and securing such other information as may be necessary and any constable or police officer or member of the State Police Force or designated officer of the Department of Highways who shall be in uniform and shall exhibit a badge or other sign of authority shall have the right to inspect any motor vehicle in any public garage or repair shop for the purpose of locating stolen motor vehicles and investigating the title and registration of motor vehicles and for such purpose the owner of any such garage or repair shop shall permit any such officer without let or hindrance to make investigations as herein authorized

Section 12 That section twenty-eight of the said act as amended is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 28 It being the purpose of this act to provide a system or code of law regulating the use and operation of motor vehicles throughout this Commonwealth no city borough incorporated town township or county shall hereafter adopt maintain or enforce any rule regulation or ordinance inconsistent with the provisions of this act regulating the speed equipment use or operation of motor vehicles other than city [or] borough incorporated town or township ordinances or rules or regulations made by the police authorities under authority thereof regulating the stopping loading and parking of vehicles or the establishment of zones in which vehicles may park at night without lights as provided in section twenty of this act the use of certain streets as one-way streets or regulating the kinds classes and weight of traffic and its turning on certain streets and in public parks at all or at certain hours or the establishment of safety zones Provided however That no such special regulation shall be effective unless notice of the same is posted conspicuously by the municipality making the same at points where any highway affected thereby joins other highways and no regulation shall be valid which excludes such vehicles from any State Highway or from any main highway leading from one municipality to another

Provided That any city may regulate the transportation by motor vehicles of passengers for pay within the limits of such city or from points in the city to points beyond the city limits and make and enforce regulations for the operation of such vehicles not inconsistent with this act and designate certain streets upon which such vehicles may be operated

Provided That any such city borough incorporated town township or county which enforces any ordinance as provided in this section may impose a fine of not more than fifty ($50) dollars to be collected by summary conviction before any mayor burgess magistrate alderman or justice of the peace as like fines and penalties are now by law collected or in case of nonpayment of such fine to undergo imprisonment in the county jail for a period not exceeding ten (10) days Provided That any person so convicted shall have the right of appeal as in other cases of summary convictions And further provided That any person accused of violating a local ordinance passed under the authority of this act may waive summary hearing and give bond in a sum equal to double the amount of the maximum fine that might be imposed for appearance for trial before a judge of the court of quarter sessions or in the county court or in the municipal court in counties wherein such courts exist and thereupon the burgess magistrate alderman or justice of the peace shall within fifteen (15) days return the complaint or information to the said court and if any person so accused shall be convicted in such court of the offense charged he shall be subject to a fine prescribed by said ordinance or in case of nonpayment of such fine to undergo imprisonment in the county jail for a period not exceeding five (5) days All fines and penalties as provided in this section shall be paid to the treasurer of such city borough incorporated town township or county for the construction repair and maintenance of the highways thereof

And said bill having been read at length the third time,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, for the information of the Senators, I would say that this is a department bill, proposing amendments to the Motor Code. I think there are no amendments in this bill to which any one would seriously object. There is one with reference to the lights, which is technical. There is a provision with reference to the establishing of through highways, requiring the posting of signs and compelling drivers of vehicles crossing those main highways to come to a stop before proceeding across and a provision in regard to parking on curves and dangerous places; also providing for the giving of signals before stopping and turning across highways. In other words, everything in here has to do with the safety of the traveling public.

There is also a provision that a motor vehicle may not be stopped except by an officer in uniform.

There are some other minor provisions, but I do not think there is anything in the bill that any Senator would object to, and I would ask that the bill be voted upon favorably at this time.

Mr. DAIX. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. DAIX. Mr. President, I desire to ask the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, what he means by technical?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, that is so technical that I cannot explain it.

Mr. DAIX. Mr. President, that is just the point; it is so technical that I cannot understand it and what are we going to do when it comes before a magistrate's courts?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, as I understand the light provision it provides the method of installing lenses, the strength of them, and the candle power of the lights, things of that sort. I am sure that I do not understand the present law, and never have, and probably never will. After all we must have confidence in the engineers who have charge of this subject. The subject of lights is one that probably very few of us know anything about. Surely I do not and I do not suppose I ever will, but we must take a matter of this kind on the faith of the Department and the people who are proposing this amendment and the enforcing of the laws with relation thereto.

Mr. DAIX. Mr. President, I would ask the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, whether there are not certain penalties attached to that if you do not follow the requirements of the act?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, there is a small penalty, just the same as now.

I would say in answer to the Senator that if he can suggest any amendment to this law, or is sufficiently familiar with the light subject I would be very glad to have him suggest it.

Mr. DAIX. Mr. President, I can suggest none whatever but when the Senator states about being technical I wonder what we are up against.

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, I do not know what is in this bill, but I would like to know in regard to the provision under which you must stop before crossing a highway. Does that apply to country roads?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, in answer to the Senator from Lehigh, Mr. Schantz, I will read the section, if I may, it is quite short, Beginning at the bottom of page 44 and continuing on page 45:

"Provided however that any city may establish by ordinance and within its limits and the Department may by rule establish elsewhere through-traffic public highways and require all vehicles before entering upon or crossing such public highways to come to a full stop but no such ordinance or rule shall be effective until the authority enacting or promulgating such ordinance or rule shall have erected on the public highways crossing or joining through-traffic public highways a sign placed at the right hand side of said intersection or adjoining highway facing the traffic to be controlled and not nearer than fifty (50) feet to the said through-traffic public highway nor further than from said through-traffic public highway than one hundred and fifty (150) feet said signs to be clearly visible to said traffic and to bear in letters at least eight (8) inches in height the following words "THROUGH-TRAFFIC HIGHWAY AHEAD.....STOP BEFORE CROSSING" and in addition shall bear in cities the name of the city and elsewhere the words "PENNA DEPT OF HIGHWAYS" in letters at least three (3) inches in height at the bottom of said sign".

Mr. President, that is the full provision with reference to establishing through traffic highways in order to compel the people who cross or enter upon that highway to come to a stop. In explanation of that I would say that that rule has been established in a great many of the western cities, and, from my observation and the information that I have, it works very well. Every vehicle coming to one of those main thoroughfares must come to a stop and if he does that his machine or vehicle will surely be under control, and, in my judgment, it will save a great many very serious accidents.

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, under that provision the State Highway Department can, by rule, put up signs at every crossing and every intersection of the William Penn Highway from Easton to Harrisburg, and at every intersection of the Lincoln Highway, and when we approach them out and in the country, at any place the Highway Department sees fit, they can make you come to a dead stop and if you do not come to a stop you have a heavy penalty. I could not vote for a provision of that kind.

BILL POSTPONED.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I move that the question together with the further consideration of the bill be postponed for the present.

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL OVER IN ORDER.

Mr. DERRICK. Mr. President, I ask that Senate Bill No. 1038, on third reading, entitled:

An Act providing for the licensing and registration by the Dental Council of certain persons to practice dentistry.

go over in its order, on account of the absence of Senator Stites.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

BILLS ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1045, (House Bill No. 912), entitled:

An Act to repeal the act approved the twenty-fifth day of April one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one (Pamphlet Laws one hundred thirty-six) entitled "An Act requiring persons partnerships associations or corporations advertising for or soliciting business as adjusters of claims within this Commonwealth for loss of damage arising out of policies of insurance surety or indemnity on property, persons or insurable business interests within this Commonwealth to be licensed by the Insurance Commissioner"

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—42.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I ask that Senate Bill No. 1095, (House Bill No. 532), on third reading, entitled:

An Act proposing an amendment to section one article nine of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I ask that Senate Bill No. 1106, (House Bill No. 890), on third reading, entitled:

An Act to further amend sections one thousand four hundred five one thousand four hundred six one thousand four hundred seven one thousand four hundred eight and one thousand four hundred and eighteen of an act approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred eleven (Pamphlet Laws three hundred and nine) entitled "An Act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania together with the provisions by which it shall be administered and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof providing revenue to establish and maintain the same and the method of collecting such revenue and repealing all laws general special or local or any parts thereof that are or may be inconsistent therewith"

go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

BILLS ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1110, (House Bill No. 1114), entitled:

An Act to amend paragraph nineteen of section one thousand two hundred and ten of the act approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws three hundred and nine) entitled "An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania together with the provisions by which it shall be administered and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof providing revenue to establish and maintain the same and the method of collecting such revenue and repealing all laws general special or local or any parts thereof that are or may be inconsistent therewith" as amended

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, this is the bill of Senator Williams, of Tioga. He told me there were two warrants lying in the Auditor General's office that cannot be collected until this Act is passed, which means that his district had been penalized for being progressive. They have consolidated their schools there and there are some schools to which they are indebted $200 each but the law is not now in shape that the Auditor General can legally pay the claims. That is the purpose of Senator Williams' bill. That is all there is to it.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1130, entitled:

An Act to amend sections one two and three of the act approved the tenth day of April one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven (Pamphlet Laws sixty-two) entitled "An act for the better and more impartial selection of persons to serve as jurors in each of the counties of this Commonwealth"

And said bill having been read at length the third time,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. WEINGARTNER. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Kunkle.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Kunkle, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. KUNKLE. Mr President, I will.

Mr. WEINGARTNER. Mr. President, I desire to inquire whether this Act affects all counties in the Commonwealth or only counties of the third class?

Mr. KUNKLE. Mr. President, it is not restricted to counties of the third class.

Mr. WEINGARTNER. Mr. President, under those circumstances I will have to vote against the bill.

Mr. KUNKLE. Mr. President, this bill is an attempt on my part to meet some of the objections, or practically all of the objections, made to the jury law coming from Lackawanna and Luzerne Counties, particularly Lackawanna, and it provides that the Court may appoint, or shall appoint, a third jury commissioner, who shall act instead of the judge who acts now. It also makes provision for the filling of the jury wheel and also for the drawing of the jurors and I think it answers the objections that have been made by Judge Maxey, and others, with reference to the present jury law. It is an effort on my part to help them out in the matters that they complain of.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I think it is only fair to Senator Kunkle to state that the three jury bills which are now very full were considered by a sub-committee of five, three of whom represented their counties of the third class directly interested. There was an agreement made by the sub-committee that all three bills, the Senate agreeable, would pass the Senate and should go over to the House. I think it is only fair to make this statement. I hope this Senate will proceed to pass it and then after they have passed this proceed to pass mine next.

Mr. BALDWIN. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Woodward.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Woodward, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. BALDWIN. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Woodward, if in fixing up the bill for the three third class counties they considered it necessary to fix it up for the balance of the state? Is that the idea?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, Senator Kunkle's bill is state-wide.

Mr. BALDWIN. Mr. President, this is a state-wide bill and they were interested in three counties, were they not—the sub-committee?

Mr WOODWARD. Mr. President, yes, but we wanted to be courteous to everybody and we are passing the buck to the House.

Mr. BALDWIN. Mr. President, if this is a state-wide bill certainly I think it ought to go over in order that we could have the necessary time to consider it, at least if it is going to affect my county.—I want to know something more about it.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair would state that at this time the bill cannot go over in order but can be postponed for the present.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Kunkle.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Kunkle, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. KUNKLE. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Westmoreland if he was requested by any person in Lackawanna County to draft this bill, as he stated on the floor?

Mr. KUNKLE. Mr. President, I cannot answer the question in the affirmative, except that there have been appeals made to me to help them correct the evils that exist in their county and in an effort to do that I prepared this amendment to submit. I want to state further, in answer to this question, that so far as the jury system is concerned, we are perfectly satisfied with the present law in Westmoreland County, and I have objected all along, and I still object to anything being passed to change, or radically change, the law in the selection of jurors in Westmoreland County, or to filling the jury wheel, and I have only gone along with this proposition with the idea of helping these other counties. I have no objection so far as this bill is concerned. If there is objection to changing it to a jury commissioner appointed by the court, I am perfectly satisfied to have a provision made by which one of the judges, to be designated by one of the judges of the court of common pleas, sitting in banc, shall act as jury commissioner, and that, I think, would obviate the objection raised by the Senator from Potter, Mr. Baldwin, and also by Senator Weingartner. It would not add an additional salary, and that is the only thing that would affect the other counties, but in its present form I am perfectly satisfied that the bill should go over to the House and they endeavor to straighten out the matter, if they desire.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate further the Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Kunkle.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Kunkle, permit himself to be interrogated further?

Mr. KUNKLE. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Kunkle, whether or not he thinks that the jury bill passed yesterday, with the amendments he suggested this morning, would be all right to cover the subject?

Mr. KUNKLE. Mr. President, I cannot answer that yes because it does not give any veto power over the board of jury commissioners over the names selected by either one of the jury commissioners. There ought to be some power in the bill by which a majority of the commissioners, in my judgment, should state what names shall go in the jury wheel.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, for the benefit of the Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Kunkle, I wish to say that the members of the House agreed to amending the bill if the provision of the Senator just referred to,—that is, giving veto power in filling the wheel,—is inserted.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, in order that there may be no misunderstanding as to Senator Kunkle's position in this matter, I know he has no personal interest in any of these jury bills. He was perfectly satisfied the way the law stood, but in order to try to get all these factions together he agreed to go along and see if there could not be something done to please everybody and he got himself, I think, in the position of a benefactor, everybody wants to take a crack at him. I do not think he has any personal interest in the matter, I know, from the evidence given in the committee, he would be perfectly happy to have the jury law remain as it is now.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, if this bill would apply only to third class counties I have no objection, but since it applies to my county and the county of every other Senator on this floor, I object to it and do not propose to vote for any bill that would change the jury system in my county.

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, the agreement referred to by the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Woodward, would certainly be a wonderful agreement to get a lot of bad bills away from us here and sending them over to the House, but it would deprive us of the opportunity of passing upon them. When it comes to passing this bill, which is the next one in order, I certainly want to be here to vote against it, and I am against this one if it affects my county. I am opposed to tampering with the jury system in my county. The system is all right if the people are honest and if they are not honest it makes no difference what kind of a law you pass. It is up to the officers to do their duty and for that reason I am opposed to any agreement, whether made by a sub-committee or anybody else, to put these bills over to the House.

Mr. KUNKLE. Mr. President, I am perfectly satisfied to have the bill postponed and make any amendments that are satisfactory.

Mr. MILLER. Mr. President, in view of the fact that this bill is a matter of such real importance to every county in the Commonwealth I think action on it should be postponed. I cannot shut my eyes on a matter of this kind, I do not believe in passing the buck to the other fellow, and when I vote I want to be able to back up my vote and not simply shut my eyes against it, and, therefore, I think the Senate ought to take time to consider it and vote intelligently.

Mr. President, I move that the question, together with the further consideration of the bill, be postponed for the present.

Mr. BALDWIN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1133, as follows:

An Act providing that the chairmen of the respective appropriation committees of the House of Representatives and Senate and the Auditor General shall meet with the Secretary of the Commonwealth for the purpose of assisting and advising in the preparation of budget information to be submitted to the Governor and providing for the payment of the expenses of said chairmen

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the chairmen of the respective appropriation committees of the Senate and House of Representatives of the preceding session of the General Assembly and the Auditor General shall meet each even numbered year with the Secretary of the Commonwealth and participate assist and advise in the preparation of budget information and budget estimates to be transmitted to the Governor for revision The said chairmen the Auditor General Secretary of the Commonwealth may make inquiries and investigate as to the financial needs expenditures estimates or revenues of the departments boards commissions institutions or agencies of the State government and they shall on or before the first day of January following submit to the Governor all budget information which they have collected and classified.

Section 2 The chairmen of said appropriation committees shall be entitled to their actual traveling and hotel expenses incurred in the performance of their duties under this act which shall be paid from the respective contingent funds of the Senate and House of Representatives.

And said bill having been read at length the third time,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to amend title, page 1, line 2, by striking out the word "chairman" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "chairmen"; also line 5 by striking out the word "chairman" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "chairmen"; also section 1, page 1, line 4, by striking out the word "chairman" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "chairmen"; also line 10 by striking out the word "chairman" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "chairmen"; also section 2, page 2, line 6, by striking out the word "chairman" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "chairmen".

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

The amendment was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended be printed for the use of the Senate.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1134, entitled:

An Act applying to third class counties only and regulating the selection drawing and summoning of all jurors and talesmen and defining their qualifications in such counties creating a jury board and defining its powers and procedure providing for the appointment of a clerk to the jury board and fixing his maximum salary providing for the custody of the jury wheel and the filing and custody of jury lists providing for the public drawing of jurors and the methods thereof giving the trial judge the right to excuse jurors prescribing the time of challenging jurors or the array and regulating the procedure if array is quashed repealing all acts or parts of acts inconsistent therewith

And said bill having been read at length the third time,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, this is the jury bill drawn by Judge Maxey, which applies only to counties of the third class. I am perfectly willing to explain the bill, to the best of my ability, and I have on my desk telegrams and letters, more than Senator Baldwin read to us yesterday, and I am perfectly willing to read them all to the Senate. I have Judge Maxey here at my desk to help me. If the Senate does not want the argument I hope they will transfer this bill to the House, which is the wish, not only of the subcommittee of the Committee on Judiciary General, but of the Judiciary General Committee. As I have said before, it applies only to these three counties of those three gentlemen who were represented on the sub-committee.

Mr. KUNKLE. Mr. President, I desire to state my position with reference to this bill. All along I have been endeavoring on this question to smooth over matters so as to get a jury bill which would be satisfactory to those counties, providing it would not change the jury system in Westmoreland County to any great extent, and I wish to ask the Senate, as representing Westmoreland County, one of the third class counties in the state, that they vote down this bill, because it is not in accord with my desire. We are perfectly satisfied with the present jury system, and, as Senator Schantz has said, there is no law which will act itself, it must have honest men back of it. As I understand it, this will tear up our entire jury system and give us something that is uncertain and which will need the construction of the court for many years to come in order to straighten it out. The present jury law is perfectly satisfactory, as all the lawyers know, and I would, therefore, ask that this bill be defeated.

Mr. BALDWIN. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Kunkle.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Kunkle, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. KUNKLE. Mr. President, certainly.

Mr. BALDWIN. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Kunkle, whether all the third class counties in the state were represented at the hearing?

Mr. KUNKLE. Mr. President, they were not. This bill has been drafted entirely by Judge Maxey.

Mr. BALDWIN. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Kunkle, whether the other two third class counties agreed on this bill.

Mr. KUNKLE. Mr. President, they were not.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, we all have the greatest respect for the Senator from Westmoreland, and we appreciate the fact that Westmoreland County is not in need of this legislation, but acording to the Constitution, we have to legislate for counties of certain classes and it is, I recognize, a sacrifice for the Senator from Westmoreland to vote for this bill, but it is on the principle of the greatest good to the greatest number.

Mr. DAIX. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Phiadelphia, Mr. Daix, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. DAIX. Mr. President, there are a number on the floor who are not members of the Senate. I believe there was a rule adopted the other day that only members of the Senate should be on the floor when in session.

The PRESIDENT. The Sergeant-at-Arms will see that perfect quiet is maintained on the floor of the Senate and in the aisles.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I feel that Senator Kunkle's bill and Judge Maxey's bill are exactly in the same boat and since the Senate has postponed Senator Kunkle's bill, I think it is only fair to ask for the postponement of this bill, I mean in order to be on a level.

BILL POSTPONED.

I would therefore move that the question, together with the further consideration of the bill, be postponed for the present.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILLS ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate bill No. 1137, entitled:

An Act to amend section six as amended of the act approved the twenty-fourth day of July one thousand nine hundred and thirteen (Pamphlet Laws nine hundred and sixty-five) entitled "An act defining commodities regulating the sale thereof and providing penalties for violation hereof" changing the legal weight of apples

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WEINGARTNER. Mr. President, and members of the Senate, just a word of explanation of this bill: As I understand it fixes the legal weight of a bushel of apples at forty-eight pounds, except such apples as are sold in glass containers. Our apple growers who sell apples locally are required to sell forty-eight pounds of apples, but those shipped in apples, sold in original container, weigh from forty-two to forty-five pounds and require the local people to resell them at forty-eight pounds to the bushel. There is another reason for the bill and that is this: the growers tell me that the ordinary bushel basket will not hold forty-five pounds of apples.

This bill has the endorsement of the Pennsylvaina State Grange apple-grower and the Department of Agriculture, and I hope it will pass.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—42.

Baldwin,	Eyre,	Lanius,	Schantz,
Barr,	Freeman,	Leslie,	Snyder,
Baumer,	Gelder,	MacDade,	Sones,
Brown,	Griswold,	Mansfield,	Sprowls,

DeWitt,	Kunkle,	Quigley,	Pres. Pro Tem.
Earnest,	Kutz,	Salus,

NAYS—0.

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present said bill to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate bill No. 1143, entitled:

Fixing the fee to be charged for the issuing of marriage licenses

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—42.

BILL OVER IN ORDER.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I ask that Senate Bill No. 1145, on third reading, entitled:

An Act to amend sections two six seven and eleven as amended and to repeal sections one and three as amended of the act approved the seventh day of June one thousand nine hundred and fifteen (Pamphlet Laws eight hundred and seventy-eight) entitled "An act providing for the escheat of deposits of money or property of another received for storage or safekeeping the dividends profits debts and interest on debts of corporations companies banks trust companies insurance companies limited partnerships and partnership associations organized under the laws of this Commonwealth except mutual saving fund society not having a capital stock represented by shares and except also building and load associations and property held for the benefit of another by the same and the profits accretions and interest on such property as well as interest thereon accrued or which should have accrued between the fixing of the amount of such property by the award of any court and the actual distribution thereof" by excluding banks banking corporations and trust companies from the provisions thereof go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

BILL ON THIRD READING.

Mr. DAIX. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now proceed to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1095, (House Bill No. 532), entitled:

An Act proposing an amendment to section one article nine of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, I second the mtion.

The motion was agreed to.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1095, (House Bill No. 532), entitled:

An Act proposing an amendment to section one article nine of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. DAIX. Mr. President, as I understand this bill it exempts from taxation places of religious worship and those that are used for public purposes. According to the bill itself that is the purpose. I had it go over in its order this morning until I ascertained the meaning of the bill, and according to the bill itself, it seems to exempt from taxation buildings used for public purposes and places of religious worship. There appears to be some misunderstanding in reference to the bill and it may be far reaching in its extent, more so than what I understood.

BILL POSTPONED.

I, therefore, move that the question together with the further consideration of the bill be postponed for the present.

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILLS INTRODUCED.

Mr. MILLER. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to read a bill in place at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. MILLER read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 1200, entitled;

An Act to establish as State Highways certain sections of public road in the county of Mercer.

Which was committed to the Committee on Public Roads and Highways.

BILL ON THIRD READING.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now proceed to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1117, (House Bill No. 1234), entitled:

A Supplement to an act approved the seventh day of March one thousand nine hundred and one (P. L. 20) entitled "An act for the government of cities of the second class" establishing and regulating a Department of City Transit defining the powers duties and jurisdiction of the department and providing for its officers and employes

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1117, (House Bill No. 1234), as follows:

A Supplement to an act approved the seventh day of March one thousand nine hundred and one (Pamphlet Laws twenty) entitled "An act for the government of cities of the second class" establishing and regulating a Department of City Transit defining the powers duties and jurisdiction of the department and providing for its officers and employes

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That an additional executive department in the government of cities of the second class is hereby created to be known as the Department of City Transit which shall be in charge of a City Transit Commission consisting of five (5) residents of the city to be appointed by the Mayor subject to the approval of council one of whom shall be designated to serve from his appointment until January first one thousand nine hundred and twenty-six and one from his appointment until January first one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven one from his appointment until January first one thousand nine hundred and twenty-eight one from his appointment until January first one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine and one from his appointment until January first one thousand nine hundred and thirty Their respective successors shall be appointed on the expiration of their respective terms to serve five (5) years An appointment to fill a casual vacancy shall be only for the unexpired portion of the term Three (3) of the members shall be a quorum They may make regulations for their own organization and procedure consistent with the laws of this Commonwealth and the ordinances of the city they shall serve without compensation and shall make annually to the Mayor a report of their transactions and recommendations they may employ a chief engineer and such other persons and employes as may be necessary whose salaries together with the necessary expenses of the commission shall be provided for in the discretion of council by the proper appropriations and ordinances

Section 2 The Department of City Transit shall have the power to design construct manage administer and supervise any and all transit facilities purchased leased located constructed or otherwise acquired equipped owned maintained used or operated by such city Such transit facilities shall include railways and extensions thereof for the transportation of persons and property over under upon through and across any street highways avenues bridges viaducts river waters and public and private lands or partly over under through or across any or all of the same They shall be taken to mean and include tunnels subways bridges elevated structures tracks polls wires conduits power houses stations lines for the transmission of power car barns shop yards sidings turnouts switches stations and approaches thereto cars and motor equipment and all works buildings appliances and appurtenances necessary and convenient for the proper construction equipment maintenance and operation of such transit facilities or any or more of them

Section 3 It shall be the duty of the Department of City Transit to take the necessary action to enforce and carry into effect the laws of this Commonwealth and the ordinances of the city pertaining to transit facilities as defined by this article

Section 4 The Transit Commission shall from time to time make such recommendation to the council of the city as to them shall seem proper for the improvement and development of facilities for transportation of persons and property within such city

Section 5 The engineers draftsmen designers and other technical employes of said Department of City Transit may be appointed without regard to whether they are residents of such city or not

Section 6 That all acts or parts of acts general local or special inconsistent be and the same are hereby repealed

And said bill having been read at length the third time,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I would like to inform the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Leslie, that I have not yet had an opportunity to see the bill; it has not reached my desk yet.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I called up the bill because I felt it was my duty to Senator Daix, who had it put over in order for the present. I spoke to him and asked whether it was only for second class cities. It gives power and authority to create a Transit Commission, for the purpose of trying to protect the traveling public and to work in harmony with the traction companies.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, with that explanation I withdraw my objections.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I have the honor to represent a second-class city; and I would like to interrogate the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Leslie.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Leslie, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator if this is mandatory upon second-class cities, to create this Board of Transit.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, it is not.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I would like to ask whether it says "shall" or "may".

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, it is to cover any such enactment made by the Councils of the cities after this Act is passed.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I would like to ask whether it says the Councils "shall" or "may".

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I cannot give the exact language, but it means they have to pass the necessary ordinance.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, undoubtedly.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, and the proper officials have to sign them before they can become operative. You cannot compel a city to do anything.

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, this Legislature cannot compel any city to pass an ordinance. It can simply empower it to pass than ordinance.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal priviledge.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Lackawanna, Mr. Davis, will state his question of personal priviledge.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, there are laws pertaining to second-class cities,—for instance, for creating Departments of Supplies in second-class cities, and that means the Councils "may"; but there are certain laws for second-class cities which say Councils "shall"; so I am afraid of this bill which creates Boards of Transit in second-class;—as I come from a city much smaller than the City of Pittsburgh, we cannot stand the expense. And I am going to ask the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Leslie, to oblige me—if he will—by seeing that is made "may" and not "shall".

BILL POSTPONED.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I move that the question together with the further consideration of the bill be postponed for the present.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

RESOLUTION RECALLING FROM THE GOVERNOR SENATE BILL No. 378.

Mr. MANSFIELD, offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and agreed to.

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur), That Senate Bill No. 378, entitled "An Act fixing the pay of election officers and clerks in counties of the second class," be recalled from the Governor for the purpose of amendment.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

BILL SIGNED.

The PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE (Mr. John G. Homsher) announced that the Chief Clerk having reported that the following bills had passed both houses of the General Assembly and the same being correct, the titles were publicly read as follows:

Senate Bill No. 182, entitled:

An Act establishing certain public roads as State Highways and providing for their construction and maintenance at the expense of the Commonwealth.

Whereupon,

The PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE (Mr. John G. Homsher) in the presence of the Senate signed the same.

Mr. MANSFIELD. Mr. President, I voted "aye".

Mr. BALDWIN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. BALDWIN. Mr. President, I voted "aye".

The motion was agreed to.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. MANSFIELD. Mr. President, I move to reconsider the vote by which the bill passed third reading.

Mr. BALDWIN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

BILL RECOMMITTED.

Mr. MANSFIELD. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 91, be recommitted to the Committee on Municipal Affairs.

Mr. BALDWIN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. BUCKMAN, from the Committee on Judiciary General, reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 1171, (House Bill No. 1120), entitled:

An Act to amend an act approved the twenty-third day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three (Pamphlet Laws three hundred and twenty-seven) entitled "A supplement to an act approved the twenty-third day of June one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws one thousand one hundred twenty-three) entitled 'An Act establishing in each county a board of viewers prescribing their duties providing for their appointment as viewers road juries juries of view and commissioners to view land and providing for the charges upon the respective counties in the matter of salaries costs and expenses thereof' as the same was amended and supplemented acts by providing for the compensation to be paid to the members of the board of viewers in counties of the second class" providing for the compensation of members of the Board of Viewers in counties of the first and second classes.

BILLS INTRODUCED.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to read a bill in place at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. BUCKMAN read in his place and presented to the Chair, Senate Bill No. 1201, entitled:

A Joint Resolution continuing the committee to study and investigate systems of compulsory liability insurance for motor vehicles.

Which was committed to the Committee on Appropriations.

Mr. PAINTER. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to read a bill in place at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. PAINTER read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 1202, entitled:

An Act transferring the supervision, direction and control of the highway patrol from the Department of Highways to the Pennsylvania State Police; conferring on the members thereof the powers of state police and providing for their employment, discipline, training and compensation.

Which was committed to the Committee on Law and Order.

REPORTS FROM COMMITTEES.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

THURSDAY, April 2, 1925.

The House met at 10:30 o'clock A. M.

The SPEAKER (Thomas Bluett) in the Chair.

The Chaplain, Rev. George P. Donehoo, offered the following prayer:

Most gracious Father, we thank Thee for the Life and for the sunshine of another day, and we pray Thee that we may walk life's pathway this day and every day with our faces turned upward to the sun, and walking in the sunlight ourselves, captains of our own souls; and when the night comes, and when we pass as we have to pass, through suffering and sorrow, may we then keep our faces upward toward the stars; and we walk, as we all have to, into the valley of the shadow, we pray Thee that we all may walk unafraid—unafraid of death as we have been unafraid in life. Bless us this day in everything we do, guide the Speaker of this House, and be with the members and help each one personally and consciously to do their own duty following their convictions as men and women, we ask in Thy name. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the Journal of yesterday's proceedings.

Section 16 Notice of Intention to Retake Not more than forty nor less than twenty days prior to the retaking the seller if he so desires may serve upon the buyer personally or by registered mail a notice of intention to retake the goods on account of the buyer's default The notice shall state the default and the period at the end of which the goods will be retaken and shall briefly and clearly state what the buyer's rights under this act will be in case they are retaken If the notice is so served and the buyer does not perform the obligations in which he has made default before the day set for retaking the seller may retake the goods and hold them subject to the provisions of sections nineteen twenty twenty-one twenty-two and twenty-three regarding the sale but without any right of redemption

Section 17 Redemption If the seller does not give the notice of intention to retake described in section seventeen he shall retain the goods for ten days after the retaking within the State in which they were located when retaken during which period the buyer upon payment or tender of the amount due under the contract at the time of retaking and interest or upon performance or tender of performance of such other condition as may be named in the contract as precedent to the passage of the property in the goods or upon performance or tender of performance of any other promise for the breach of which the goods were retaken and upon payment of the expenses of retaking keeping and storage may redeem the goods and become entitled to take possession of them and to continue in the performance of the contract as if no default had occurred Upon written demand delivered personally or by registered mail by the buyer the seller shall furnish to the buyer a written statement of the sum due under the contract and the expense of retaking keeping and storage For failure to furnish such statement within a reasonable time after demand the seller shall forfeit to the buyer ten dollars and also be liable to him for all damages suffered because of such failure If the goods are perishable so that retention for ten days as herein prescribed would result in their destruction or substantial injury the provisions of this section shall not apply and the seller may resell the goods immediately upon their retaking The provisions of this section requiring the retention of the goods within the State during the period allowed for redemption shall not apply to the goods described in section eight

Section 18 Compulsory Resale By Seller If the buyer does not redeem the goods within ten days after the seller has retaken possession and the buyer has paid at least fifty per cent of the purchase price at the time of the retaking the seller shall sell them at public auction in the State where they were at the time of the retaking such sale to be held not more than thirty days after the retaking The seller shall give to the buyer not less than ten days' written notice of the sale either personally or by registered mail directed to the buyer at his last known place of business or residence The seller shall also give notice of the sale by at least three notices posted in different public places within the filing district where the goods are to be sold at least five days before the sale If at the time of the retaking five hundred dollars or more has been paid on the purchase price the seller shall also give notice of the sale at least five days before the sale by publication in a newspaper published or having a general circulation within the filing district where the goods are to be sold The seller may bid for the goods at the resale If the goods are of the kind described in section eight the parties may fix in the conditional sale contract the place wehre the goods shall be resold

Section 19 Resale At Option of Parties If the buyer has not paid at least fifty per cent of the purchase price at the time of the retaking the seller shall not be under a duty to resell the goods as prescribed in section nineteen unless the buyer serves upon the seller within ten days after the retaking a written notice demanding a resale delivered personally or by registered mail If such notice is served the resale shall take place within thirty days after the service in the manner at the place and upon the notice prescribed in section nineteen The seller may voluntarily resell the goods for account of the buyer on compliance with the same requirements

Section 20 Proceeds of Resale The proceeds of the resale shall be applied (One) To the payment of the expenses thereof (Two) to the payment of the expenses of retaking keeping and storing the goods (Three) to the satisfaction of the balance due under the contract Any sum remaining after the satisfaction of such claims shall be paid to the buyer

Section 21 Deficiency on Resale If the proceeds of the resale are not sufficient to defray the expenses thereof and also the expenses of the retaking keeping and storing the goods and the balance due upon the purchase price the seller may recover the deficiency from the buyer or from any one who has succeeded to the obligations of the buyer

Section 22 Rights of Parties Where There is No Resale Where there is no resale the seller may retain the goods as his own property without bligation to account to the buyer except as provided in section twenty-five and the buyer shall be discharged of all obligation

Section 23 Election Of Remedies After the retaking of possession as provided in section sixteen the buyer shall be liable for the price only after a resale and only to the extent provided in section twenty-two Neither the bringing of an action by the seller for the recovery of the whole or any part of the price nor the recovery of judgment in such action nor the collection of a portion of the price shall be deemed inconsistent with a later retaking of the goods as provided in section sixteen But such right of retaking shall not be exercised by the seller after he has collected the entire price or after he has claimed a lien upon the goods or attached them or levied upon them as the goods of the buyer

Section 24 Recovery of Part Payments If the seller fails to comply with the provisions of sections eighteen nineteen twenty twenty-one and twenty-three after retaking the goods the buyer may recover from the seller his actual damages if any and in no event less than one-fourth of the sum of all payments which have been made under the contract with interest

Section 25 Waiver of Statutory Protection No act or agreement of the buyer before or at the time of the making of the contract nor any agreement or statement by the buyer in such contract shall constitute a valid waiver of the provisions of sections eighteen nineteen twenty twenty-one and twenty-five except that the contract may stipulate that on such default of the buyer as is provided for in section sixteen the seller may rescind the conditional sale either as to all the goods or as to any part thereof for which a specific price was fixed in the contract. It the contract thus provides for rescission the seller at his option may retake such goods without complying with or being bound by the provisions of sections seventeen to twenty-five inclusive as to the goods retaken upon crediting the buyer with the full purchase price of those good So much of this credit as is necessary to cancel any indebtedness of the buyer to the seller shall be so applied and the seller shall repay to the buyer on demand any surplus not sorequired

Section 26 Loss and Increase After the delivery of the goods to the buyer and prior to the retaking of them by the seller the risk of injury and loss shall rest upon the buyer The increase of the goods shall be subject to the same conditions as the original goods

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 411, as follows:

An Act further to amend the sixty-third section as amended of an act approved the thirteenth day of June one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six (Pamphlet Laws five hundred eighty-nine) entitled "An act relating to lunatics and habitual drunkards" so as to provide for the summoning at the discretion of the court of expert witness by the court to testify at the trial by a jury of an issue awarded if a jury trial shall be demanded or in the investigation by the court where a jury trial shall not be demanded to determine the soundness of mind of any person found a lunatic and of any alleged lunatic confined detained or under any restraint as such in any county of this Commonwealth and for the payment of the fees of such witnesses and for authorizing the preparation and reading at the trial or investigation by the court as the case may be with permission of the court of written reports of such witnesses

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That section sixty-three of an act approved the thirteenth day of June one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six (Pamphlet Laws five hundred eighty-nine) entitled "An act relating to lunatics and habitual drunkards" which was amended by an act approved the fifteenth day of June one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven (Pamphlet Laws one hundred sixty-two) entitled "An act to amend the sixty-third section of an act entitled 'An act relating to lunatics and habitual drunkards' approved the thirteenth day of June Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six so as to provide for an issue and jury trial in all cases if demanded to determine the soundness of mind or the reformation and habitual soberness of every person found a lunatic or habitual drunkard and of every alleged lunatic or habitual drunkard confined detained or under any restraint as such in any county of this Commonwealth and for restoring to every such person his liberty and property if the issue be determined in his favor and for the payment of costs" is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 63 (a) It shall be the duty of the court to which any inquisition shall have been returned or of any Court of Common Pleas of the county in which any alleged lunatic or habitual drunkard shall be confined or detained or be under any restraint whatever as an alleged lunatic or habitaul drunkerd on petition of such alleged lunatic or habitaul drunkard as the case may be setting forth that he is restored to a sound state of mind or is now of a sound state of mind or that he is reformed and become habitually sober and that he demands a jury trial to make such order respecting notice as the said court may be advisable and to award an issue framed to determine the question of fact involved wherein the petitioner shall be plaintiff and the committee of the person and estate of the petitioner or the party or parties holding the petitioner in confinement or under restraint or under detention shall be defendant or defendants and such trial shall be had according to the course of the common law and the verdict if in favor of the petitioner shall be conclusive and it shall be the duty of the court to enter judgment on the verdict and to make an order setting the petitioner at liberty and restoring to him his property but if the verdict shall be against the petitioner it shall be advisory only If however the petitioner shall not demand a jury trial then it shall be the duty of the court to take proofs of the facts and if satisfied of the truth of the allegations in such petition to make an order where an inquisition shall have been returned as aforesaid that the commission issued in such case and the inquisition taken thereon and the appointment of committee and all proceedings relating thereto be suspended or altogether superseded and determined as the court shall decide and the court shall have power in all cases to make an order setting the petitioner at liberty and restoring to him his property and it shall be the duty of the court in every such trial to direct who shall pay the costs thereof or to apportion said cost between the parties to the issue as the justice of the case shall require and to order and direct payment accordingly Provided That nothing in this act shall be so construed as taking away the right of appeal as at common law

(b) If the question of fact to be decided by said jury or to be investigated by the court should a jury trial not be demanded is whether the petitioner is restored to a sound state of mind or is now of a sound state of mind the judge of the trial court may call one or more disinterested registered physicians not exceeding three to testify at the trial or before him if a jury trial shall not be demanded with respect to the petitioner's mental condition and if the judge does so he shall notify counsel of the witnesses so called giving their names and addresses Upon the trial or hearing of the case the witnesses called by the court may be examined regarding their qualification and their testimony by counsel for the petitioner and counsel for the adverse party or parties Such calling of witnesses by the court shall not preclude counsel for any of the parties to the proceeding calling other witnesses at the trial or hearing The witnesses called by the judge shall be allowed such fees as in the discretion of the judge seem just and reasonable The fees so allowed shall be paid by the county where the petition shall have been properly filed

(c) It the issue fromed or the facts to be investigated by the courts have to do with determining whether the petitioner is restored to a sound state of mind or is now of a sound state of mind each expect witness appointed by the judge who has examined or observed the petitioner may be required by the judge to prepare a brief written report under oath upon the mental condition of the petitioners based upon such examination or observation and such report shall be filed with the clerk of the court at such time as may be fixed by the judge Such report with the permission of the judge may be read by the witness at the trial or hearing subject to the same objections as to the whole or any portion of its contents as under the rules of evidence could be made to oral testimony Each witness appointed by the judge may be examined regarding his report by the counsel for all parties to the issue or hearing or shall be paid by such of the parties to the issue or apportioned between or among such parties as the justice of the case shall require and the judge shall order and direct accordingly

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. HARER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I just want to take a few minutes of your time to give you an explanation of what this bill does. The bill is purely a local option bill, there is nothing mendatory about it, and I think every member of the House is thoroughly familiar with it. It was introduced by me at the request of the religious organizations of the State. If I thought for one minute that this bill was driving religion into the public schools I would have nothing to do with it, because I don't believe that that is where it belongs, but this bill gives the parents who are the rightful owners of the children the right to ask for their excuse from school and give the present board the privilege of execusing those children, under the present law as interpreted by different judges, we find that a child, by some judges, may be excused by the board, by other judges they may not be excused. The idea of this bill is to make it legitimate or legal according to the school code. If the parents of a child desire that child to have a religious education they may apply to the local board who then has the privilege if they see fit to arrange for such dismissal not to exceed one hour per week, if religious instruction is given by some organization which guarantees the keeping of the child and taking care of the child. This has been tried out in twenty-eight of our surrounding states and found to work very successfully. There are at the present time over two hundred and fifty thousand children receiving religious instruction, and it has been found to work very succesfully, and not interfere in any way with the school curriculm. In our State the town of Wilkinsburg has such a school and it is taken care of by Mr. Martin, a former member of this House and found to be very successful, whether it is legitimate or not, as I said before, the law has been interpreted in different ways by different judges. The bill has the endorsement of prominent clergymen, educators, judges and business men of the State. I can see no reason why there should be any objection to this bill and I will appreciate it if you can support it.

Mr. LUDLOW. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I approach the subject of this bill with a great deal of reluctance because of the sponsorship for it, which is of the highest type. The motive which actuated the introduction of the bill cannot be questioned, but it seems to me that we should not cast aside our moorings, we should not overlook the fundamental difference that has been observed since our federal and state governments have been framed, and that is that in all matters relating to our state government there should be no admixture of anything savoring in the slightest degree of religion. It is one of the rights guaranteed by both the federal and state constitution, and personally I should very much hate to see us begin by cutting in and making exceptions to that doctrine which has proved so salutory in our American form of government.

I will not address myself to the methods provided in the bill. It is conceivable that some parents who have children might ask for this permission. It is not compulsory as the gentleman from Lycoming has said, but let us presume a class of thirty. Let us presume that fifteen or twenty parents ask that their children go to these hours of religious study, which personally they can have in any way, but let us say twenty of them do that. What are the other ten who are left in the class going to do until the twenty who go away make up their work in some other way, and how will they make it up? Are the ten who remain to be held back an hour until the other twenty come back? No matter what the motive is if you and I want our children to go to Sunday School of whatever religious form to which we are personally inclined, we should do that voluntarily and not by any act of the Legisature. It is a departure which I personally think we should not allow.

Mr. SARIG. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, all this bill does is to relieve school boards of the duty of enforcing compulsory school law to the extent of one hour a week. There is nothing compulsory about it, it is purely voluntary. Now, I happen to be a member of the sub-committee that had this bill for consideration. The bill as originally drawn set no time limit, but the sub-committee felt that we should not open the door indiscriminately breaking down our compulsory school law. For that purpose we finally limited it to one hour a week. Under ideal conditions I agree that every boy and every girl in Pennsylvania should attend Sunday School, but unfortunately conditions are not ideal and there are a great many children in this Commonwealth who do not get on the inside of any Sunday School. This bill represents an effort as I understand it, and as I have been informed on behalf of the Protestants, Catholic and Jewish Churches, and they are all in favor of it. There is nothing about it that smacks in any way of sectarianism, or anything of that sort. I am in accord with it because the thing is purely voluntary as before stated. All it really does is simply relieve the school boards from the obligation which the compulsory school law now places upon them to enforce that school aw, and it only relieves them and releases them to the extent of one hour a week. That is all the bill really means, and all that it really does.

Miss THOMAS. Mr. Speaker, and members of the House, I cannot feel that this bill should pass. It seems to me that it is giving us, or attempting to give us a very good thing, but it is doing it in a bad way. I don't think we should in this way embarass the school boards. I am sure there would be complications, and I am sure that the religious education which our children should have should be reached in some other way. There are many denominations to take care of this religious education outside of the school hours, and I think that there is plenty of time on Sundays and Saturdays and before and after school hours in which this could be done. I agree we want more and more religion in the school, but we don't want it in this way.

Mr. EDMONDS. Mr. Speaker, and members of the House, like my friend from Montgomery County, I agree that this bill has the highest sponsorship that it could possibly have. It is recommended by a number of fine thinking people who are tremendously interested in the moral welfare of the schools, but like the lady from Chester I cannot but reach the conclusion that this is the wrong way to do it. This bill is based on the premise that religious training is an essential part of education. With that I absolutely agree. It is not only an essential part, it is the most important part of education. A number of years ago when the public school system of this State was being founded under the direction of Joseph Lancaster when he went back to England to make his report to the Duke of Wellington as to what he was doing in the City of Philadelphia in the way of establishing free schools, the Duke of Wellington said, "Take care that you establish your schools on some foundation of moral thinking and religion because otherwise you will only make some many clever devils." Now, the idea back of this bill is that religious training is essential, and I say with that I agree, but I don't agree that we should adopt any legislation that will relieve the home of this paramount duty of taking care of that moral and religious training. I don't believe that it is a fair proposition for the public schools to be called in to aid the home in this particular. Home lines have become rather badly demoralized in some portions of the State, and in places you can now shift your responsibility to other people. Personally I would like to say to the home you must assume your paramount duty and we will not relieve you from the necessity of seeing to it that you care for the spiritual education of your young. At the present time we have this situation, in some parts of the State voluntarily associations have been formed outside of school hours for the religious training of the young. I understand they have such an organization out in Allegheny County, the Sewickley or Bellevue District, and it is said that the work has been satisfactory. The Attorney General has gone so far as to say that the school district may, when the afternoon is from two to four, it may upon one day a week make that hour from one to three. I would like to see experiments along that line extend throughout the length and breadth of the Commonwealth, but that would be through voluntary organizations under the parents' control, and not involve any admixture of religious training in the public school, which as my friend from Montgomery has so well said, is at variance with the fundamental principles of the public schools. It is for this reason we will all have a most profound sympathy with the spirit that has actuated this bill and we recognized that it comes from as worthy a group of citizens as we have in the Commonwealth, but personally we are constrained to vote no.

Miss GRIMES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I object to this bill for three reasons. In the first place I think it is an invasion of the Constitution, in the second place it is an infringment upon the school time, and in the third place it is a shift of responsibility.

I do not need to tell you the history of this country, its inception and birth when our forefathers left the old country because of religious persecution and came to this country and established here a government, one of the fundamental principles of which was that nobody should be compelled to go to church, any kind of church, except the church that his conscience dictated. A further interpretation of this is that nobody shall be compelled to go to church or religious meetings of any kind, and this is a step in that direction. It is indirectly an invasion of course, but it is a step toward compulsary attendance at religious worship. This is I believe an invasion of our most sacred constitutional right and I therefore protest on this ground.

In the second place it is an infringment upon school time. The school hours are thirty-five hours a week. Now let us subtract twelve hours and there are five hours left in the school day, making twenty-five hours in the school week, all day Saturday and all day Sunday, forty-nine hours out of school against thirty-five hours in school. Out of one of those forty-nine hours certainly schools for religious instruction could have one. What this bill really attempts to do is by taking this one hour in the school time to so make use of the compulsary school law to compel attendance, indirectly it is of course, but it is a step towards compelling and making use of the compulsary school law to get the children into religious schools while they are under the charge of the school and under the compulsary school act. I therefore object to it on that ground.

The third one is a shifting of responsibility. I want to ask you members of the House and Mr. Speaker, are the two greatest forces for good, the home and the church, going out of business, that we shall shift their responsibility for the traning of the young over to the public schools. I am not talking against the church in this, I am talking for the church. I don't want to see the church give up its ancient right of spiritual leadership in our communities by passing over religious training to even as fine an agency as the public school, because I think the home is the greatest factor for good in the world and I will protest as long as I can against any direct or indirect movement looking toward shifting the responsibility of the mother in the home for religious training toward the public school. Mr. Speaker and members of the House I think it is a very serious mistake to pass this bill and I protest against it.

Mr. THOMAS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, in this present discussion a great many of us were barking at the wrong door. There is nothing to be afraid of in a measure like this. The church is not afraid of losing any usefulness. We are well able to take care of our own position. In placing before you this bill, Mr. Speaker and members of the House, you are merely asked that while the mind of the child is still in that receptive condition that an hour of one day of the week be closed for school activities that something may be taught to them, something drilled into their consciences that will cause them to think of the higher, of the more serious, the most important thing which can go into the developement of manhood and the enlargement of the usefulness of the individual. This is not the time, it is not the place for us to interject into a discussion of this kind the question of constitutional rights, and the things for which our forefathers have died, that they might perfect a government, a system of government that will be the outstanding exemplar of civil government. We are not entering into that phase of the discussion. Perhaps as days come and go we will have that situation, but in this case, Mr. Speaker and members of the House, we are just coming before you with a measure that has met the approval of the master minds of Pennsylvania today, and it is their opinion we are submitting to you. In this hurried hour when there is so much to be transacted, which a great many of you think is infinitely more important than this—please don't think that—I believe that the development of the mind of the child along these right lines is worth just as much to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania as is an enimated discussion as to our action with regard to the appropriation measure which we hope to meet with very soon. I am asking you men and ladies in all fairness to your child, to somebody else's child perhaps who has been neglected in regard to training along this line and which no less a person than Theodore Roosevelt, no greater a man than Woodrow Wilson and also the illustrious Coolidge have held are the things which must be taken care of fundamentally. I ask you members to go along with me.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Section 6 If any part or parts of this act shall be declared to be invalid or unconstitutional the remainder of the act shall stand

Section 7 All acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith are repealed

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. STERLING. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk for information.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend section 5, page 9, by striking out the whole of lines 1 to 22, both inclusive

Amend section 6, page 9, line 23, by striking out the figure "6" and inserting in lieu thereof the figure "5"

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the insertion of the amendments at this time? Is there any objection? The Chair hears none, and the amendments will be inserted in accordance with the instructions of the House.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended lie over for printing.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1302, (Senate Bill No. 466), entitled:

A Supplement to an act approved the seventeenth day of May one thousand nine hundred seventeen (Pamphlet Laws two hundred and eight) entitled "An act to regulate the practice of pharmacy and sale of poisons and drugs and providing penalties for the violation thereof defining the words 'drug' and 'poison' and providing for the appointment of a board which shall have in charge the enforcement of said law and the power to make rules and regulations for the enforcement of said law and providing for the purchase of samples of drugs for determining their quality strength and purity" providing for the registration of apprentices in pharmacy requiring employers of such apprentices to see that they are registered and imposing penalties

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

BILLS ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1416, (Senate Bill No. 566), entitled:

An Act authorizing and directing the Department of Welfare to pay from the manufacturing fund wages to all inmates in penitentiaries reformatories and other correctional institutions of the Commonwealth who perform labor necessary to the proper maintenance of such institutions and the inmates thereof independent of payments provided by law for inmates directly laboring on industries therein

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed it without amendment.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1254, (Senate Bill No. 493), entitled:

An Act to amend section two of the act approved the first day of June one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three (Pamphlet Laws fifty-eight) entitled "An act empowering and directing the county commissioners of any county to purchase ground at the county seat for the erection thereon of such building or buildings as may be necessary for the accommodation of the courts and of the several officers of the county and for the reception and safe keeping of the records and other papers in charge of such officers and also such other building or buildings as may be necessary and proper for the purposes of a county jail or workhouse when occasion shall require the erection of such building or buildings and in case the said ground cannot be obtained by agreement with the owner or owners at a reasonable price in the estimation of said commissioners then to resort to condemnation" providing for the leasing of part of ground so obtained to municipalities for use as comfort stations

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

On the question,

Will the House concur in the amendments made by the Senate?

Mr. McCAIG Mr. Speaker, I move that we non-concur in the amendments made by the Senate.

Mr. MARCUS. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

Mr. EDMONDS. Mr. Speaker, may I interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny who made the motion to non-concur?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. McCAIG. Mr. Speaker, I will.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Philadelphia will proceed.

Mr. EDMONDS. I understand from the motion which the gentleman has made that he does not approve of some of the amendments which the Senate has made to the General Appropriation Bill, is that correct?

Mr. McCAIG. That is correct.

Mr. EDMONDS. I notice that one of the amendments, if I may proceed further, Mr. Speaker, that one of the amendments raises the salaries of the teachers under the legislation of 1921 from $40,000,000 to $41,,900,000. Do I understand that the gentleman from Allegheny is in favor of that amendment?

Mr. McCAIG. Mr. Speaker, I would say for the gentleman that after conferring with the Senate committee, it was agreed upon that the $41,900,000 should be agreed upon.

Mr. EDMONDS. So that that amendment is satisfactory to the gentleman from Allegheny?

Mr. McCAIG. Yes, sir.

Mr. EDMONDS. I notice also that in the Senate, the item that relates to the Associate County Superintendents and all the other various educational items, pages 19 and 20 of this bill, has been increased from, I think, $3,030,000 to $4,030,000. May I ask the gentleman from Allegheny as to whether that amendment is satisfactory to him?

Mr. McCAIG. That was agreed to.

Mr. EDMONDS. So that that amendment is satisfactory?

Mr. McCAIG. Yes, sir.

Mr. EDMONDS. I notice, reading on further, that the item in the Department of Agriculture appropriations as to the Japanese beetle quarantine has been increased from $100,000 to $150,000. May I ask the gentleman from Allegheny if that is satisfactory to him?

Mr. McCAIG. That was not agreed to.

Mr. EDMONDS. Does the gentleman feel that the appropriation of $150,000 to stop the ravages of the Japanese beetle in this State is unreasonable?

Mr. McCAIG. I think it is, because they had $30,000 two years ago, and we give them now $100,000.

Mr. EDMONDS. The gentleman knows the Japanese beetle has increased as well as the appropriation necessary?

Mr. McCAIG. Well, the appropriation has been increased.

Mr. EDMONDS. I notice also under the item for instruction that there has been inserted a special item with reference to the special education of the deaf, dumb and blind, aggregating $986,000, which I understand is the total of the four appropriation bills which were passed through both House and Senate and which are now in the hands of the Governor, and by the act which we have also passed and the Governor signed, this item ought to be included in the appropriation to the Department of Public Instruction. May I ask the gentleman from Allegheny if he has objection to that?

Mr. McCAIG. I have objections to that being in the general bill. I understand the four bills that passed and now in the hands of the Governor cover that.

Mr. EDMONDS. But the gentleman knows that one of the bills we passed and the Governor signed requires that this appropriation for the deaf, dumb and blind ought to be in the general appropriation bill, does it not?

Mr. McCAIG. They are semi-State institutions.

Mr. EDMONDS. That is true; but is it not a fact that in the bill No. 311, which we have already passed and which is the law of the Commonwealth, the appropriation for the deaf, dumb and blind is to be made to the Department of Public Instruction in the General Appropriation Bill? Am I not correct in that?

Mr. McCAIG. The appropriations that we made to the—

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. ALEXANDER. The motion here is on a general motion that the House will not concur in the amendments. If that is carried, then this House will appoint a committee of Conference, and if the Senate insists on its amendments, the Senate will appoint a Committee of Conference, and those two committees then will get together. It is not a question whether one of these items is proper or six of them are proper. Therefore I raise the question that this interrogation is out of order. The motion is that we non-concur in the amendments made by the Senate.

Mr. EDMONDS. Mr. Speaker, if you will allow me in answering the point of order that my friend has made, I desire to say that the motion is to non-concur in a series of amendments. I am asking the gentleman who made the motion which of the amendments he feels we ought not to concur in. If there is anything on earth more germane to the question than that, I would like to know what it is.

Mr. FLYNN. Mr. Speaker, might I suggest to the members of the House that this situation is a very simple one, and is along the lines of good legislative practice. No one knows better than Mr. Edmonds just what this procedure consists of, that if this motion is agreed to, then the Speaker, on behalf of the House, will appoint three members who, together with three members appointed by the Senate, will discuss the various provisions of this bill and try to agree on a compromise that will in turn be brought here before the members and offered to them for their consideration. The members can then either adopt or reject that report. In case it is adopted, the bill is passed finally, and in case the conference report is not adopted, then the confererees are again commissioned to go back into conference and again try to agree.

Now, I submit that the gentleman from Philadelphia knows that it is wholly unfair to undertake to stand the Chairman of the House Appropriations Committee up on the floor of this House and have him make a declaration here as to the items in dispute, how they should be distributed. That certainly is the very thing that is before the House, the matter of the Conference Committee for that purpose; and the gentleman konws very well that when that report is finally made up, that it is brought back here and submitted for our consideration. That is the situation that presents iteslf here, and I do not believe it is entirely fair to Mr. McCaig. I do not mean to say that the gentleman intends to be in any way discourteous or unfair, but I do believe that he has a misconception as to what this situation is; and I would say to the members of the House that this action is taken to expedite the pasage of this legislation, that it can only be done in one of two ways, either by voting down the motion which would mean that the items in the bill would not have our careful consideration or it means that the House commissions a Conference Committee to act in their behalf with the Senate in an effort to try to reach an agreement on the amendments.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman's point of order is well taken. The question before the House is, Will the House non-concur in the amendments made by the Senate.

Mr. EDMONDS. Under your ruling, I will refrain from questioning the gentleman from Allegheny, but I will still debate on the motion to concur or non-concur.

The SPEAKER. That is perfectly proper.

Mr. EDMONDS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, why should we non-concur when we believe in the amendments that the Senate put in. Is it not simply just a waste of time? Now, as a matter of fact, when this General Appropriation Bill was before the House, several members of the House stated that they voted for it reluteantly, and I think those who were in favor of the bill most strongly recognized that the bill was imperfect. Certainly the gentleman from Allegheny has told me and the gentleman from Elk has told me that the cut in teachers' salaries from $41,900,000 was not in accord with their view. Well now, if the Senate has restored items in which we believe, why should we vote for those items now?

Mr. Speaker, to my mind the situation that is presented here is one that is clearly for the decision of the members of the House at this time. We have now but two weeks before adjournment, and the General Appropriation Bill ought to be in the hands of the Governor. We have two weeks of important legislation to consider. If we allow ourselves to get once more sidetracked in a conference over the items in this appropriation bill, it seems to me that it will mean delay and it may dislocate the harmony of the session. At the present time we have the Senate restoring a series of items which I believe in my heart of hearts every member of this House approves of. Let me say to my colleagues from Philadelphia, how would you like to go back to Philadelphia and say that the House bill gave us nothing for the Eastern Penitentiary and the Senate gave us one-half a million dollars for the Eastern Penitentiary, and then we voted against the Senate amendment? What is the object in that? Don't we believe a new Eastern Penitentiary is needed? Let me say to my friends that come from the agricultural district, if the Senate has incerased to an adequate amount the appropriation for the Japanese beetle quarantine. why should we want to except to that? We want the appropriation increased, and why should we vote for it? And, similarly affecting all the State, these items that fulfill our statutory pledges to the employees of the State, how can we, when the Senate has put in the exact amount that is necessary, how can we say we do not concur, and therefor we want a Conference Committee?

Mr. Speaker, it seems clear to me that if the majority of the members of the House are in favor of the amendments which the Senate has made, then the majority of the members of the House ought to vote "No" on this motion to non-concur and let us follow with a motion that we concur, and let us get done with this General Appropriation Bill and let us go on with the business on our regular schedule. It seems to me that in all common sense and playing fair with our constitutents, this General Appropriation Bill is certainly the most important financial legislation we have, and there are a certain number of things in it that we must have to meet the requirements of the existing law, or we must change the existing law. Let us therefore go to a vote and I appeal to the members of the House to vote "No" on this motion to non-concur if you belive that the Senate amendments are right.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, we have heard some talk here about important legislation. If there is any thing more important to my mind, it is sanely and soberly acting on the spending of $132,000,000. I do not care anything about our little bills that we may have—I have a number of them—but when it comes to the question of sitting down and soberly and sanely acting on the spending of $132,000,000, we should give it our best and closest and soberest attention, and I know when we look over this bill that that sober, sensible and sane attention has not been given to it by the members of the Senate. They have not played squarely with us. If they had gone and put certain thing in this bill, there would have been no objection to it, but when they have piled up $9,000,000 more than even the Governor asked for in his budget, because he says $120,000,000 is all we have, and they have appropriated $131,000,000, I ask what the next Governor is going to do if we load him up with such a thing os this when the present Governor came in, he claimed he had been left with a deficit of $29,000,000, he imagined he had that deficit although he only had $7,000,000—he wants you, after telling you about that year after year of the wrong in doing that same thing, he has asked us now soberly and sanely to load up the next man with about $9,000,000 more than we proposed and the revenues for the next beiennium will warrant. I stand for the sober, sane and proper deliberation on this bill, and just as the gentelman from Elk has said here today, we should proceed under our parlimentary rules to non-concur in these amendments and then a Committee of Conference on the part of the Senate and a like committee on the part of the House will be appointed; and then these two committees will soberly and sanely sit down around the table and go over each and every one of these items and measure them as to the needs and necessities of this State without fear or favor, without regard to who is asking for them and what they are. I am just as much in favor of the school system as my friends on the other side are, but I am not going to break down the institutions of our State for the purpose of leading up everything just to make capital for political purposes. This is a sane and sensible way to do it, and that is all we are asking to do, and I ask you to vote "Aye" on this motion and let these two committees be appointed.

Mr. PERRY. Mr. Speaker and ladies and gentlemen of the House, I have listened very diligently to the gentleman from Philadelphia, calling particular attention to particular items; in other words, he is like a lawyer preparing his case: he brings out the very good points and leaves out the points that he does not want considered. He failed to mention the rest of the items that have been restored and put in by the Senate. Now, this House, Mr. Speaker, is a creature within itself, We reserve the right ourselves and to say what is right and what is wrong, as far as this bill is concerned, not to take it willy-nilly or otherwise as the Senate may send it over to us and say we must stomach it as far as this bill is concerned. The gentleman from Philadelphia has appealed to the anthracite friends on the Japanese beetle question, but he does not appeal to the men from the coal regions on the increase of $400,000 to the bush-whacking band of buccaneers who ride rough-shod over these men in the coal regions who are having their labor troubles. No, he spoke of the Japanese bettle, but I say to you, Mr. Speaker and gentlemen, if for no other reason, this House should not concur in the amendments made by the Senate and should have a Conference Committee appointed to cut out items of that character and kind. And also he fails to mention $200,000 more that has been restored to the Department of Justice. As far as this bill is concerned, I say to you, men and women of this House, that we as members of this House have as much right to have our say as far as this bill is concerned as the Senate has to run away with it intheir mad power, and I ask every member of this House to vote to non-concur in this bill.

Mr. WILLIAMS. Mr, Speaker, it occurs to me that the way to solve the difference between the House and the Senate is to take up each amendment by itself instead of the bill as a whole. I am very sure from the expressions I have heard here, that there are many of these items in which we would be in hearty accord with the amendment made by the Senate. For instance, there would be no question, after the vote for increasing the salaries of the Judges, for the members of the House to concur in the amendments made by the Senate to the salaries for the common pleas, orphans court, municipal court and Allegheny County court judges, which amounts to only $816,000 for the next two years. Of course, if you concur in that, what is the use of going into a conference on it I presume there are many other items in the bill on which we can concur in the amendments made by the Senate, and if we took up each item by itself it will save time and enable us to report back from the committee in much less time than we will if we attempt to do it as a whole.

Mr. STADTLANDER. Mr. Speaker, as long as I have been a member of this House, when any difference arose between the Senate and the House it has always been the custom to appoint a conference committee of both Houses, and these men would sit down, as has been suggested in sober thought and go over these questions. I am not a member of the Appropriaions Committee, and there are quite a number of other members who are in the same place as I am,—on the outside. We have had our work to do in other committees. This committee has worked thoroughly and has given the question sober thought. However, they are asking you and me, who really know nothing about these questions and who have not given them any serious thought, to sit here in judgment and tell the House what we should do. I think the proper method is to appoint a committee of conference of the House and Senate, those men who understand the subject thoroughly and let those men go over it. I want to call your attention on page 65, at the top of the page, to an error made by the Senate, where they have struck out the words "Four hundred and thirty-two", and inserted the words "Five hundred and forty-five". Then they have inserted the numeral "$545,000." Can you imagine anything like that, but that is what has occurred. Let the conference committee take up all these various errors and correct them. I just discovered that by reading it, and it would make a laughing stock of the Legislature if we were to pass a bill reading "$545.00" when it should be "$545,000." Let us vote to non-concur so that these corrections can be made and I ask every member here to sustain the chairman of the Appropriations Committee.

Mr. EDMONDS. Mr. Speaker, I only want to correct ia few of the statements made by the various members. The gentleman from Delaware says that the amount of the bill has been raised to $132,000,000. while the total is $88,000,000 The gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Perry, calls attention to the state constabulary, to the increase made by the Senate to the appropriation for the state constabulary, and yet that appropriation is $30,000 less than it was four years ago. There was a big cut in that appropriation two years ago. This is merely restoring in some measure the amount that should be appropriated and it will give them a chance to re-establish more sub-stations and do the work more efficiently, and to bring it nearer to the enrollment as prescribed by law. And so all along the line. These increases are to meet conditions that must be fulfilled under exesting laws. There is nothing to confer about; we must appropriate the money that the law requires.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. EDMONDS and Mr. GOODNOUGH and were as follows:

REPORT FROM COMMITTEES.

Mr. STERLING, from the Committee on Ways and Means, reported as committed, House Bill No. 1555, entitled:

An Act to amend section three of the act approved the fifteenth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three (Pamphlet Laws eight hundred and thirty-four) entitled "An act imposing a State tax, including an additional emergency State Tax on liquid fuels, including all liquids ordinarily, practically and commercially usuable in internal combustion engines for the generation of power and all distillates of and condensates from petroleum, natural gas, coal, coal tar and vegetable ferments so usuable and sold in this Commonwealth, except for the purpose of resale, providing for the collection of such tax and for the distribution and use of the revenues derived therefrom providing for the filing of certificates and reports of the sale of such liquid fuels to dealers, and fixing penalties."

BILL ON FIRST READING.

Mr. STERLING, asked and obtained unanimous consent to have House Bill No. 1555, read for the first time.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the first reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1555, entitled:

An Act to amend section three ofan act approved the fifteenth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three (Pamphlet Laws eight hundred and thirty-four) entitled "An act imposing a State tax, including an additional emergency State Tax on liquid fuels, including all liquids ordinarily, practically and commercially usuable in internal combustion engines for the generation of power and all distillates of and condensates from petroleum, natural gas, coal, coal tar and vegetable ferments so usuable and sold in this Commonwealth, except for the purpose of resale, providing for the collection of such tax and for the distribution and use of the revenues derived therefrom providing for the filing of certificates and reports of the sale of such liquid fuels to dealers, and fixing penalties."

And said bill having been read at length the first time,

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. STERLING. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. STERLING. Mr. Speaker, the bill just reported by me as committed is House Bill No. 1555, otherwise known as the Emergency Gasoline Tax bill. That bill is reported under an agreement of a majority of the Ways and Means Committee, who approved the reporting of it subject to that agreement. The shortest way to tell you what that agreement is is to read the stipulation I have. That stipulation is as follows:

We the unders gned Members of the Ways and Means Committee of the House agree hereby that House Bill No. 1555, Emergency Gasoline Tax Bill be reported from the Committee with the understanding that it be given first and second reading and then be re-committed to the Committee pending an agreement by the parties interested and pending further the submission of financial statement of the Department of Highways showing expenditures and anticipated revenues for the 1925-1927 biennium.

BILLS INTRODUCED.

Mr. HESS. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to introduce two bills at this time.

The SPEAKER. The title of the bills will be read for the information of the House.

The Clerk read the title of the bills as follows:

HOUSE BILL No. 1675.

An Act to amend route four hundred and thirty-five of section one of the act approved the day of one thousand nine hundred and tyenty-five, entitled "An act establish ng certain public roads as State Highways,and providing for their construction and maintenance at the expense of the Commonwealth."

HOUSE BILL No. 1676.

An Act to establish as State Highways certain sections of public road in the county of Mercer.

The SPEAKER. Is there any objection?

Mr. HAAS. Mr. Speaker, I object.

The SPEAKER. The Chair hears objection.

Mr. HESS. Mr. Speaker, permit me to make an explanation as to the reason for this. These are two amendments to the omnibus bill that were agreed to and promises given to the members to have them included, but they were lost in the Department of Printing and not included in the bill as it passed the House and Senate, and this is simply to correct these several errors.

Mr. HAAS. Mr. Speaker, I withdraw my objection.

The SPEAKER. The Chair hears no objection and the bills will be received.

RESOLUTION.

RECALLING HOUSE BILL NO. 54 FROM THE GOVERNOR.

Mr. McCAIG offered the following resolution, which was twice read, considered and adopted.

In the House of Representatives, April 2, 1925.

Resolved, (if the Senate Concur): That House Bill No. 54, File Folio No. 5, entitled:

"An act transferring and reappropriating to the Department of Forests and Waters the unexpended balance of an appropriation heretofore made to the Water Supply Commission of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania for the purpose of repairing the dyke along the Delaware River at the western end of the borough of Matamoras in the county of Pike."

be recalled from the Governor for the purpose of amendment.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

BILL ON THIRD READING.

Mr. HORN asked and obtained unanimous consent to call up at this time House Bill No. 181, file folio 5169, on page 30 of today's calendar, bills on third reading.

COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA

Legislative Journal

Session 1925 — 126th of the General Assembly

Vol. 8. HARRISBURG, PA., MONDAY, APRIL 6, 1925. No. 34.

SENATE.

MONDAY, April 6th, 1925.

The Senate met at 9:00 o'clock P. M.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor David J. Davis) in the Chair.

The Chaplain, Rev. Edward S. Ninde, offered the following prayer:

Our Heavenly Father: We thank Thee for the spiritual side of life. In this busy world of toil and traffic it is so easy to become absorbed in material things, the things that will presently pass away and be gone forever. We need to turn our thoughts toward Thee. We have entered on a week which to vast multitudes throughout Christendom is the holiest week of the entire year. During these days, so rich in hallowed memories, may we be drawn away from everything that is base and ignoble, and may we be lifted into a new and a more intimate fellowship with Thee. Fill our hearts with joy and gratitude, and may the whole world be crowned with the radiant glory of the Easter tide. These blessings we ask in the name of Jesus Christ. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED.

The PRESIDENT—A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. BUCKMAN, the further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

LEAVES OF ABSENCE.

Mr. SNYDER asked and obtained leave of absence for the Senator from Venango, Mr. Phipps, on account of illness in his family.

Mr. FREEMAN asked and obtained leave of absence for the Senator from Franklin, Mr. Bonbrake, on account of illness.

Mr. SPROWLS asked and obtained leave of absence for the Senator from Clearfield, Mr. Betts.

He also asked and obtained leave of absence for the Senator from Jefferson, Mr. North, on account of illness.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair wants to take advantage of this opportunity to offer to the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Leslie, the congratulations of his fellow members, its officers and employees, who wish for him many happy returns of the day, with a long life of happiness, health, and prosperity.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, and fellow members of the Senate, it is very gratifying to me to hear this expression from the members of the Senate and friends. I know of no one thing in my life that I appreciate more than the membership in this body. To be with the members, to participate in the proceedings and to be a part of the legislative branch, the Senate branch, of this great Commonwealth, is one of the great things in my life.

I trust those who know me will appreciate the fact that I carry no differences with me, when other members differ with me in thought or judgment. Ofttimes we become divided. Division does not carry with me other than the right of each member to take the side or the part which he thinks best to participate in. So I carry away no thought of malice nor concern; it is just the average thing of everyday life,—trying at all times to do the best that I know how in the best way I know how. I err like every other man in this world errs, but my errors they are not errors of the heart, they are errors of the mind.

So, on this, my natal day, I feel as young as I did twenty years ago. I have, like all others, the ills that come to men and come to all human beings when they arrive at the age of fifty or more. So, at the age of sixty-one, I look forward in the faith that the sun will shine brighter to-morrow and the grass will grow greener and the buds will commence to bloom, and that there will be happiness here on earth for those who wish to participate in life with the breadth and width and the wisdom of thought in the interest of this great Commonwealth and this great country. I thank you.
